

Klamath Folk Attend Kansas Wedding Rites

Present for the recent wedding of Shirley Guiot and Earl Martin Kerns were his mother, Mrs. Earl G. Kerns, his sister, Sydney Kerns, and Stuart Henzel, who served as an usher at the Sept. 23 ceremony. The vows were solemnized in a single ring service at 4 o'clock in the First Christian Church at Junction City, Kan., by the Rev. Charles Cook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guiot of Norway, Kan. The bridegroom is also the son of the late Earl George Kerns of Klamath Falls.

The church altar was flanked on each side by a beauty basket of white gladioli and blue carnations and a white pedestal arrangement with ivy on which stood a circular candelabra with blue tapers. These were lighted before the ceremony by Mrs. Loren Hammer and Mrs. Ross Kirk. Their full skirted dresses were of royal blue taffeta worn with matching headbands and wristlets of white pompons.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her gown, which she had designed and fashioned herself, was of satin and lace. The fitted bodice of satin with long pointed sleeves came to a V in front. Extending from the dropped waistline was a full lace overskirt with scalloped edging along the plain, satin front panel. A pearl tiara held the elbow length veil of illusion and she carried a crescent bouquet of gardenias with streamers of white ribbon and strings of pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Leland Guiot, Junction City, sister-in-law of the bride. Her frock was of blue taffeta with scalloped neckline, three quarter length sleeves and overskirt of nylon and net. With it she wore a matching veiled headpiece, white gloves, and carried white pompons arranged in a crescent design.

Gina Guiot, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white nylon and lace over taffeta and carried a basket of white rose petals. Jimmy Norris served as ring bearer.

Leland Guiot, the bride's brother, was best man and ushers were Lt. Kenneth Hillsten of Fort Riley and Stuart Henzel.

Mrs. William Heller, organist, played traditional wedding marches for the nuptial service. Holly Hoyle sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "I'll Walk Beside You" prior to the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" as a part of the service.

Mrs. Guiot chose for her daughter's wedding a pink lace dress with black and white feather hat and matching accessories. Mrs. Kerns wore a pastel green knit dress with green feather hat and brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations and pink roses.

Immediately after the marriage a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table, covered with white linen cloth, held the three tiered cake decorated with hearts and bells and topped with a single gardenia. It was ringed with ferns and flanked by tall white tapers. Serving the cake was Mrs. Loren Hammer and pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Ross Kirk and Sydney Kerns.

For her going-away ensemble the new Mrs. Kerns chose a green wool suit, white hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of roses. She is a graduate of Scandia High School and was employed by the post engineers at Fort Riley. The bridegroom is a graduate of KUHS and Oregon State University where he was affiliated with Sigma Pi fraternity. In June he completed duty with the Army as a first lieutenant and helicopter pilot working from his home base at Fort Riley.

For a honeymoon, the newlyweds drove west to Klamath Falls where they will reside. He will manage the Kerns ranch properties here.

Mrs. E. G. Kerns and Sydney Kerns will honor the bridal pair today at an open house between 2 and 5 o'clock at the family home on the Keno Highway.

Identical gowns and bouquets of white gardenia with blue ribbon streamers were attire for the bridesmaids, Jane Moty, Nancy Howard of Kalamazoo and Mary Kay Glass of Oswego.

Gerald Ouellette of Dearborn was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Moty of Klamath Falls, Richard Hatch and Stephen Hutchinson, Bend. A reception in St. Francis Parish Hall followed the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Norman Moty, Klamath Falls; Mrs. George Moty, Redding; Claudia Graves, Patricia O'Leary, Carol Moty, Klamath Falls; Patty Hatch, Linda Moty, Redding, and Mrs. Louise Hillis.

After the reception the bridal pair left for Portland and later for Trenton, Mich., where they will reside. Mrs. Hoffman's going-away outfit was a champagne colored suit dress, worn with blue accessories and the rose corsage from the bride's bouquet. The bride and her husband both were graduated this spring from St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind. He is employed as accountant at Price Waterhouse in Detroit.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Moty of Klamath Falls, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hoffman, Dearborn.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moty, Carol, Mary Beth and Peggy, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. George Moty and Kevin, Karen, Leonard and Linda, Redding; Joan Spazil, San Francisco; Betty Ann Glass, Oswego; Joel Haggard, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schmidt, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Garboden, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Panner, Shawnee, Okla.

Prior to her wedding the bride was feted with bridal showers, both at St. Mary's College, given by some of her classmates, and in Bend by Mrs. William Hatch Sr.

RED ROCK—A recent steak barbecue in the yard of the John Parsons home honored Mr. and Mrs. Paul Raymond and their daughter, Carol, before their departure for Fort Jones. Raymond has taught for the past two years at the one-room schoolhouse which was closed this year.

John Parson was assisted with chef duties by Bill Hindle.

St. Francis Assisi Church in Bend was the setting for the marriage Sept. 2 of Patricia Moty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Moty of that city, and Philip Charles Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hoffman of Dearborn, Mich. White gladioli and blue delphinium decorated the altar for the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. William Coughlan.

Mrs. Bothie Graves was the organist. Claudia Graves sang "Ave Maria" and Paul Beaulieu, "Panis Angelicus."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of white silk organza over white satin was appliqued with flowers on the full skirt and bodice. A four tiered short veil was held in place by a silk organza rose. The bridal bouquet was white gardenia and stephanotis, centered with white roses.

Maid of honor, Anne Moty, wore a pale blue full skirted street length frock of silk organza over taffeta with matching satin and tulle headress and slippers. Her bouquet of white gardenia was centered with blue delphinium.

Identical gowns and bouquets of white gardenia with blue ribbon streamers were attire for the bridesmaids, Jane Moty, Nancy Howard of Kalamazoo and Mary Kay Glass of Oswego.

Gerald Ouellette of Dearborn was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Moty of Klamath Falls, Richard Hatch and Stephen Hutchinson, Bend.
