Series Set For Lawyers

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON - Some 700 Oregon lawyers will be on the University of Oregon campus during spring vacation, for the 1961 session of the Continuing Legal Education Series sponsored by the Oregon State Bar Association.
The topic for the March 23-24 session is "creditor's remedies." Speakers, panel discussions, and live demonstrations will review every aspect of this important function.
Proceedings will be held in the Erb Memorial Union. Registrations will take place in the lobby of the Eugene Hotel.
Interested persons should contact John H. Holloway, secretary Oregon State Bar, 622 Pittock Block, Portland.

Guard Boat Tows Yacht

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) - A jinxed luxury yacht will finally make it from Honolulu to California, on the end of a Coast Guard tow line.
The 73-foot Endymion lost a mast and its radio Friday in heavy seas some 300 miles southwest of San Francisco. It halted a passing freighter and reported its plight.
The freighter relayed the information to the Coast Guard here, which launched a search. The ship was found Friday chugging along at about four knots on an auxiliary engine.
