

UN Periled By Death Of Dag Hammarskjold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of Dag Hammarskjold in an African plane crash left the non-Communist world stunned today. Fear was expressed that his passing put the future of the United Nations in peril.

From every quarter tributes flooded to the memory of the secretary-general who died in the restless search for an ideal—a world peacefully united to prevent war.

Even those who often had challenged his policies hailed him as a dedicated man. In the capitals of the West there was a heavy atmosphere of mourning.

Radio and television news bulletins retold of the crash of Hammarskjold's plane as the U.N. secretary-general was flying on another peace mission—this time to meet Moise Tshombe, president of war-torn Katanga, Sombor headlines dominated newspaper front pages.

President Kennedy said Hammarskjold's name "will be treasured high among the peace makers of history." U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said: "I have lost an esteemed friend and the world a great servant."

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain, who had been cool to U.N. action to suppress Tshombe's secessionist regime, called Hammarskjold "a world servant who has pursued his duty with courage, singleness of mind and devotion."

The French, bitter at what they regard as U.N. interference in Bizerte and Algeria, were shocked. The Foreign Ministry expressed "deepest emotion."

India's Prime Minister Nehru, a leader of the nonaligned nations who hold the balance of power in the U.N. General Assembly, called Hammarskjold's death a "special tragedy."

The Belgian government sent a message to the United Nations deploring his death and saying his service to the United Nations had gone to "the supreme sacrifice."

Sir Roy Welensky, prime minister of the Central African Federation who had assailed the U.N. action in Katanga, called Hammarskjold "an indefatigable worker in the cause of world peace."

Moscow and Peking broadcast the news of Hammarskjold's death without comment. The Soviet press kept the news off the front page.

In France, the Communist newspaper L'Humanite said Hammarskjold "was the victim of the same people whom he did nothing to prevent from assassinating (former Congolese Premier Patrice) Lumumba last year."

Israel and the United Arab Republic, who had often used his services as mediator in their quarrels, found themselves in rare agreement in expressing a sense of loss.

In Sweden Hammarskjold's native land, King Gustav VI proclaimed today a day of national mourning. Radio Sweden ran several special broadcasts in memory of Hammarskjold.

Log Sales Below 1961

PORTLAND—Timber harvest and sales volumes for Pacific Northwest Region national forests in fiscal year 1961 were less than those of the previous year, J. Herbert Stone, regional forester, said this week.

Total volume for 1961, which ended July 1, was 3,812,000,000 board feet. Previous year's volume was 3,823,000,000 board feet.

Top volume during 1961 was the Willamette National Forest with headquarters at Eugene. A total of 573,000,000 board feet was sold out of this forest.

The Siskiyou National Forest in Oregon and Northern California sold 176 million board feet; the Fremont National Forest, 81 million board feet and the Winema National Forest, 25 million feet.

Longshoreman Dies Of Burns

NORTH BEND, Ore. (AP)—Harold Wilde, 54, North Bend longshoreman, died today from burns suffered when his house was destroyed Monday.

Wilde told police he was trying to start a stove fire with kerosene, when the flames exploded. He ran outside with his clothing blazing. Police beat out the flames but he already had suffered fatal burns.

The flames had spread throughout the house by the time firemen arrived, and the one-story house burned to the ground.
