Cuba Adopts Tough Line

HAVANA (AP)—Attacks on the Roman Catholic clergy in the wake of a violent anti-Communist demonstration raised speculation today that Fidel Castro's regime may adopt a tougher line toward the church.

Thousands of the prime minister's supporters turned out Monday night for the funeral of Arnaldo Socorro, 17, killed Sunday in the rioting, and heard an attack on "Falangist and counter-revolutionary priests."

Jesus Soto, secretary general of the Cuban Workers Confederation, assailed the priests in the main funeral oration. He demanded death for a firing squad for those responsible for the youth's death.

The semi-official newspaper, Revolution charged that "clerical Falangist counter-revolutionaries" fired the shots that killed Socorro from inside the Church of Charity in downtown Havana.

Disorders broke out after 4,000 men, women and children met outside the church for the annual procession of Our Lady of Charity, patron saint of Cuba.

Girls Save Falling Boy

CLEVELAND (AP)—Lucky for 19-month-old Stanley Gonet Jr., three neighbor girls cut through an alley instead of taking their usual route home from Mass Sunday when Stanley decided to explore a second-floor window ledge.

He had pushed out the screen and was hanging by his fingers outside the window when Joan Pietrasz, 14, saw him and screamed. Her sister, Barbara, 13, pushed through a hedge to the side of the house. A third girl raced to alert the parents.

Seconds later Stanley's grip loosened. But instead of a 15-foot drop to the ground he landed in Barbara's arms.

"I didn't even have time to think," said Barbara. "I was just worried about how to hold my arms in order to catch him."
