Yankee Number Now 7

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's been a claim of foul in that home run race that's heading into the homestretch with Roger Maris holding a three-length lead over fast-closing Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle losing ground.

Maris, the leader with 56 home runs, angrily criticized plate umpire Hank Soar last night after the New York Yankees edged the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in a rain-shortened contest that cost Maris and Mantle at least one at-bat apiece.

Reduced to a three-game edge over Ruth's record 60 homer pace of 1927, Maris cited Soar for what he called poor balls and strikes calls. "I didn't get too many strikes," complained the Yankee slugger, "yet they were being called strikes. I was swinging in self-defense."

Both Maris, who now needs four homers in the next nine decisions to tie Ruth's mark in the allotted time, and Mantle were held homerless by Billy Pierce and Frank Baumann. But each had a single before the game was called in the last of the ninth.

Yanks 4, Sox 3

Maris and Mantle were instrumental in the Yankees 13th consecutive triumph with Maris wheeling home with the winning run in the fifth on Elston's Howard single. He had opened with a single and moved up on Mantle's base hit. Maris, who went to the plate four times, also walked in the first and scored, while Mantle who has 53 homers, struck out and flied deep to center in his other at-bats.

Ralph Terry (14-2) won it for the Yanks although tagged for eight hits—one the game's only homer by little Luis Aparicio.

Al Smith began the final inning with a double to left center and Nellie Fox moved him to third with a sacrifice. The Yanks pulled the infield in and held Smith at third while Jim Landis grounded out. Then the rains came.

Lary (20-9) won his 20th on the fourth go-round with a five-hitter when the Tigers came up with two in the eighth against Jerry Walker (7-12). Billy Bruton's triple, a walk, Norm Cash's sacrifice fly and singles by Dick McAuliffe and Steve Boros got the job done after Dick Brown tied it in the fifth with his 13th homer. Homer No. 8 for Deron Johnson accounted for the A's run.

Bronson Astoria Medalist

ASTORIA (AP) — Medalist honors in the qualifying rounds of the Oregon Junior-Seniors golf championship Tuesday went to Bob Bronson, Portland, who shot a 36-hole score of 146.

Walt Cline, Salem, finished strong, but wound up one short of Bronson with a 147. Cline, the 1959 champion, needed a par on the last hole to tie, but bogied instead.

Elwyn Bowyer, Vancouver, Wash., was third with a 148 and Bill Langley, Portland, followed with a 149.

Match play rounds were scheduled to start today with these pairings in the championship flight:

Bob Bronson, Portland, v. Frank Maize, Astoria; Sid Milligan, Eugene, v. Frank Cundari, Portland; Ray Isaacs, Portland, v. Bert Myers, Portland; Elwyn Bowyer, Vancouver, v. Jim Snider, Portland; Elmer Hanegan, Vancouver, (defending champion) v. Charles Neville, Corvallis; Walt Cline, Salem, v. Bob Hogan, Prineville; Bill Langley, Portland, v. Bill Palmberg, Astoria; Bob Anderson, Astoria, v. Roy Renoud, Portland.

Boosters To Meet

The Pelican Booster Club will hold its regular weekly meeting at 6:30 tonight in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, reported club vice president George Demetrakos.

All members of the organization and parents of Klamath Union athletes are invited to attend.

The chief speaker on the program for the evening will be Pelican football coach Bob Williams who will present his personal slant on the KU-Marshfield game which the Pels won 14-6 to successfully start the brand new prep season last Friday.

Also to be on hand is coach Al Keck, boss of the freshmen grid prospects, who will report on his scouting trip to Salem last Friday where he watched the annual classic between North Salem and South Salem highs.

The North Salem eleven, which plays host to the Pelicans in Salem this weekend, captured an easy 28-6 verdict over its cross-town foe.

Defending Amateur Beaten By Veteran

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) Three former champs and an Irish belter kept the United States Amateur Golf championship from being completely wide open today in play that will see only 36 survivors by nightfall.

Defending champion Deane Beman fell Tuesday before veteran Billy Joe Patton, but ex-titlists Harvie Ward Jr., Charlie Coe and Jack Nicklaus all whipped through the second round.

So did three-time British champion Joe Carr of Ireland, a witty fellow who laced a couple of drives about 300 yards while overwhelming Claude Wright of Englewood, Colo., 6 and 5. Not in 29 years has a foreigner won the U.S. Amateur title.

Exacting conditions of play over the 6,747-yard Pebble Beach course, with small greens, and weather conditions that vary almost hourly, give the advantage to the experienced golfer.

Even the dark horses were golfers with experience—Bob Gardner of Elmsford, N.Y., two-time former California champ and last year runner-up in the national to Beman and ex-pro Glen Fowler of Oklahoma City, both sub-par shooters the past two days.

Patton, 39, ousted Beman 2-up. The 1960 champ missed six putts of eight feet or less as his usually reliable putter failed.

Patton, of Morganton, N.C., outdrove his foe and hit beautiful chip shots on the 16th and 17th to preserve a one-hold lead. On the 18th, Beman hit into a trap and it was all over.

Ward was 2 under par in dispatching Harlan Lane of Houston, 7 and 5, to put him against Dudley Wysong Jr., of McKinney, Tex., today. The San Franciscan, national champ in 1955 and 1956 didn't lose a hole. Wysong beat Andy Gard of Wayland, Mass., 2-up, after Gard staged one of the few first-round upsets by eliminating ex-Walker Cup star Bill Campbell.

Oklahoma City's Coe, titlist in 1949 and 1958, triumphed 5 and 4 over John Nichols of Downey, Calif. Nicklaus, even after nine, rallied to win the next three holes against Oregon champ Donald Krieger of Portland and go on to a 4 and 3 triumph. The big blond from Ohio State drew Bill Edwards of Garden City, N.Y., today. Edwards advanced with a 2 and 1 triumph over Dick Giddings of Modesto, Calif.

Congressman Jack Westland of Everett, Wash., national champion in 1952, went to the sidelines with Beman as collegian Frank James of Grinnell, Iowa, beat him 6 and 4.

Tommy Thomas of Indianapolis pulled a surprise by eliminating Walker Cupper Bob Cochran of Normandy, Mo., 1-up at the 20th hole.

Best shooting came from San Diego State student Chuck Courtney who was 4 under par when he closed out John Babick of Los Angeles 5 and 4.

Eight PNW Golfers Drop By Wayside

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Eight Pacific Northwest golfers were eliminated Tuesday in the second round of the 61st annual National Amateur Golf Tournament.

They included Rep. Jack Westland, R-Wash., a former national champion, and Kermit Zarley Jr., the Washington state champ.

Two Oregonians were the only Northwest winners.

Here's how they fared:

Richard Sikes, Springdale, Ark., defeated Bruce Cudd, Portland, 3 and 1.

Dan James, Millbrae, Calif., defeated Andre Huycke, Lake Oswego, Ore., 1-up.

Frank Hoover, Bakersfield, Calif., defeated William Tindall, Seattle, 1-up.

Wright Garrett, Danville, Va., defeated Gordon Marlatt, Eugene, Ore., 2 and 1.

Frank James, Grinnell, Iowa, defeated Jack Westland, Everett, Wash., 6 and 4.

James English, Littleton, Colo., defeated Robert Smith, Portland, Ore., 3 and 2.

Robert Gardner, Elmsford, N.Y., defeated Kenneth Storey, Seattle, 3 and 2.

J. J. Colbert Jr., Kansas City, defeated Kermit Zarley Jr., Seattle, 2 and 1.

Charles Weston Jr., Portland, defeated James Littlejohn, Midland, Tex., 3 and 2.

Richard Hanen, Coos Bay, Ore., defeated Jimmy Greenwood, Houston, 2 and 1.

No Pensions

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Even college football teams have player representatives.

But when tackle Roger Shoals of the University of Maryland goes to see Coach Tom Nugent, they don't discuss pension plans.

They talk over such matters as length of workouts, time of the preschool ed check, and other player-coach problems.

"The other day," Nugent said, "they even asked if we could hold longer practice sessions."

Vandals Better

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Quarterback Mike Mosolf teamed with Reg Carolan for two touchdown passes and a conversion as the Idaho Vandals went through a practice football game Tuesday.

The Whites, captained by Mosolf, beat the Blacks 35-14.

"We have come along fine for this point in the season," said Coach Skip Stahley. "We need to sharpen the defense, but I feel we've improved over last year."

Mosolf hit Carolan with a 20-yard pass in the third quarter that was good for 40 yards and six points. He repeated in the fourth, and he and Carolan teamed for the two-point conversion.

Phillies Slaughter Dodgers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It had been a dreary season for Darrell Johnson, who started out as a coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, was fired with Manager Solly Hemus, hooked on with the woeful Philadelphia Phils, then was unceremoniously sold to Cincinnati.

But now Johnson is a hero for the National League-leading Reds, who beat the Chicago Cubs 7-2 Tuesday night as the reserve catcher drove in three runs with a pair of doubles in a victory that boosted the Reds edge over second-place Los Angeles to 4½ games.

Johnson, 34, with a .233 major league batting average, has been hitting at a .275 clip since he was purchased by the Reds but his exploits had to share top billing with Don Demeter's.

Demeter made the woeful Phils anything but as he crashed three homers and a single, driving in seven runs in a 19-10 rout of the pennant-chasing Dodgers. Joe Gibbon's three-hitter for Pittsburgh blanked San Francisco 3-0 and a five-hitter by St. Louis' Bob Gibson checked Milwaukee 4-1.

Cincy 7, Cubs 2

Johnson and Wally Post formed a formidable 1-2 punch for the Reds against starter Dick Ellsworh (8-11) and his successors as Cincinnati beat its No. 1 nemesis for only the ninth time in 21 meetings.

Post hit his 19th homer in the fourth and drove in the clincher for Jim O'Toole (15-8) with a sixth inning single that scored Elio Chacon.

Maris Blasts Umpire, Gets Answer

By JOE REICHLER

CHICAGO (AP) — Roger Maris really put on the blast Tuesday night.

But it didn't add to his season's home run total which remained at 56 when the best he could do was collect a single in four times at bat in New York's 4-3 victory over Chicago.

The blast was directed at plate umpire Hank Soar. Maris accused the arbiter of making at least three bad calls against him.

Soar, who has been an American League umpire for 15 years, blasted right back.

"Those pitchers didn't throw me too many strikes tonight," complained Maris, "yet they were being called strikes. I had to swing in self defense."

Soar shot back:

"He's so tight he can't breathe. You can't call a strike on him without getting an argument."

Maris cited three instances when he believed Soar erred in his judgment of balls and strikes. The first time was in the second inning when, with runners on second and third, Roger bluffed a bunt but did not swing. Soar called it a strike.

"The pitch was high—up here," Maris said, raising his arm above his shoulder.

The second bad call, according to Maris, was when Soar called him out on strikes a few moments later.

"I didn't swing," he asserted. "My body moved but my bat didn't."

"What am I supposed to be—a mind reader?" asked Soar. "When he swings, he swings."

In the sixth inning, Maris disagreed with a strike call, an inside pitch. Roger raised a high foul caught outside first base on the pitcher's next delivery.

"They are pitching him inside," said Soar, "and he's letting them go by."

Said Maris: "I realize an umpire can have a bad day just as a player can have one. But I don't like it when it happens every time I come to bat. I'm not looking for any favors. All I want is a fair shake."
