

Federal Water Pollution Offers Welcomed

BUTTE (AP) — Mayor Vern Griffith of Butte Friday said he strongly disagrees with Gov. Donald Nutter's position that federal government is encroaching on states' rights by increased offers of assistance in water pollution control.

Griffith made the statement before a meeting of the Federal Water Pollution Control Board in Butte.

"It is my belief that since all tax monies originate on the local level we should see some of this money coming back when we need it," Griffith said.

Nutter at a hearing of the board in Missoula Wednesday criticized neighboring states for "sitting on the dime" doing nothing and expecting Uncle Sam to provide federal aid for them.

At the Friday meeting, W. J. Leary, city manager of Helena, said the municipality has been able to take advantage of federal aid to provide a sewage treatment plant. He said the city would be in serious trouble without this assistance and would like to see it continue.

"From requests to the state, we get everything except money," Leary said.

Board member John Biggs, director of the Department of Game, Olympia, Wash., said that although the governor's statement seemed to indicate that municipalities in the state and the state government could handle pollution problems, the majority in the gallery apparently viewed federal aid as beneficial.

West Germans Advised To Face Red Existence

BERLIN (AP)—High American officials insisted today they are advising West German leaders to face up to the existence of the East German Communist state.

But an American mission spokesman said there have been no official announcements of this new American attitude.

The spokesman emphasized that refusal to grant the East Germans control of Allied access to Berlin remains firm Western policy.

News reports hinting at a possible Western de facto recognition of East Germany surprised and upset West Germans.

The Berlin newspaper Der Tagesspiegel linked these reports to a background meeting held for newsmen Friday by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's special envoy to Berlin. In New York, Columbia Broadcasting System said it is identifying Clay as the source for such stories.

West German policy has been based on the principle that East Germany does not exist as a state and the Communist administration there is illegal. This also has been the policy of Germany's Western allies.

The American officials say the people of West Germany and Berlin should now realize that the Communist regime in East Germany is here to stay, at least for some years.

Hong Kong Observes Moon Festival

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong's three million residents start celebrating the moon festival tonight with gaily decorated lanterns and moon cakes, the traditional delicacy of the occasion.

In deference to the space age, the lanterns will take on the shape of rockets and space ships. The Chinese flock to roof-tops and hillsides and go out on pleasure boats to admire the display of birds, fish and animals. By tradition, the Chinese people and family reunions are the order of the day.

Labor Bill Sent To JFK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate passed and sent to President Kennedy Friday a bill extending the Mexican farm labor law two more years but adding restrictions to the program.

The 41-31 vote to accept the Senate-House compromise bill ended a Senate floor battle that had been raging since Thursday night and through a 12-hour session Friday. The marathon dimmed hopes for final adjournment of Congress Friday.

The bill extends for two years a law originally passed in 1951 under which 315,000 Mexicans entered the United States to do farm work last year. The peak year was 445,000 in 1956.

The law authorized an agreement with Mexico to govern the importations to replace a system under which thousands of wetbacks had entered this country illegally every year. The agreement provides various protections for the Mexicans including a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour.

The Senate fight was over the decision of the conferees to drop an amendment by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., which the Senate had adopted to raise wages of some of the imported workers.

It would have required that they be paid 90 per cent of the average farm wage in the state in which they were employed or 90 per cent of the national average, whichever was lower.
