

Recent Rites Unite Couple

In recent ceremonies the Kathleen Kaye Broyles of Santa Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Broyles, this city, became the bride of Buddy Bruce Wolford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wolford of Santa Barbara. The couple exchanged wedding vows Sept. 2 in a double ring ceremony against a background of pink and white gladioli and ferns.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her street length gown of white chiffon over taffeta was fashioned with short sleeves and scoop neckline. Bodice interest was small bows with pearl trim. A briefly veiled small hat and white slippers completed her attire. She carried a cascade of cream and white gladioli and rosebuds.

Patricia Broyles of Klamath Falls was her sister's sole attendant. Her frock was blue chiffon over taffeta and her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

The bride's father served as best man.

Mrs. Broyles attended her daughter's wedding in a blue lace dress with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Members of both families and close friends of the couple were present at a reception at the home of the newlyweds in Santa Barbara. White gladioli and white bells with blue tapers were used for decorations. The wedding cake, four tiered, iced in white with silver leaves and topped with a bridal couple under a lily of the valley arch, was made by the bride's mother. The bride's sister, Colleen Broyles of Santa Barbara served the confection. Punch was poured by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Campbell, assisted by Mrs. Ernie Sandoval.

Mrs. Wolford is a graduate of KUHS and presently is employed by the News Press in the California City. Her husband is associated with Hughes Motor Company.

ENGAGED — Mrs. Perley Wolter of this city announces the engagement of her daughter, Diane Dell, to Roger Carl Kurtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kurtz of Redmond. The future bride, a graduate of KUHS, is employed by the David A. Richardson Company. Her fiancé, graduate of Redmond High School, is an employe of Safeway Stores here. No date has been set for the wedding.

Naomi Shrine

Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, WOS with their families attended a picnic for officers at The Dalles in August.

An impressive obligation ceremony was performed by officers and members led by Blanche Marks, PWHP as chaplain. Members were also notified of the illness of the Supreme WHP, Ru'h Finnegan, which cancels her visits in Oregon and Washington for the time being.

Plans were announced for a Friendship Night to be held at the next meeting on Oct. 14, with guests expected from other Oregon Shrines. The theme will be "Let's live together." A dinner will be held preceding the meeting and a breakfast will be served Sunday morning following, for the WHP and WOS organization of Oregon. All members are invited to attend both events.

The annual smorgasbord will be in charge of Lois Murphy, noble prophetess, and is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 30, at the Masonic Temple.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the dining hall. Tables were attractive for the dinner, and refreshments with fall arrangements of cacti in novel array with flowers and leaves.

Serving on the committee were Ethel and Wallace Henry, Madelyn and Clyde Brown and Laura Zlabek.

Now that seedless grapes are in the market you might like to try a simple recipe that's cropping up in the best homes nowadays: just mix the grapes with light brown sugar and sour cream; serve icy cold.

COORDINATORS — Women of Klamath Falls will see a presentation of fall fashions by Bon Bazaar in a "Sunup to Sunset" theme next Saturday, Oct. 7, at Reames Country Club. Sojourners Club, a social group for newcomers, each year plan such an affair. Mrs. Jack Holt, right, chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Ashley, left, and Mrs. C. W. Davis are completing plans for the social hour and luncheon at 12:30 which will precede the style show at 2 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Van Doren at TU 4-8808. —Photo by Kettler

Skier Leaves For Training

LAKEVIEW—Jean Saubert, a member of the women's United States skiing team, left Lakeview during the weekend for Boulder, Colo., to begin training for the international races at Chamoni, France, next February.

Visiting with Jean and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saubert, last week was another member of the team, Linda Meyers. She left Tuesday for Mammoth Mountain, Calif., to make preparations for the training season

Canton Crater

The first fall meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 was held on Thursday, Sept. 14, at the IOOF Hall with the president, Lady Helen Blanas, in charge.

The ceremony of draping the charter was performed by officers with Chevaliers Frank McCornack, Charles Leib, Edgar Hoffman and Louis Kandra forming honor guard, for Lady Nellie Wattenberg, past president of the Rebekah Assembly and also of the auxiliary, who passed away Aug. 1 in Eugene.

Plans for the official visit and inspection on Oct. 12 were discussed, with a dinner planned in honor of the state auxiliary president, Lady Elmira Douma and the vice president, Lady Ida Terney.

Reports were given on the two summer meetings held for the first time outdoors. The first meeting was held July 27 in the garden of Helen Blanas with Lorene McCollum and Margaret Biden assisting with the potluck dinner. The second outdoor meeting was held at the home of Helen McCornack. A potluck dinner was served on the patio. A large group of members attended both affairs and enjoyed the meetings.

Serving on the refreshment committee were Mae Anderson and Stella Dryden.

Church Plans Autumn Tea

The women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church are busy with plans for the annual autumn tea which will be an event of Friday, Oct. 6, at the home of Mrs. Julian Eccles, 220 Conger Avenue.

Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Howard Fernell are chairmen for the event. Assisting them with the arrangements are Mrs. Richard Hellig, Mrs. Delos Mills, Mrs. John Moehl and Mrs. Marvin Lucas.

The sale of tickets is being handled by Mrs. William Milne and Mrs. Lyle Steers. Proceeds will be used to buy draperies for the new Christian Education building at St. Paul's Church.

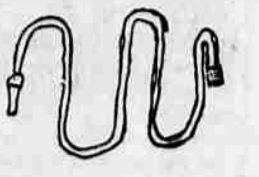

Quotarians Attend Meet

Five members of Quota Club of Klamath County attended the annual District 14 convention last weekend. Helen Goeckner and Shirley Soran, president and vice president, respectively, and Ni Nyback, Eva Dickson and Dottie Poole made the trip to Gearhart for the three-day meet.

The new district governor is Lillian Crist of Portland. Anne Cochran of Vancouver will serve as lieutenant-governor.

Helen Goeckner and Shirley Soran made their convention reports to the local club at its regular noon meeting Tuesday at the Winema Hotel.

Joanne Bellinger of Los Angeles, daughter of Kay Bellinger, accompanied her mother to the meeting.
