Reno Rites Unite Couple

MALIN — The Parks Wedding Chapel in Reno was the setting Jan. 27, for the candlelight ceremony in which Wayne Joyce Holbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holbrook, Tulelake, became the bride of Willis Alden Zane, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Zane, of Woodland.

The couple repeated their vows in a double ring ceremony, in the presence of the immediate families and close friends.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a street length sheath of white lace over white brushed cotton. A small seed pearl hat held her veil. She wore white elbow length gloves, and carried her white Rainbow Bible topped with a double orchid and white carnations. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Ruth Galloway, maid of honor, Concord, classmate of the bride, wore a sheath dress of lavender wool and carried an orchid and carnation nosegay.

Best man was Guy L. Winton of Oakland.

Mrs. Holbrook chose for her daughter's wedding a pink knit suit and white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Others in attendance were Denise Holbrook, sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Tarp, Macdoel, close friends of the family.

The wedding was followed by a dinner in Sparks.

The new Mrs. Zane is a graduate of Tulelake High School and is employed at the University of California in Berkeley. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Grace Holbrook of Malin.

The bridegroom is employed with a plumbing company in Oakland.

A reception was held Feb. 18, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holbrook, in Tulelake, honoring the newlyweds.

FESTIVE DATE DESSERT

Fold a cup of chopped fresh California dates and 1/4 teaspoon maple flavoring into butterscotch pudding made from a packaged mix. Fill cream puff or éclair shells, made from a mix or bakery-bought, with date - pudding mixture. Top with date slivers.

DONALD BASSIST, director of the John Robert Powers School of Portland, will reveal "The Seven Secrets of the Powers Girls" at the Monday, March 27, luncheon meeting of AAUW in the Camas Room of the Winema Hotel. Tickets are two dollars. The speaker has been eight years with the Powers organization, which is responsible for the launching of many glamorous careers.

Parents - Patrons

MALIN SCHOOL

MALIN—The February Parent-Patron meeting was held Tuesday in the grade school gymnasium. Interesting patriotic decor was used on the tables for the potluck dinner arranged by Mrs. Frank Payr, program chairman. Sixth grade room mothers, Mrs. Paul Mullinix and Mrs. Clyde Unruh, were hostesses.

Cub Scouts presented the colors and Tony McCurdy led in the flag salute.

Philip Petrasek, district winner of the poetry division in junior high school, read "Mulberry Street," and "Jane Jones."

Mrs. Mabel Cunningham sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Bunnell.

Concluding, Donna Lee Micka, local high school poetry winner, read two poems by Alfred Lord Tennyson.

The next meeting will be March 21.

Canton Crater

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 held a regular meeting on Thursday, March 9, at the IOOF Hall with Lady Helen Blanas, president, in charge and all officers in uniform.

Memorial services for Lady Kathleen Hepburn were conducted with chevalliers of Canton No. 7, George Blanas, Frank McCornack, Edgar Hoffman, Charles Leib and Herbert Munsell, forming an honor guard as officers of the auxiliary performed the impressive draping of the charter.

Inspection of the auxiliary was conducted by Lady Margaret Biden, assisted by Lina Motschenbacher as past president. Announcement was made of a reception to honor Herbert Munsell, brigadier general and department commander of Patriarchs Militant of Oregon, on April 29, at the IOOF Hall.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the dining hall by Vera Fritsch and Iona May Wells.

The previous meeting on Feb. 23 was also conducted by Helen Blanas. Inspection was conducted by Frances Munsell in place of Margaret Biden, who was ill. Mrs. Munsell, association president of Ladies Auxiliaries of Oregon, asked for reservations for her dinner to be given in Pendleton during Grand Lodge in May, and also related some of her plans at that time.

Helen Blanas announced plans for a rummage sale to be held Thursday, March 23, 8 p.m. at the reception and practice seat early in the fall. February birthdays were honored by singing and greetings.

The dining hall featured George Washington decorations and a patriotic theme, with refreshments served by Vera Clemmens and Margaret Biden.
