Guests Visit Ladies Aux.

Several guests were present at the Aug. 25 regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary affiliated with Ewauna Encampment No. 46 at the 100F Hall. Mary Weaver, grand matriarch of Oregon, paid her official visit at that time.

Other guests who were welcomed by Matriarch Cordelia Cantrill were Nellie Evick of Salem and Joyce and Georgia Mills of Grants Pass.

At the close of the meeting the auxiliary adjourned to the Encampment meeting to present the officers with new regalia as a gift from the ladies group.

The next meeting will be Sept. 8 in the 100F Hall.

Sick Philosophy Engulfs Young People Of Today

Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"I know he loves me because he isn't really bad, just sick-sick every time he hits me, he sits down and cries."

That was the plea of a 16-year-old wife who didn't want her 19-year-old husband charged with murder for trying to run her down with his automobile.

Don't be surprised if you hear those words again. They would hit quite naturally one of those sick-sick songs that sell so many records.

They could be used with no change at all in a Tennessee Williams play.

They wouldn't sound out of place in a psychology text—where the kind where the boy men

Library Club To Stage Annual Fall Luncheon

Reames Golf and Country Club, Monday, Sept. 11, at 1 p.m. is the setting for the annual fall luncheon and fashion show of the Woman's Library Club of Klamath Falls.

A full line of fall fashions will be presented by the Bon Bazaar and Fashion Villa, according to Mrs. Nellie Angstead. Included will be knits, so much in the limelight this season; casual dresses from transitional cottons to lightweight wools; sport clothes, coats and suits. To complete the review the Bon Bazaar will show cocktail and dinner dresses and an exclusive line of furs.

Mrs. Bert Thomas, president, extends a cordial invitation to all women of the Klamath Basin to attend. The library club was founded in 1907 by enterprising women for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a library in Klamath Falls. Today the present library is operated by city funds, but still one of the major projects of this organization is the continued support of the li-
