

Merrill Lad In Exercise

MERRILL — Army Sp. 4 Gordon L. Kandra, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Kandra, Star Route, Merrill, participated with other personnel from the 3rd Division's 33rd Armor in a six-week field training exercise in Grafenwohr, Germany. The unit's phase of the training ended March 4.

The exercise was designed to provide training under cold weather conditions during day and night maneuvers. The Grafenwohr training area is the largest training site available to NATO forces in Europe. The 3rd is one of five U. S. divisions in NATO's "Pyramid of Power."

Specialist Kandra, a communications chief in the armor's Company A in Gienhausen, Germany, entered the Army in July, 1959, and arrived overseas the following December. He received basic combat training at Fort Ord, Calif.

A 1958 graduate of Malin High School, Kandra attended Oregon State College.

Woman Faces Check Case

Mrs. Otto Shepherd, 31, Route 3, Klamath Falls, was returned to Klamath Falls from Roseburg last Friday to face a charge of knowingly uttering and publishing a forged bank check. She was indicted by the grand jury in January but was subsequently returned to Roseburg and sentenced to 75 days in jail, also on a check violation.

Mrs. Shepherd is accused of passing some checks in Klamath Falls in December under the name Lola Alice Johnson. Robert Kerr was appointed as her attorney Monday morning in circuit court.

A 46-year-old man was arraigned in district court Monday morning on a forgery charge. He was Donald Chapel, 4014 Fawn Avenue.

Chapel was arrested Saturday afternoon by sheriff's deputies after he allegedly attempted to pass two forged checks. One, for $28.50, he offered at Market Basket No. 1, Ninth and Pine streets, and the other, for $10, he tried to cash at Vern's Tavern, 122 South Seventh Street.

Fair Association Picks President

LAKEVIEW — Alfred Wood was elected president of the Lake County Fair Association to succeed John Richardson at the annual dinner meeting held Wednesday evening, March 15, at Van's in Lakeview.

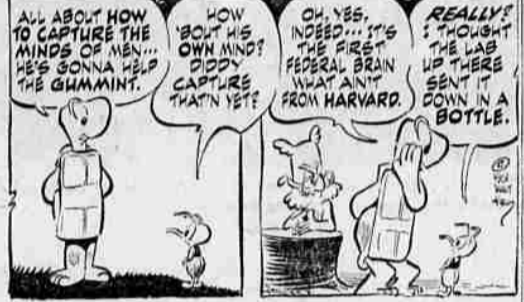

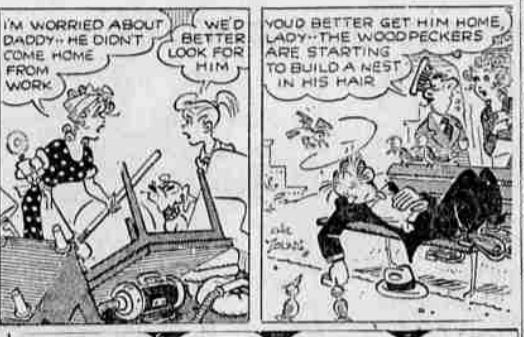

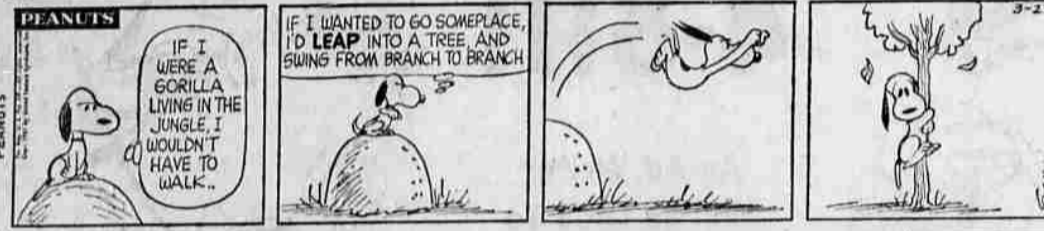

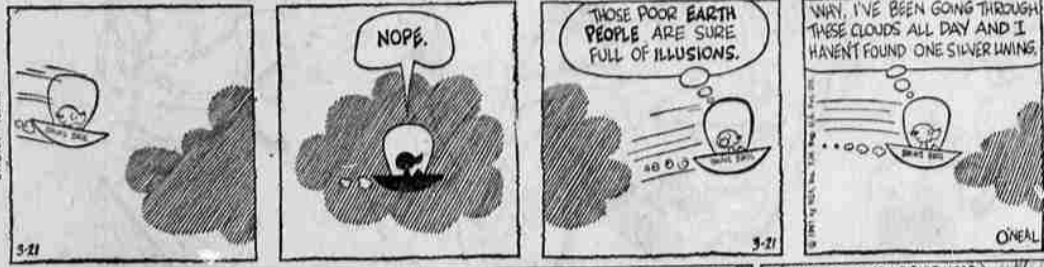

Darrell Leavitt was elected vice president and Mrs. Henry McCormick was reelected secretary.

Seventeen persons were present to represent past presidents of the association, division heads, members of the county court and others interested. Warren Maxwell of the fair board talked on the status of the two organizations.

The next meeting was scheduled for April 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the office of Oris Rudd, extension agent. Plans will be discussed for the fall fair.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—The Tennessee legislature adjourned its 82nd session Friday after 75 days of meetings. Among the more important measures approved during the session was the state's first billion dollar spending program. It includes a $961 million state appropriation for the biennium and more than $43 million in bond issues for highways and education.
