Owl Victory String Threatened; Beefy Whitworth Heavy Favorite

There is an odds-on possibility that the spectacular victory string chalked up by the Oregon Tech Owls could come to an abrupt halt Saturday night in Spokane.

The Techmen, defending the Oregon Collegiate Conference championship and a string of ten straight wins counting their triumph over Westminster here last weekend, are slated for a headon clash with the kingpins of the Evergreen Conference, the Whitworth Pirates.

The game, the first for the Pirates in the new season, will be played in Spokanes' Memorial Coliseum, a spot reserved for the area's major sports attractions.

The Techmen, including injured halfback Bud Maupin who is slated to stay in "civilian" clothes during the game, will leave Klamath Falls early Friday morning.

The Owls will put the wrapper on their preparations for the Pirates this afternoon. Head coach Rex Hunsaker and his aides George Miller and Jim Cordial have posted a tentative starting offensive lineup which includes quarterback Bill Ransome, fullback Stan Glass, and halfbacks Bob McClure, a sophomore from Eagle Point, and Jack McCreary, the hard running ex-Springfield star.

His defenses will feature Cook at safety, Wayne Dennis and Lanny Myers at halfback slots and Al Bean and Hooper as linebackers.

A number of the offensive linemen will go both ways.

Leading the Pirate offense this year will be quarterback Denny Spurlock, who last year lead the nation in total pass yardage for small colleges. Again this season Spurlock has shown his ability in hitting his receivers with phenomenal regularity.

In Saturday's scrimmage, which Coach Ken Adams termed "very satisfying indeed," Spurlock completed 12 of 15 pass attempts for 242 yards. John "Hula" Murio snagged four of Spurlock's tosses for 144 yards and two touchdowns, proving that he will again be an elusive down field runner after catching the ball. Other outstanding receivers from last year's club are end Wendell Witt, and halfbacks Les Rurey, Norm Harding, and Rex Schimke.

Coach Adams and his assistants, Tom Black and Jim Upchurch, have for the past week been running a 62-man Pirate squad through two-a-day workouts. This is the largest squad ever to turn out in Whitworth football history.

This year the Pirates will balance their offensive attack with a stronger running game in an effort to ease the defensive pressure on quarterback Spurlock. Leading the ground attack will be lettermen Dennis Rieger, Rex Schimke, freshman speedster Edker Matthews and Don Samue's.

Coach Adams has been especially pleased with the work of his backfield men among whom he singled out Les Rurey, Bruce Grady, and Ed Matthews. Others working well are frosh Bill Moutrie, sophomore transfer Gene Baker, senior Bruce Baker, and offensive center Perry Morton.

In Saturday's game against Oregon Tech, the Bucs will field the heaviest defensive unit a Whitworth team has ever put on the gridiron. Leading the defense will be Ken "Big Daddy" Sugarman at 235 pounds, letterman senior Leo Hutchins at 225 pounds, University of Washington transfer Gene Baker at 215, George Rallis from Boise Junior College at 230 pounds, and LaVaughn Stephens from Washington State University, weighing in at 205 pounds.

Pelicans, Grizzlies Open SOC Action Friday On Modoc Field

The current crop of Klamath Union Pelicans has attracted state-wide attention and the accolades of both coaches and fans with the brand of football they have displayed in their first two games.

But tomorrow night on Modoc Field they again have to prove themselves.

They launch their 1961 Southern Oregon Conference campaign in an entanglement with the "dark-horse" Ashland Grizzlies. Game time is 8 p.m. Tickets to the important league-opener may be procured until 4 p.m. Friday at the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce.

Reserved seat season tickets are still available at $4.50 and individual game ducats may be had for $1.50.

The Ashlanders, led by speedy halfback Bob King, battled to a 0-0 standoff with powerful Shasta of Redding the last time out, and outgained them 121 to 89 in overall yardage.

The Grizzly line, as promises to be the case with most of the forward walls the Pels will face this season, have a distinct weight advantage over the KU eleven.

But, as head coach Bob Williams explained to the largest gathering of Pelican Boosters in years, "That's something we just have to live with."

Williams went on to commend a number of his players, mentioning in particular the efforts of young Ron Hitchcock, who has been a particular standout on defense. He also noted that he was proud of the fact that, "We had no cry-babying after losing that one to North Salem. We just plain lost it, and every one of us had a hand in it. There was no horseplay after the game. The kids talked strictly football. If the present spirit and attitude displayed continue, we'll have a good season."

The Pelican preparations for the Grizzly invasion were completed this afternoon in a light drill emphasizing specialty work and a review of plans to stop the expected Ashland running attack.

Williams planned to name his starters at the completion of today's drills. The complete Ashland lineup will also be available Friday.

County B Clubs, Henley Set Conference Counting Tests

All eight of the Klamath County football teams swing into counting conference action this weekend, and for two of the clubs the Friday night action is the first of the season.

The Bonanza Antlers and the Tulelake Honkers are both making their 1961 debut. For Sacred Heart Academy the evening marks their third start of the year.

The Antlers are matched with the strong defending champion Chiloquin Panther eleven in a game to be played under the new Henley lights beginning at 7:30.

Meanwhile the Henley Hornets get their A-2 loop action underway in a battle with Illinois Valley starting at 8 p.m. on the Cougars' home grounds.

Tulelake plays host to perennial rival Malin on the Honker grid beginning at 8 o'clock also.

To round out the evening's action the SHA squad will tangle with the Merrill Huskies at 7:30 in Gem Stadium, the site of all SHA home games.

In the only games on tap for high school squads Saturday the Klamath Union Jayvees match talents with the Ashland JVs at 1 p.m. on the Grizzlies home field, while the Pelican freshmen do battle with the McLoughlin junior high eleven in Medford. The frosh test begins at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

If the early season games are any criterion, the B league struggle this year shapes up as a duel between Chiloquin and Sacred Heart.

The Panthers claimed a win over Malin last weekend and have also shared a 7-7 tie with the Henley squad. The Trojans posted a convincing victory at the expense of the KU Jayvees last weekend after bowing to the strong St. Marys Crusaders in the annual classic.

Lineman Nabs QB's Handoff

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The most unusual play in Oregon high school football last weekend came during Wy'East's first victory over The Dalles, 34-0.

Wy'East guard, Grant Maurer, did something few linemen ever have achieved — took a handoff from the quarterback.

The trouble was, for The Dalles players, it was their quarterback.

The Dalles was driving toward the Wy'East end zone when Maurer sifted through the line and took the ball from quarterback Mark Jensen as he turned to hand off to a The Dalles back.

The march ended, of course, and Wy'East breezed to its historic triumph.

Huskies Hear Serious Talk

SEATTLE (AP) — Washington football players, with heavy work for the season opener against Purdue here Saturday behind them, had a solemn warning Thursday about the bigtime sports bribery scandals.

Coach Jim Owens had State Atty. Gen. John J. O'Connell and Dr. J. Gordon Gose, the school's Big Five faculty representative, talk to the squad Wednesday night.

The two warned of the dangers of any contact with gamblers, point-shaving or attempting to influence the result of a game. O'Connell said he had been in close touch with the New York grand jury probing recent athletic bribery cases. He discussed ways gamblers corrupt athletes.

Gose said there had never been the "slightest indication" of any problem at Washington but added "we would be remiss in our duty" if the subject was not talked over.

O'Connell said Washington was one of the few states with legislation dealing directly with bribe attempts in athletics. Earlier this season Owens and his staff also alerted the squad to the gambling situation.

The school ticket office said Saturday's game for the two-time Rose Bowl winners will be virtually a sellout, with about 55,000 spectators.

AGREES TO BOUT

GOTEBORG, Sweden (UPI)—Willie Pastrano of Miami, Fla., agreed today to meet Sweden's Toerner Aahsman in a heavyweight fight Oct. 6, it was announced by promoter Edwin Ahlqvist. Pastrano fought a draw with Lennart Risberg of Sweden last month.

Cancer Takes Pro Golf Star

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver, who started out as a caddy at the age of 11 and went on to become one of the leading professional golfers during the last two decades, died Wednesday of cancer. He was 46.

His wife, Clara, was at his bedside in Memorial Hospital when he died. Oliver had been in and out of the hospital since leaving the pro circuit nearly two years ago. He had undergone two operations.

Oliver, who started as a caddy at the Wilmington Country Club and turned pro at the age of 18 in 1933, never won a major championship but he helped the U.S. Ryder Cup team to victories over England in 1947, 1951 and 1953.

Mrs. M Moves, Maris Misses

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Watching a telecast of the New York-Baltimore baseball game Wednesday night, Mrs. Roger Maris exchanged seats with another viewer in the ninth inning.

Then she remembered. She and Roger have a superstition that whenever she leaves her seat while watching a game, it puts a hex on him.

In the ninth, Maris came up to bat for his last chance to tie Babe Ruth's season home record of 60. He rolled out to the pitcher.

"I knew I shouldn't have moved out of that chair," Mrs. Maris said.

KMBC-TV invited Mrs. Maris to watch the game in its studio. She and Maris live in nearby Raytown.

Major League Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hitting—Roger Maris, Yankees, hit 59th homer and became only the second man in baseball history to hit that many while New York clinched the American League pennant by beating Baltimore 4-2.

Pitching — Ralph Terry, Yankees, clinched New York's pennant for second year in succession with fourhitter that beat the Orioles.
