Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market held substantial gains in moderate trading late this afternoon as Wall Street responded to news that the immediate threat of a strike in the auto industry had been lifted.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3.4 million shares compared with 3 million Tuesday.

Gains of fractions to a point or two among key stocks outnumbered losers.

Motors and steels went ahead sharply from the start as it was reported that today's 10 a.m. strike deadline had been extended and that the auto union and General Motors had reached an agreement in principle on key issues. GM advanced a point.

Corporate bonds were mixed, while U.S. governments were mostly unchanged.

Harry Holt Daughter Found Dead

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The daughter of the Creswell, Ore., farmer who has arranged the adoption of 2,800 Korean orphans was found dead in her Mexico City apartment Tuesday.

U. S. Embassy spokesmen said Wanda Belle Holt, 26, a missionary from Portland, apparently suffocated. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt.

She had left a can of soiled clothes boiling on a gas range while she took a nap in her bedroom. The water boiled away, the clothes burned and smoke filled the apartment, which was closed tightly.

Miss Holt was reported to have come to Mexico City three months ago for the Youth Baptist National Union to do missionary work. She had just returned from a short visit home.

The body was taken to a police station. An autopsy may be conducted. Authorities expected a sister today.

Bodenhamer Funeral Set

Funeral services will be held Friday, Sept. 8, at 2 p.m. from O'Hair's Memorial Chapel for George E. Bodenhamer, 65. Mr. Bodenhamer, a Klamath Falls businessman for many years, died Sept. 3 in Sacred Heart Hospital, Eugene. Final rites and interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park.

Mr. Bodenhamer came to Klamath Falls from California in 19[illegible] and established the firm of Bodenhamer's, a saw service firm at 351-353 East Main in 19[illegible]. The business will be continued by a daughter, Pearl W. Nason of Klamath Falls.

[illegible]

He was a native of J[illegible]town, Calif., was a member of Grizzle Lodge No. 916 F.A. & M. of Portola, Calif. Masons will conduct the funeral services and graveside rites.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Ola Bodenhamer, Klamath Falls; sons, George of Lakeview, and Paul of Brookings; daughters, Mrs. Alice E. Burnett, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Pearl W. Nason, this city; also 14 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Skin Divers Seek Youngster

TACOMA (AP) — Skin divers were called in Wednesday in the search for Ann Marie Burr, 8-year-old girl missing since last Thursday.

A search of divers Tuesday yielded no clues to the disappearance of the girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burr.

RETIRES FROM POST OFFICE — Wallace Scheck, shown with his wife, retired from the U. S. Post Office here last week. Scheck joined the postal department in early 1930 and except for periods of military leave, worked until his retirement. He and his wife will stay in the Klamath Falls area for a while, but will eventually travel with their trailer home. Postal employes gave him a going away party at which the gifts he holds were presented.

Jury Picked As Cowan Murder Trial Begins

Seven men and five women were selected Tuesday as the jury in the first degree murder trial of Ransom Cowan, 65-year-old Chiloquin man.

After opening statements Wednesday morning by the rival attorneys, the jury was scheduled for a trip to a small house on the Chiloquin Road just off Highway 97, where the alleged murder took place the night of May [illegible]. Cowan is accused of shooting [illegible], of Chiloquin, to death.

During questioning of prospective jurors, Cowan's attorneys, J. C. O'Neill and [illegible] McLaren, indicated that they would rely on self defense. District Attorney Dale T. Crabtree did not disclose whether or not he would ask for the death penalty in the event of a first degree conviction.

Jurors selected were Elmer E. Dick, Alice Johnson, Betty [illegible], Parker, Betty A. Ezell, Marvin Cook, Richard Eastman, Maynard Paugh, Robert V. Vonasek, Winnie E. Christian, Elaine S. Durbin, Melvin Carlson and Everett R. [illegible]. [illegible] Millard was selected as an alternate juror.

Burglars Hit Firms

A private home, a real estate office and an ice company were visited over the weekend, city police learned Tuesday.

The home, at 1931 Huron Street, is owned by Dr. Robert L. Mueller. He said a burglar climbed in through an open window and stole a BB gun, a 30-30 carbine, a 270 Winchester rifle and a 12-gauge trap shooting gun from a locker in the basement.

Dr. Mueller said the guns were worth a total of $[illegible]00. He also reported that his dog, a Golden Retriever worth $50[illegible], was missing.

A burglar who knew what he was after broke into the Vernon Durant Real Estate Office, [illegible]. He came in through the back door, got a key from a drawer, opened a cabinet in the front office and took $78.96. Police said there were no marks of any kind.

The Klamath Ice and Storage Company, 661 Spring Street, was entered, probably by transients looking for food, police said. A fruit car at the rear of the building was broken into and a padlock was pried off a freezer door but nothing appeared to have been taken.

Fleet Funeral Set Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Gilbert (Maurine) Fleet will be held in the First Presbyterian Church Thursday, Sept. 7, at 3 p.m. Interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park with the Rev. Robert C. Groves officiating. O'Hair's Memorial Chapel is in charge of arrangements. Contributions may be made to the Cancer Fund.

Pallbearers will be Sam Ritchey, Don Miller, Ben Kerns, Kristian Gippo, Vern Owens and A. V. McVey.

A memorial service will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 10, at the Unitarian Meeting House in the Pine Grove District.

Mrs. Fleet died in Hillside Hospital Sept. 5.

Air Lane Talk Asked By Reds

BERLIN (UPI) — The East German Communists called on the West again today to negotiate directly with East Germany on the use of Allied air routes to West Berlin.

The Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland published remarks by East German boss Walter Ulbricht at the Leipzig Fair in which he said flatly that a peace treaty between the Soviet Union and East Germany "will be signed."

City Move On Housing Gets Partial Setback

The city council's policy of crackdown on sub-standard housing in the area suffered a partial setback Monday night in the case of a proposed condemnation of a cabin on Alameda and Portland streets.

The council moved to condemn three cabins of a group at that location last March 13, and gave the owner six months to either tear them down or bring them up to code. An ordinance directing the buildings be torn down was scheduled for first and second readings Monday night.

Frank B. Weaver, owner of the cabins, appeared with an attorney, Ortis Goakey, to protest the move. He told the council that he went to the building inspector Monday morning and asked for a building permit to fix up one of the buildings, and was refused by Building Inspector Verne Schortgen.

He stated that of the three buildings, one had been torn down, another had been donated to the police association for use as a target shack, and that he desired to fix up the third cabin, located immediately adjacent to Portland, and bring it up to code. He told the council he planned new siding, new roof and plumbing and wiring work inside and that it would be about 90 per cent finished in a couple of days if he could get a permit.

When asked why he waited until the last day to get a permit, Weaver stated he did not have title to the one cabin until just recently.

Schortgen told the council the house has no plumbing to speak of, is too close to the property line, and the building code says if a structure is to be remodeled more than 50 per cent of its value, then the entire property must be brought up to code. He pointed out that the house needs a foundation in addition to almost complete renovation inside and out.

Weaver asked if he could do all of the work now except the foundation, and do that within six months. The council then discussed whether or not, if Weaver did the work asked, the house could be condemned for lack of a foundation.

After discussion of this point, it was decided that if Weaver presented the council with a valid contract by some builder to do all the work including the foundation, or if he presented a performance bond in the estimated amount of all the remodeling by next Monday night, they would hold up further action on the condemnation.

Schortgen reviewed the history of the cabins for the council, stating that he had tried to condemn them when they were first moved onto the site, but was unable to do so.

He also estimated it would cost between $1,300 and $1,500 to renovate the cabin as required.

Meantime, the council proceeded with first and second readings of ordinances directing the tearing down of the cabins. The third and final reading next Monday would be held up if Weaver meets one of the required items.

Bids were opened on proposals to construct a 32 by 100 foot steel storage building for the city on its street department site beneath the South Sixth Street overpass. Low bidder was Engineering and Sales Company of Portland with a bid of $4,462 for a structure 32 by 109 feet. Other bidders were Laminated Wood Structures, Medford, $4,550; South Sixth Street Steel Company, Klamath Falls, $5,392, and Bennington Steel Company, Klamath Falls, $6,499.

The city will construct the foundation, and the bids were for a building to be erected on the prepared foundation.

All bids were referred to the city manager and building inspector for checking and further recommendation to the council.

Two other buildings previously involved in condemnation action were subjects of other activity. One, owned by B. F. Lambert, 2521 Lake Street, is to get a new foundation, new siding, wiring and plumbing by March 5, 1962, through an arrangement with the Weyerhaeuser Credit Union, and another, owned by the late John S. Cardoza at 1978 John Street, was the subject of a letter from the U.S. National Bank asking for a 60 day extension on the action since the matter was under probate.

In other action, the council issued a warning to all residents of the city that it is against the law to burn leaves either on the parking strip or on the paved street. They also indicated that the law would be enforced.

A request by the Youth Soldiers for Christ Church that parking requirements be waived at the location of their church was denied by the council and they were directed to acquire sufficient adjacent property to meet the parking requirements for 55 vehicles.

A liquor license change of ownership for the Hub Tavern, 116 South Seventh Street, was tabled for one week by the council at the request of Mayor Robert Veatch. Veatch told the council, "I would like to have you read a report that the police chief has before you pass on this application."

Tulelake Classes Start Tuesday

TULELAKE — Students of the Tulelake Elementary School will go to classes at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12. The first day classes will be held to a minimum and students will be released at 2:20 p.m.

Arnold Torrigino, district superintendent and school principal, in announcing plans for the first day, said the bus runs and schedules will be the same as on the closing day of school last year. The cafeteria will be open and lunch tickets will be sold in the multi-purpose room. Kindergarten hours are from 9 a.m. to noon.

All students not in attendance in June of last year or who have not registered for kindergarten are to report to the multi-purpose room for registration.

Students who are to enter the kindergarten or the first grade for the first time, must, at the time of registration present a birth certificate or some other acceptable form of proof of age, or registration will be delayed.

Tulelake Elementary will again have a faculty of 13 teachers, but due to a shift in classroom leads, only one split room will be necessary. Classroom assignments are as follows:

Kindergarten, Mrs. Maxine MacFarlane; first grade, Mrs. Hazel Tucker and Mrs. Della Winther; second grade, Mrs. Anna Kelleher and Mrs. Lois Lesh; third grade, Mrs. Margaret McLain and Mrs. Betty Meek; fourth grade, Mrs. Anita Stephens; fourth and fifth grade combined, Mrs. Peggy Wallis; fifth grade, Thomas Donovan; sixth grade, Mrs. Winifred Oehlerich; seventh grade, Gary Straus; eighth grade, Martin Shea.

New to the regular faculty this year is Mrs. Lois Lesh who has two years experience in the primary grades, and has taught room vocal at Tulelake. Mrs. Lesh is the wife of Galen Lesh, new owner of the Tulelake Cabinet Shop. They have three children. Mrs. Lesh received her degree from Oregon State College.

Thomas Donovan, recently of Nevada, has had two years teaching experience in the intermediate grades, and will receive his degree and credential in February from San Francisco State College. His wife, Alice, is a nurse with the Public Health Service.

Martin Shea is a graduate of San Francisco State College and holds a General Secondary Credential in Biological Science. He has completed his education and student teaching on a scholarship grant from California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Shea, his wife Barbara and their two children, who will enter the second and third grades, come to Tulelake from Oakland. Shea enjoys the out-of-doors and has recently developed a keen interest in falconry.

Field On Fire

Fire in a stubblefield brought Klamath County Fire units Tuesday, but owner of the grain field at Airway Drive and Homedale Road said there was no damage to standing grain. The blaze was reported at 12:27 p.m.

Kennedy's Dad Peeved; Switches To Boy Caddy

BOSTON (UPI) — President's Kennedy's father, a little peeved at the publicity about his French girl golf caddy, was determined today that a boy would caddy for him on Cape Cod.

Joseph P. Kennedy landed at Logan International Airport here Sunday after a two-month European visit and left almost immediately for the Kennedy compound at Hyannis Port.

"The boys tried pretty hard for publicity over there," the elder Kennedy said in an obvious reference to photographs and stories about his golf at Biot, France, with his caddy, Francoise Pellegrino.

Kennedy, who plans to get in a lot of golfing in the next few months, explained with a twinkle in his eyes that while boys and men do the caddying in this country, caddies in France are girls.

Francoise, who was married Sunday, said she will continue some of her caddying chores, sharing the assignment with her sister, Josette, 18.

Wanted Man Surrenders On Statutory Charge

Brownie Lee Atkinson, 22-year-old Klamath Falls man wanted by police on a statutory rape charge, turned himself in to Sheriff Murray (Red) Britton Tuesday night.

Atkinson is accused of raping a 15-year-old Merrill girl early Sunday morning after a dance in Klamath Falls. Sheriff Britton booked the youth at the county jail. Bail was set at $[illegible].

City police were called Sunday night to a house in Klamath Falls. Police said the Merrill girl was lying on a couch with her clothes badly torn. They said she was crying and couldn't talk.

Another girl told police that she had gone to a dance at the Klamath Auditorium with the Merrill girl. She said they had accompanied three youths to an apartment and then had returned to the dance. Atkinson had been following them, the girl said.

After returning to the dance, the girl said she had left her purse in the apartment so the two girls started back. Atkinson allegedly drove up in front of 621 Michigan Street and asked to talk to the Merrill girl. She apparently got into his car and her friend drove off to get her purse. When the friend returned, she said she heard screaming and then saw the girl and Atkinson struggling in the car.

The girl was treated at Klamath Valley Hospital while the girl's father signed a complaint against Atkinson.

SP Freight Jumps Track

REDDING, Calif. (AP) — Thirty-two cars of a 98-car northbound Southern Pacific diesel freight train jumped the tracks 18 miles south of Redding Tuesday night, near Cottonwood.

A railroad spokesman said a broken rail apparently caused the accident. Between 500 and 700 feet of track were damaged.

No injuries were reported.

Crewmen estimated the track would be repaired today.

The train was en route to Klamath Falls, Ore., from the San Francisco Bay area.
