Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed irregularly higher today with trading again at a heavy rate.

Rails provided most of the upward pressure. Brokers described the rails' strength as largely technical, growing out of the group's apparently successful penetration of key resistance points in the averages.

ROSS RAGLAND, "Mr. United Fund of 1961" award winner, has accepted a division chairmanship for the 1962 drive to begin next fall. He has served in various capacities during his years with the fund here and recently was picked for a second term on the UF board. Last year, his division was one of two which exceeded the quota. Ragland has worked with UF every year since it was instituted here in 1953.

Mark Suggests Slice Counties

SALEM (AP) — Gov. Mark O. Hatfield said Monday it might be a good idea to reduce the number of Oregon counties.

He said that either the reduction should be made, or the number of legislators should be put on a sliding scale to accommodate the population changes.

Hatfield said he opposes any plan to apportion the Legislature that does not provide representation according to population.

He did not say how many counties the state should have, but pointed out that the late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger proposed that the number be reduced from 36 to about 15.

The governor praised Sen. Wayne Morse for his cooperation in helping pave the way for Boeing Airplane Co. to lease the Boardman Bombing Range.

But he was critical of the Legislature for not passing the enabling legislation. He pointed out that he submitted it Feb. 14, and said the Legislature has had plenty of time to act upon it.

Hatfield also said the government should find some other use for the Tongue Point Naval Station near Astoria, which it plans to close.

W. O. Lohrey Death Noted

William O. Lohrey, 66, a resident of Klamath Falls for 36 years, died at Hillside Hospital March 20. He had been in failing health for three months.

Mr. Lohrey, a millwright, had been employed for 20 years at Ewauna Mill and for 10 years at Kesterson's Mill. He retired in 1960. He was a native of Wolf Creek, Wisc., born Oct. 24, 1894.

He served in the Navy during World War I and was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Dora Lohrey, 2144 Eberlein Street; sons, Robert Lohrey, Lake Tahoe, Calif., and Harold Prather of Grants Pass; four sisters and a brother, living elsewhere than Klamath County; also six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by O'Hair's Memorial Chapel.

Tenant Rues Defiant Move

A tenant defied his landlord Monday night but learned Tuesday morning that his defiance didn't pay.

Meryle Eugene Collins, 27, 2105 Holly Street, was given a choice of a $25 fine or five days in jail Tuesday in municipal court for disorderly conduct. He had been charged with disorderly conduct by his landlord, Gust Lampropulos, owner of the Olympic Apartments.

Lampropulos told city police that Collins was having a noisy party in his apartment. He told Collins to quiet down but the young man allegedly retorted by telling Lampropulos, "Get out or I'll throw you out."

A 17-year-old youth, Donald Melton Barkley, 1243 Kane Street, was arrested and charged with being drunk on school property Monday morning. He also received a $25 or five-day sentence Tuesday morning in municipal court.

Police investigated the following reports:

A salesman at Jim Olson Motors Used Car Lot, Sixth and Oak streets, said a spare tire, radio, bumper jack and cigarette lighter had been stolen from a car on the lot over the weekend.

M. J. Bates, 5945 Alva Street, told state police that vandals had attacked his car Monday night or early Tuesday morning. Bates said the aerial and mirror were broken off the car and the left front window was broken. The radiator cap and oil cap were stolen and the hood was raised.

Louis Kandra, 2641 Front Street, said some boys were throwing rocks off the hill by Wood's Boat House.

Thoma Services Set Thursday

Services for George Andrew Thoma, a resident of Klamath County since 1909, will be held at Ward's Klamath Funeral Home, Thursday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m. Final rites will be in the Mt. Laki Cemetery. The Rev. Andrew Jarvis, pastor of the Mt. Laki Community Church, will officiate.

Mr. Thoma was born in Wenkheim, Germany. After coming to Klamath County he settled in Merrill, establishing a creamery there in 1911. He served for one year as president of the Merrill Service Club, and as police judge and city recorder.

He had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Buford Kaylor, in the Mt. Laki district for several years.

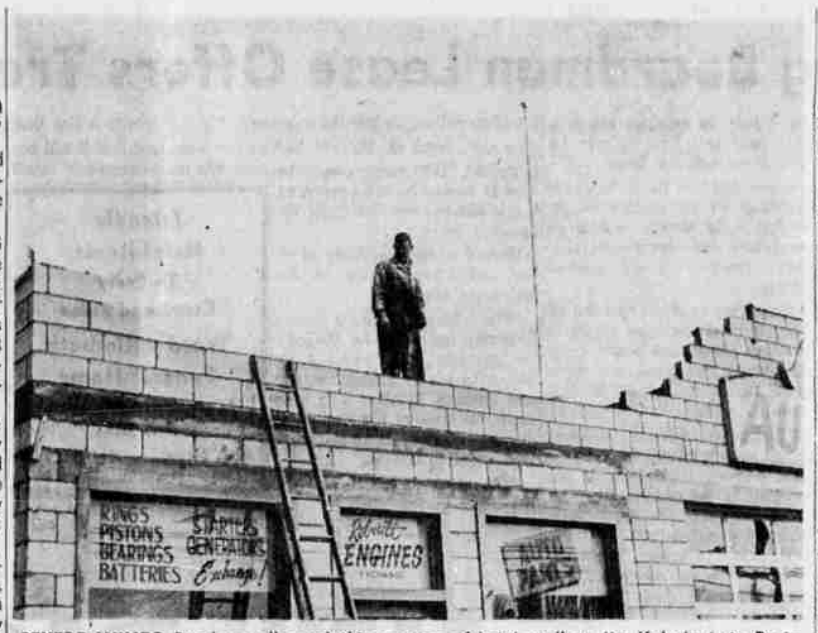
Growers To Meet

TULELAKE—A meeting for cereal and small seed growers is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 22, in the Tulelake farm adviser's office.

Stan Bradbury, director of the northern region, suggests that any growers interested in the production of certified durum wheat, grass seed or legume seed should attend this meeting.

Frank Parsons and Burt Ray of the California Crop Improvement Association and Bradbury will be present to discuss seed production and answer questions on problems.

SERVICES FOR John E. Thackara, 92, Butte Valley pioneer who died March 18 in Hillside Hospital, will be Thursday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m. in O'Hair's Memorial Chapel. Final rites and interment will be in the Picard Cemetery, Dorris.



SEVERE WINDS Sunday collapsed this portion of brick wall at Jim Kaler's Auto Parts and Service, 4035 South Sixth Street. Here Kaler examines the damage. He was working inside at the time. "It sounded like an atomic bomb going off." The weight of the bricks damagnd the roof, Kaler said. He believes the bricks were loosened by stiff winds a few days previous.

State Hospital Starts Plan To Reduce Patients

SALEM (AP) — The Oregon State Hospital started a new program Monday by which it hopes to reduce the number of persons admitted to the hospital, and to discharge patients more rapidly.

J. N. Peet, secretary of the Board of Control, called it "a radically new concept in the field of mental health."

Under past procedures, any person could commit himself to the hospital for a minimum of 30 days, during which the hospital would make tests to determine if the patient were mentally ill.

These voluntary commitments amounted to more than half of the admissions to the 3,150-patient hospital.

Under the new procedure, a special admissions team of psychiatrists and other personnel examines every person who commits himself. Such a patient might be admitted, refused admission, referred to the outpatient clinic, referred to the welfare commission, or referred to his own doctor.

Another aspect is that all judges and doctors are being requested to seek advice from the admissions team before sending a patient to the state hospital.

"The state Medical Society is sending out 10,000 letters to doctors and others to let them know of this advisory service. The judges are very enthusiastic that they now can get expert medical advice from the hospital to guide them in whether to commit persons," Peet said.

The hospital has created a special discharge team of psychiatrists and others to handle the problem of curing patients more rapidly, and making sure that patients are discharged when they are cured.

A similar procedure is being followed at the new Dammasch State Hospital, where the entire staff also serves as out - patient doctors.

Thieves Hit Roosevelt

Burglars smashed their way into Roosevelt School early Tuesday but collected only three or four cheap wrist watches for their trouble.

Don Peck, the school custodian, noticed some broken glass when he came to work Tuesday morning. The thieves apparently threw a rock through a window, reached in and raised the window to gain entry.

The thieves went upstairs and ransacked desks in the rooms and the principal's office. Principal Gerald Clemens said three or four cheap wrist watches were stolen.

City police are investigating.

23 Years Ago

Monday, March 20, 1938—Guy Merrill filed Thursday for the democratic nomination for county judge. Merrill former police chief of Klamath Falls, one-time county commissioner and pioneer resident of the county, was the third democrat to declare his candidacy for the judge's office.

Tuesday, March 21, 1938—Mrs. Walter Lassette entertained a group of friends at her home, 2120 Wantland avenue, on Tuesday evening. Cards were enjoyed followed by supper. High score of the evening went to Mrs. George Clark, Jr.

Wednesday, March 22, 1938—Mrs. L. D. Gass and Miss Henrietta Ekern entertained the members of their bridge club at a delightful waffle breakfast at the Gass home on Jefferson street last Saturday morning.

Thursday, March 23, 1938—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassette and daughter, Beverly, plan to leave this weekend for Bakersfield where they will remain until August. The Lassettes leave each year for the south for several months.

Friday, March 24, 1938—Mr. and Mrs. Loy Barker and son, Gerald "Gerry" Ivan, were among the visitors in Klamath Falls Saturday afternoon from their home in Malin. Barker is principal of the Malin high school.

Council Eyes Plan

Highway 97; Commercial from Klamath to South Sixth; East Main from Main to South Sixth.

Eberlein from Washburn Way to Alameda; Esplanade from Alameda to Pacific Terrace; Klamath from Spring to Lake Ewauna; Main from Esplanade to Alameda; Old Fort Road from Alameda to east city limits.

Oregon Avenue from Upham to West Side Bypass; Pine from Third to Eleventh; Prospect from Upham to Ninth; Shasta Way from South Sixth to the east city limits; Spring from Esplanade to South Sixth; Upham from Oregon Avenue to Eleventh; Wall from Alameda to Esplanade.

Walnut from Fourth to Eleventh; Washburn Way from South Sixth to Alameda; Washington from North Eleventh to Alameda; Third from Klamath to Pine; Fourth from Walnut to Pine; Fifth from Walnut to Pine; Sixth from Main to Pine.

Seventh from Main to High; Eighth from Walnut to Pine; Ninth from Prospect to Commercial; Eleventh from Upham to Commercial; High from Sixth to Eleventh and Broad from Main to South Sixth.

The maintenance would be done by the city and paid for by the county. County Engineer Jack Kalinoski explained the figure listed as equivalent to $1,200 per mile average cost of maintaining county roads.

"The main thing," Kalinoski said, "is not the amount of money, but rather that the county is saying we are as interested in these streets as in well traveled county roads. We are willing to rate these streets alongside other roads in our priority system and provide maintenance accordingly."

The council discussed a proposal to offer a pro rata license for a proposed new amusement and vending machine operation. Councilman Walter Fleet objected to the pro rata offer on the first year, and eventually agreed to a new provision whereby the firm would pay a pro rata share of $1,500 annually for the balance of the current fiscal year, plus $1,500 for the next fiscal year. The entire amount would be payable at the time of applying for the license.

After the fiscal year of 1961-62, the license fee would be $1,000.

After thorough discussion, the council also moved to discontinue the practice of waiving the temporary restaurant license when non-profit groups conduct food sales.

A communication from Dr. Seth Kerron, county health officer, asked that this be done to facilitate his department in its sanitary inspection system.

The council also denied a request by the Eagles Lodge to sell ads on a special Max Baer Heart Fund program pending receipt of additional information on the distribution of monies received.

The Bureau of Reclamation sent the council a copy of a letter sent to Oregon Tech in which they reminded OTI of its obligation on the footbridge that crosses the A-Canal on the route to Ponderosa School and suggested that the bridge be torn down.

The bridge was blocked off several weeks ago when it turned out to be in hazardous condition.

In other action, the final ordinance on locksmithing was enacted by the council, setting up some regulations governing the making of duplicate keys, and designed to give better protection to the general public on the question of making keys.

Woman Given 10-Year Term

Verna Lee Ruff, 32-year-old Sprague River woman, was sentenced to a term not to exceed 10 years in the Oregon State Penitentiary Tuesday morning by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg.

Judge Vandenberg passed sentence after denying two motions by defense attorney Glenn D. Ramirez. Ramirez had moved for a judgment of acquittal notwithstanding the verdict and for a new trial and the grounds that one of the jurors was related to a witness.

Ramirez argued that juror Theodore Hoff was the brother-in-law of county jailer Bert Vaagen, who was a defense witness.

"There was nothing material in the testimony of Vaagen," Judge Vandenberg said. "There is nothing to show that Hoff was any more prejudiced against the defendant than nine other jurors."

Mrs. Ruff was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter last Friday night by a 10-2 vote of the jury. She had been charged with the second degree knife murder of 38-year-old Joseph W. Penasse of Sprague River.

Mrs. Ruff was not visibly shaken by the sentence. She chatted with relatives, including her mother, outside the courtroom before returning to the county jail.
