PITTSBURGH (AP)—Joey Jay, ace of the Cincinnati mound staff, was battered for five hits and five runs in four innings Saturday as the Pittsburgh Pirates pounded out an 11-6 victory over the National League champs.

In other Saturday games, the Chicago Cubs beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1 and Stan Musial led the St. Louis Cardinals to a 12-2 conquest of Philadelphia.

Of the five hits Jay allowed in his final tuneup for the World Series, three were homers and one was a double. Dick Stuart, Don Leppert and Bill Mazeroski hit the homers. Stuart also hit a homer, his 35th, off Ken Hunt, who followed Jay to the mound.

The defeat was Jay's 10th of the season. He has won 21.

The Pirates accumulated 14 hits and the Reds got 10 off rookie Al Jackson who went all the way.

Roger Says He'll Sink Or Swim

NEW YORK (AP) — In Roger Maris' own words, it's "sink or swim" Sunday.

The New York Yankee outfielder, stymied again Saturday in his bid for home run No. 61, faces his last opportunity Sunday when the curtain is hung down on the 1961 baseball season.

"I've got four cracks at it tomorrow," Maris said, "and I'm going to try to take advantage of every one of them. I'm going to start swinging the moment I leave the dugout.

"I just hope they give me something better to swing at than they did today."

Don Schwall, rookie Boston right-hander, checked Maris Saturday as the Yankees defeated the Red Sox 3-1. The tall rookie held Roger to an infield single in four times at bat. He walked the blond slugger on five pitches in the first inning and retired him on easy grounders to second base in the third and fifth. In his last time at bat, Maris hit a hard shot to the right of second base that Jim Schilling knocked down but could make no play.

It was Maris' first hit in ten times at bat since he smashed his 60th home run, against Jack Fisher of Baltimore, Tuesday night in the Yankees' 159th game.

NEW YORK (AP)—Roger Maris failed to hit a home run again Saturday and had to settle for a single in New York's 3-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

In other American League action, Detroit topped Minnesota 6-4, Baltimore edged Chicago 4-3, Los Angeles clubbed Cleveland 11-6 and Washington slipped by Kansas City 5-4.

Yanks 3, Bosox 1

Maris has one more game in which to try to set a new all-time total by hitting his 61st homer. Yanks finish their regular season Sunday against Boston.

The Yankees outfielder, who hit his 60th homer Tuesday night and then took a day off, went hitless Friday night. In Saturday's game Maris was walked in the first inning, grounded out in the third and fifth and singled in the eighth against rookie Don Schwall. He was replaced in center field by Jack Reed in the ninth.

Pros Whip Amateurs

SEATTLE (AP) — The professionals whipped the amateurs 4-1 Saturday in the first round of Hudson Cup golf play, but four of the five matches went to the 36th hole.

With the Scots foursome phase completed, the two teams of Northwest pros and amateurs will wind up the competition Sunday in 10 singles matches. These also will be scheduled for 36 holes.

Bruce Cuff of Portland and Dick Price of Longview saved the amateurs from a shutout. Cudd sank a 15-foot birdie put on the 36th hole for a 1-up victory over Tom Everham of Aberdeen and Bunny Mason of Portland.

Utes Surprise Oregon, 14-6

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Underdog Utah recovered from a fumbling start Saturday night and used alert defensive play to earn a 14-6 intersectional football victory over the Oregon Ducks.

The Utes spread their ends and halfbacks wide to effectively stop Oregon's crew of fleet backs. The Ducks were hampered by the loss of sophomore halfback Mel Renfro, their great breakaway runner.

Renfro, who was limping at the start of the game, re-injured a bad ankle and missed the last three quarters. He was held to minus-one yards rushing in three carries.

Utah defenders staved off Oregon every time the Ducks threatened, the last time in the final minute of the game when end Marv Fleming intercepted an Oregon pass on the Utah 23. Another drive stalled on the Utah 3-yard line in the second quarter.

Oregon struck for its only touchdown after Utah quarterback Bill Cravens fumbled on the Ute 25 and Oregon's Max Chohoian recovered. A 23-yard pass from Doug Post to Renfro gave the Ducks the ball on the Utah 3, and Post scored on a quarterback sneak two plays later to put Oregon ahead 6-0 with only 3 minutes, 20 seconds gone in the first period.

Fullback Bud Tynes scored both Utah touchdowns on short plunges. The first came after an 89-yard march in the second period, and his second came after a 51-yard drive in the fourth period.

Tynes was Utah's top ground gainer with 37 yards in 15 carries. And Jim Josephson and Duane Cargill led Oregon with 39 yards in seven carries.

Utah intercepted five Oregon passes and recovered two fumbles.

Oregon almost pulled out a possible tie by driving from its own 28 in the final two minutes to the Utah 23, where Fleming's interception saved the Utes. Cargill got away for a 23-yard run during this drive, and Ron Veres tossed 22 yards to Paul Burleson on the Ute 23.

Lakeview 11 Beats Illinois Valley, 13-7

LAKEVIEW (Special) — The Lakeview Honkers got into the win column here Saturday afternoon by taking a close 13-7 decision from the visiting Illinois Valley Cougars.

Lakeview opened scoring in the second quarter in the Rogue League contest when senior fullback Dennis Barry smashed three yards for a touchdown. The point-after kick was no good and the Honkers led at the half, 6-0.

Chuck Cossey, the Honkers' quarterback, got the second Lakeview TD all by himself in the third quarter. He dashed around right end and went 56 yards to score. He also added the extra point for a 13-0 Lakeview lead.

Illinois Valley tallied in the final quarter when Ron Thornhill broke loose for 40 yards and a touchdown. Fullback Don Johnson plunged for the point and the game ended 13-7.

Lakeview coach Howard Hopper said his team played to a sparse crowd on the opening day of deer season. He singled out his defensive ends, Vernon Plato and Herb Pollard, for improved play.

Chargers Beat Bills In AFL

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — San Diego defeated Buffalo 19-11 in an American Football League game Saturday night as expected but ran into unexpected opposition from the stubborn eastern division cellar dwellers.

The league's only unbeaten club could generate only one touchdown drive in the contest, relying on a pass interception for its other touchdown and a pair of field goals by George Blair.

Buffalo did all its scoring in the second period. Joe Hergert booted a 16-yard field goal, and with 28 seconds remaining in the half, Reynold pitched a 29 yarder to Elbert Dubenion. Richie Lucas ran for the conversion and San Diego led 13-11 at the intermission.

It was San Diego's fourth victory in as many games and Buffalo's third loss in four starts.

Longhorns Stampede

AUSTIN (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns stampeded a scrappy but badly outclassed Texas Tech team 42-14 Saturday night.

The victory put sixth nationally ranked Texas on top of the Southwest Conference football heap by taking the first conference game.

The Texas football machine no sooner got the ball than it began to grind out yardage and scores. When the final gun sounded, the Longhorns had run up 391 yards rushing to Tech's 119.

The story was told in the first half when the Steers went to the dressing room with 35 points to the Red Raiders' 7. The last half was merely postscript, written mainly by Texas reserves.

Rebs Power To Victory

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mississippi's mighty Rebels powered their way past Kentucky 20-6 Saturday night as senior quarterback Doug Elmore directed a wide open passing attack.

Mississippi, defending Southeastern Conference champion, entered the game ranked second nationally. Its hard fought victory was the Rebels' 16th straight and the sixth in a row over Kentucky.

Junior halfback Chuck Morris of Gulfport, Miss., broke the game open with six minutes gone in the third period. He grabbed an errant Kentucky pass and galloped 69 yards for a touchdown.

With the Red Raiders leading 26-21, Grill brought LC from behind by scoring from 17 yards out with 1:59 left in the game. Raider end Howard Hartman scored three times for SOC, two on passes of four and 17 yards from quarterback Doug Olsen.

Bama Falters Over Tulane

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Alabama's sputtering Crimson Tide defeated Tulane's stubborn Greenies 9-0 Saturday night on breaks. The Tide failed to add to its national stature in the luckluster contest.

Both Bama scores came after Tulane fumbles early in the first quarter and late in the third.

The Tide scored on a 44-yard, eight-play drive after 4:30 in the opening stanza following Butch Wilson's recovery of a fumble by the Greenies' George Oechsner.

Humboldt St. Tips Bearcats

SALEM, Ore. (AP)—Alert Humboldt State, taking advantage of a fumble and a blocked punt, defeated Willamette University Saturday night, 27-13.

Size and a stronger bench enabled the Californians to put together a solid rushing attack which proved too much for Willamette.

Humboldt end Carl Carlson opened the scoring in the second period when he picked off a fumble and sprinted 51 yards. After Willamette quarterback Tommy Lee had tied the game with a one-yard plunge, Humboldt took the lead for good on a 20-yard scoring pass to Drew Roberts.

The game's crucial moment came in the third period when Humboldt blocked a punt on the Willamette 29. That started a scoring drive which ended on a one-yard run by Frank Buda.

Willamette fullback Larry Miller was the game's busiest runner. He carried 19 times for 82 yards.

Linfield Has Tough Time

MCMINNVILLE (AP)—The Linfield Wildcats, favored to take the Northwest Conference football championship this year, had a tough time of it before getting a 13-7 non-conference victory from Oregon College Saturday night.

Oregon College put up a stout defense, but the Wildcats scored once in the second quarter and once in the third, both times on passes by Bill Parrish.

Parrish connected with wingback Val Barnes for 20 yards and the first score, then added the second on an 8-yard pass to end Bernie Grant.

Grizzlies Bomb N.M.

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—Montana's Grizzlies, shell-shocked in two earlier games, bombed heavily favored New Mexico 40-8 Saturday in a reversal of form that electrified 8,000 homecoming football fans shivering in 40-degree weather.

The Grizzlies, soundly beaten 29-0 by Wyoming and 54-6 by Utah State, never let New Mexico get into the game.

Century 21 Leads Race Qualifiers

MADISON, Ind. (AP) — The Seattle champion speedboat combination of Bill Muncey and Miss Century 21 was fastest qualifier Saturday in the first three heats of the two-day Governor's Cup race for unlimited hydroplanes on the Ohio River.

Miss Century 21 already had won the national championship in the "Gold Cup" class. The big persimmon-and-white boat won its 15-mile heat at an average speed of 104.8 miles an hour, staying well ahead of Bill Cantrell and his Gale V from Detroit after taking the lead on the first turn.

Roy Duby of Clarkston, Mich., in George Simon's Miss U.S. I just cruised to a heat victory at 92.3 m.p.h. It is the only boat with a chance to retire the cup with a third victory. It was a three-boat heat and Duby and Bob Schroeder of Detroit were automatic qualifiers for Sunday's program after Cutie Radio was disqualified.

Cutie Radio, driven by Robert Miller of Everett, Wash., missed a buoy and failed to make any points. It finished, however, and survived the eliminations.

Only boat eliminated from the 11 starters was Fascination, driven by Robert Gilliam of Seattle, which blew a supercharger on the first turn of the other heat. The heat was won by Miss Bardahl, another Seattle boat driven by Ron Musson of Akron, Ohio, at 99.557 m.p.h.

There will be two five-boat elimination heats Sunday and a five-boat final. The first heat will match Lumberville, Miss U.S. I, Miss Madison, Gale V and Miss Detroit. In the second heat it will be Miss Bardahl, Thunderbolt, Gale VII, Century 21 and Cutie Radio.

Divine Comedy was second, and Carry Back, champion 3-year-old, finished third.

With Eddie Arcaro in the saddle, Kelso zoomed home in 2 minutes flat for the mile and one quarter, eight lengths ahead of Llangollen Farm's Divine Comedy. Kelso's time matched the track mark set by Whisk Broom II in 1913.

Poor Punt, Penalty Tough On Grays Harbor Eleven

By FLOYD L. WYNNE

Two turf-shattering defenses tangled on Modoc Field Saturday night with a pair of early breaks proving the deciding factors in a 14 to 0 victory by the Oregon Tech Owls over the Chokers from Grays Harbor, Wash.

BILL RANSOM
. . . the Owl QB

It was a battle between the 30-yard lines for much of the ball game as both clubs showed tremendous defensive power. However, the early break for the Owls came on a bad punt by Don Safford. Booting from the end zone, Safford's kick went off the side of his foot, bounced on the Chokers' 15-yard line, and then took a reverse hop, coming to rest in the Grays Harbor end zone where guard Andy Cook fell on it for the Owls' first counter of the game. Bud Maupin converted the extra point to give Coach Rex Hunsaker's charges a 7 to 0 lead.

The second break for the Owls came early in the second quarter. Ed Anderson punted from the Oregon Tech one yard line. Sonny Luke returned it from the 35 to the Owl 25 yard line. Safford, who was the principal ball carrier for the invaders, carried for four straight plays, all over center, lugging the ball to the five yard line. Safford carried over from the five, but an off-side penalty nullified the score. Safford brought it back to the nine, Luke carried to the seven, and an incomplete forward pass gave the Owls the ball on their own seven.

This was the big threat for the Chokers, and from here, the sands of victory ran strongly for the Owls.

The second counter of the game came in the waning moments of the first half. Taking the ball on their own 31-yard line, the Techmen moved straight downfield on the running of powerful Stan Glass, Leland Koepke and the passing combination of Bill Ransom and receivers Harvey Graham and Jack Fox.

Ransom hit Graham with a first down pass on the 24-yard line, and on the next play, flipped to Fox on the 16. Here, Glass skirted his right end, cut back and went over standing up for the final counter of the game. Maupin was set to kick the extra point, but Ransom elected to run a high pass from center, and he carried in for the final point.

The Owls had their 14 points by halftime, and the second half wound up strictly a defensive duel with the Owls getting to Grays Harbor's 19 yard line only to lose the ball on down, and the Chokers moving to the Owls 27 at OTI's Wayne Dennis intercepted a pass to end that threat on the final play of the game.

Glass and Ransom were the big workers for the Owls, with Glass rolling up 90 yards in 19 carries and Ransom adding a net of 37 in 11 tries. For the losers, Safford lugged the ball 22 times for a net of 91 yards. Luke carried seven times for 26.

The Owls showed more emphasis on their passing game with Ransom connecting on eight of 22 attempts, but their ground game was their effective weapon.

For the Chokers, Jerry Hatton connected on only two out of 13 aerials for a poor showing.

Now that they're back in the victory column, the Owls will head into OCC League play next weekend when they tangle with the Portland State Vikings in Portland on Saturday.

Baylor Downs Pitt Panthers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Quarterback Ronnie Stanley tossed two fourth-down touchdown passes, the second a 12-yarder to sophomore Jim Ingram in the final period, and Baylor downed Pitt 16-13 Saturday in their first football meeting.

Kid Paret Is Welter Champ

NEW YORK (AP) — Benny (Kid) Paret, a determined Cuban flailer, won back the world welterweight boxing title from Emile Griffith Saturday night on a split decision in 15 rounds of head-to-head mauling.

The muscular Griffith, a native of the Virgin Islands but now living in New York, had become champion April 1 by knocking out Paret in the 13th round at Miami Beach.

Paret, a 4 to 1 underdog, who had been inactive since he lost his crown, captured the votes of both judges but lost the ballot of referee Al Berl who had Griffith on top 8-6-1. Judge Artie Aidala had it 9-6 and Judge Tony Castellano saw it 8-6-1 both for Paret. The AP had Paret on top 8-6-1.

There was a mixture of cheers and raucous boos as the 24-year-old Cuban was hoisted high in midring at Madison Square Garden after the decision was announced.

There was no knockdowns in the televised contest witnessed by 6,072 fans paying $20,000.
