Heidrich-Cofer Vows Solemnized In Portland

In an exchange of wedding vows Aug. 26 at the First Methodist Church in Portland, Jeanette Leslie Cofer became the bride of Gary O. Heidrich. The 8 o'clock ceremony was officiated by Dr. E. Harold.

The bride is the daughter of former Klamath Falls residents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Cofer of Portland. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Adeline Cofer and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Heidrich, Klamath Falls, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's wedding gown was princess style with stand-up Empire collar and chapel train. The bodice was detailed with lace cut work. A taffeta rose headpiece held the bouffant elbow length veil and she carried an arm bouquet of white long-stemmed roses with white ribbon streamers.

Five attendants in princess aqua silk organza frocks and carrying long stemmed pink roses preceded the bride to the altar. Each interest in the dresses was created by a half crescent of self material roses gathered into a semi-bustle.

Matron of honor place was taken by the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Iverson. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Speer, Mrs. Betty Halbert, Aida Zurita and Nancy Junken.

Men in the wedding party included William Heidrich, the bridegroom's brother, who was best man, and Edward Kay, Mel Welter, Dale Murphy and Claude Smith Jr., who were ushers.

Candles for the ceremony were lighted by Mrs. Beth Franseth and Mrs. Diane Sturdevant. Their pink organza dresses were styled like those of the attendants. Headpieces of pink silk organza roses on bands and wrist corsages of pink roses completed their attire.

Dressed like the bridesmaids and carrying a basket of pink roses was the flower girl, Sandra Speer.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception and buffet supper at the home of the bride's parents before departing for a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco. The couple will make their home in Portland where he is employed since attending Oregon State University. The bride is a former stewardess with Alaska Airlines.

Klamath Falls residents present for the wedding included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heidrich; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. L. D. Gass, Mrs. Ida Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Barker.

PORTLAND NUPTIALS — Mr. and Mrs. Gary O. Heidrich were married Aug. 26 in Portland. She is the former Jeanette Cofer, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cofer, at one time resided here. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heidrich, this city.

Weed Scene Of BPW Meet

WEED—A crowd of 100 women attended the Northern District, Federated Business and Professional Women's Clubs meeting Sept. 16-17 in Weed and hosted by the Weed and Mount Shasta BPW clubs.

Mrs. M. Cravens Douglass, first vice president of the State Federated Business and Professional Women's Clubs, was main speaker at the meeting in Sons Memorial Hall, decorated to carry out a "Harvest Moon" theme. She spoke on the forthcoming state conclave in Los Angeles.

Appearing on the opening Saturday program were the Rev. James Vaughan, Holy Family Catholic Church, who gave the invocation; W. E. Hansen, Weed city administrator, who gave the welcome; and Mrs. H. C. (Coe) Strothers, Northern District president, who presided over the two-day conclave.

A realistic scene of spotlighted autumn displays by Mrs. James Brunello provided a backdrop for Saturday night's banquet. Entertainment included singing, square dancing, dances and skits.

Workshop sessions met at 9 a.m. Sunday following presidents and chairmen breakfasts at the Y-Cafe and Lou's Cafe. At the Sunday luncheon Mrs. Ellen Tupper, Weed, gave an informative history of Weed and Siskiyou counties.

Mrs. Gene Rizzo, president of the Weed BPW, served as general chairman of the event. Committee members were Mrs. Hazel Cates, credentials; Mrs. Virginia Deskin, Mrs. Bertha Brown, Mrs. Rizzo, decorations and badges; Mrs. Evelyn Mason and Mrs. Gladys Riley, publicity and corsages; Mrs. Rena Santini, hospitality hour; Mrs. Emmeline Ganum and Mrs. Bertha White, hostesses; Mrs. Louise Harris, registration; Mrs. Deskin, invitations; Mrs. Louise Abramson, entertainment; Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Rizzo, programs; Mrs. Adams, music.

Mount Shasta committee members were Mrs. Stella Hurlbert, decorations; Mrs. Helen Howarth and Mrs. Eugenia Astmann, registration, and Mrs. Mary Smith, coffee break.
