

Canadian Honeymoon Follows Oakland Rites

Late last week Canadian points were the destination of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Arnett following their recent marriage in Oakland, Calif. Jeannie Alexander, Oakland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Alexander of Gresham, and David Arnett, Livermore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan T. Arnett of this city, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at Calvary Temple Church. The Rev. Oliver Foth officiated. Bouquets of deep red antherium and greens created a garden setting against white walls and pillars of the grass covered platform.

Party Honors Recent Bride

YREKA — Recent bride, Mrs. Michael Hume (nee Jane Meamber) was the honoree at a bridal shower given for her at the Stan Solus home in Yreka, with Terry Solus and Jean Meamber, sister of the new bride, sharing hostess duties.

Late summer flowers decorated the party rooms for the event, and the bridal theme was carried out with a wedding cake, topped with the traditional miniature bride and bridegroom.

Those attending were Dolly Truttman, Linda Burton, Betty and Peggy See, Marsha Simpson, Bobbi Blackwood, Gaye Messner, Caroline Meamber, Judy Schoeller, Tana Shelton, Barbara Cotlar, Marilyn and Sherryl Ellis.

Barbara Betts, Sharon B. Ray, Carole Archambault, Kathy Buscombe, Gloria Manning, Mrs. Jack Meamber, mother of the honoree; Mrs. Donald Hume, the bridegroom's mother; Mrs. Stan Solus, Mrs. Jay Trince and Mrs. Frank Creagar.

Jane Meamber and Michael Hume exchanged nuptial vows in a ceremony read in St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Reno on Aug. 12.

a gown of lace and net. The lace bodice featured long sleeves and scalloped scoop neckline. The full tiered skirt extended into a chapel train. A crown of pearls held the shoulder veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids on a Bible from which hung streamers of stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Scott of Portland, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Marilyn Eck of Oakland served as bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in street length frocks of pale pink chiffon over taffeta. Brief veils attached to floral headpieces and slippers were also pink. Their arm bouquets were deep red antherium.

Best man was Jeff Howell of Klamath Falls. Brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Bill Perkins of Livermore, was the groomsmen. Ushers were Mervin Woodard of Klamath Falls and Don Shaplund of Danville.

Brenda Perkins was the flower-girl and Scottie Perkins, the ring bearer. They are niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Alexander selected for the occasion a pink sheath dress with matching hat and accessories. Mrs. Arnett wore a mint green dress with darker green accessories. White orchids were worn by both mothers.

An open reception was held following the ceremony in the church hall. A four tier, pink-tinted wedding cake was encircled with orchids from Hawaii to carry out the pink and orchid color theme. A program included musical selections and readings. A buffet supper was served later.

Mrs. Arnett changed to a dark pink silk dress with ivory polka dots for the wedding journey north. She is a graduate of Gresham High School and attended Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz. She has been employed as a stenographer in Oakland.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Henley High School, attended Oregon Technical Institute. He is presently employed by Sandia Atomic Research in Livermore where they will make their home. A bridal banquet took place the evening before the wedding at Onstad's Smorgasborg in Oakland.

Out-of-town guests included Ann Chapman, Cottage Grove; Beverly Silber, Escalon; Marge Petrow, Ingleswood; Mrs. George Sherman, aunt of the bridegroom, and Sandra Vowell, his cousin, both of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams of Klamath Falls.

RESIDE IN RENO — While the bridegroom attends University of Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Osborne will reside in Reno. Mrs. Osborne is the former Diane L. Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker of Albany. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Osborne of Tulelake. —Photo by Fisher, Albany

RECENT NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. David E. Arnett were married in a summer ceremony in Oakland. She is the former Jeannie Alexander. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan T. Arnett of Klamath Falls.

Diane Walker Bride Of Wayne G. Osborne

Diane L. Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker of Albany, became the bride of Wayne G. Osborne Aug. 27 at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Albany.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Osborne of Tulelake.

Before the altar banked with white gladioli, the couple exchanged their nuptial vows in a 4 p.m. double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Hugh Bronson, pastor of the Pine Valley Church of Halfway.

Nosegays of white flowers accented with green ribbon marked the aisle pews for the candle-light service.

Percy Walker escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown of Chantilly lace and net featured a sweetheart neckline, short cap sleeves and a full skirt of alternate panels of lace and net, extending into a chapel train. She wore a double fingertip length veil of illusion and carried a green orchid arranged with a spiral of white gladioli.

The bride's sister, Sharon Walker, was the honor attendant. Two other sisters, Mrs. Keith Thompson and Audrienne Walker, and Mrs. Wayman Bradley were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in frocks of pink and green chiffon over green taffeta. Their nosegay bouquets were white gladioli.

William Osborne, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were two brothers, Robert Osborne and Donald Osborne; a cousin, Edgar Duckett, and Richard Millick.

Candlelighters wearing frocks of Kelly green organza over taffeta, were Julieann Osborne and Sally Osborne, sisters of the bridegroom.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Stanley Wadsworth, Sidney M. Burt sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer" as a part of the service.

Mrs. Walker chose a yellow satin brocade sheath with matching accessories for the affair. Mrs. Osborne wore a royal blue satin brocade dress with white accessories. White rosebuds were corsages for both mothers.

The bridal couple received congratulations from about 170 wedding guests at a reception in the Fireplace Room of the church which was decorated with roses and gladioli.

Assisting were Mrs. Norman Walker, Mrs. Ernest Ziegler, Mrs. George Siver and Mrs. Rex Ziegler, all aunts of the bride, and Marlene Baldwin, Brenda Moore and Mrs. Larry Walker.

Mrs. Osborne's going-away costume was a beige sheath dress with matching jacket, brown accessories and the green orchid from her bouquet. She is a graduate of Shasta College. The bridegroom attended Oregon State College and Shasta College and this year is completing his senior year at University of Nevada.

The newlyweds are residing at 765 Reeves Avenue in Reno following a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents, and his grandfather, John Bush, Tulelake guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Osborne, Bill and Doug; Mr. and Mrs. Estil Allison and family; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. George Reiben, Mr. and Mrs. John Takacs, Steve Bush, Susan Perry, Mary Jane Oehlerich and Edgar Duckett. From Merrill were Mr. and Mrs. Murel Long and Ann.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lennert, Everson; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reynolds, Corvallis; Richard Millick, Henderson, Nev.; Gary Fagg, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Prentice and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reynolds, Dexter; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson, Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ziegler, Beaverton; Marlene Baldwin, Eugene.

Baby Shower
MALIN—Mrs. Dale Fok was honored recently with a pink and blue shower at the Main Community Hall. Stuffed animals were used for decorations throughout the room, and the gift table was artistically decorated with the lettering "Baby Rick."

On a lace covered table were cakes. Assisting Mrs. Rick with her gifts were Mrs. Ron McVay and Mrs. Bill Taylor. Hostesses were Mrs. Virgil Rick, Mrs. Don Morrow, Mrs. L. Harrison, Mrs. John Guthrie, Mrs. Jim Guthrie, Mrs. Kenny Steykal and Mrs. Bill Taylor.
