Shepherd Dog Saves Woman

SALEM (AP) — Her German Shepherd dog was credited by Mrs. Clyde Chapman with saving her life early Friday morning when flames swept through Oak Point store and her adjoining home seven miles southwest of Salem.
She said she was awakened about 4 a.m. by the dog barking frantically at her arm. Independence firemen saved two of the four rooms of her home but flames destroyed the grocery store.
Mrs. Chapman's husband was elk hunting in Idaho and unaware of the loss.
