

Always a Butcher To Serve You!

Yes! There is always a journeyman butcher to serve you at both Market Basket stores. These men are experts when it comes to meats, and they're always glad to offer suggestions on menu planning or on different, delicious ways of serving meat dishes.

★ Market Basket sells only USDA "Good" and "Choice" Meats. Look for and demand to see the grade marks on the meats you buy. They are there for your protection and dining enjoyment.

★ All Market Basket beef is locally grown and fed. It is locally processed, government inspected and federally graded USDA "Good" or "Choice."

★ With Market Basket Service Meats, you see both sides of the cut before you buy. You are never fooled by any "sunnyside up" package.

★ Market Basket's friendly service butchers are glad to make extra cuts at no extra price to you. If you don't see just the cut or thickness you wish, just ask for it.

★ Shop Market Basket's service meat department this weekend. We're sure you'll like the service... plus our "money-back" guaranteed meats.
