

Republicans Vote Eugene

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — The Western Republican Conference voted unanimously today to meet next in Eugene, Ore., in 1963.

Eugene won out over Albuquerque, N.M. Alaska also put in a bid, but later withdrew on behalf of Oregon.

Robert Davis, of Grants Pass, Oregon state Republican chairman, and head of the site selection committee, said the 1963 meeting—right before the '64 campaign—will be one of the biggest in the history of the Republican Conference.

GASLINE ALLEY
You got a 'lectric mixer, Mr. Gideon. Why don't you use that?
It broke down and it would cost $150 to fix it.
I don't have that kind of money. We'll do it by hand.
It don't look too bad to me.
I bet me an' Joel could fix this here thing up for almost nothin'!
Get away from there, Rufus! That's a valuable machine.

SHUFFY SMITH
DOC!! IT'S AN EMERGENCY!! I BROKE MY ELBOW KNOB
