Home Extension
KLAMATH COUNTY
ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Officers' training meetings to be held in the various districts were planned by Mrs. Ruth Dyer, Mrs. Frances Clinton, county extension agents, and the County Advisory Committee at the August meeting at Collier State Park.

The two agents reported on the work done by their office since the last meeting. This being Mrs. Hall's first meeting with the group, she was made welcome by the members. The unit programs were discussed and a schedule for use of Joan's Kitchen was made. It was decided to have a county-wide publicity workshop for the unit publicity chairman later in the fall. Australia was the country chosen to be stressed in the units for the year.

Final plans were made for the

We The Women
Why Not Bomb Shelters
As New Status Symbol?

Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A builder of bomb shelters there seems to be a psychological block keeping Americans from getting busy providing themselves with family bomb shelters. He thinks some people actually are "ashamed" of owning shelters.

For Pete's sake—do we have to make a bomb shelter a status symbol in order to get Americans interested? If so, why don't we put the advertising boys to work on the job?

They've sold us on such status symbols as the second car, the private swimming pool, the "vacation" home, the motorboat, the color TV, the stereo, the ranch-style suburban home. And they've done it easily, too—making us think we're underprivileged if we don't have the latest status symbol.

They ought to be able to make the family bomb shelter the very most for status seekers, with one hand tied behind their backs and only one to pound their typewriters.

When you stop to think of it—it's a natural for the advertising copy writers. First they can appeal to papa: "Will your children be the only ones in the block to
