Couple Wed In Medford

Dick Kerbow of this city took as his bride on Aug. 19, the former Elizabeth Hollis of Ashland. The two exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony in the Church of God, Medford, the first marriage to be performed in that edifice. The bride is the daughter of former Medford residents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hollis, now of Pacific City. Mrs. Leona Kerbow of this city is the bridegroom's mother. Pink and white gladioli decorated for the evening ceremony officiated by the Rev. Wilton Martin. Mrs. Robert Anderson was soloist and Janice Ferrell, the organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of white chiffon over satin with Chantilly lace trim on the bodice. A pearl crown held her shoulder length veil and she carried white carnations atop a white Bible. Mrs. Mickey Simons, Vancouver, was matron of honor for her sister, Linda Hollis, Pacific City, and Linda Crabill, Grants Pass, were bridesmaids. They wore pink brocade satin sheaths. The matron of honor carried a nosegay of white carnations and other attendants, pink and white. Patricia Hollis, sister of the bride, and Teri Simons, her niece, were candle-bearers. John Kerbow was best man for his brother. Ushers were the bride's brother, Charles Hollis, and Ronald Owens, Klamath Falls. Assisting at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. John Lapsley, Bonnie Wilson, Myrna Ohatsu and Mrs. William Pierce. For the wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a turquoise and gold plaid suit with black accessories. Both are graduates of Southern Oregon College and are members of the Klamath Falls school system.

Trail Riders Turn Hoboes

YREKA — For their September get-together, the Yreka Trail Riders held a "Hobo" dinner at Burton's "Jungle" on the Fort Jones Road, with 65 members and guests appearing appropriately garbed in "Hobo" costumes. The dinner was preceded by a social hour. Entertainment for the evening consisted of the recital of a poem by Mrs. Edson Foulke, which had been composed by Mrs. Helen Hitchcock for the occasion; and a dance and song routine by Mary Ann Dillon and Pat Martin. Vera Reichman was in charge of the dinner arrangements, with the assistance of Stuart Peckham, Agnes James, Ruth Hammond, Ellen Hayden, Shirley Hayden, Irene Davis and Ann Andrews.

AUX WELCOMES STATE PRESIDENT

A special meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary was called Friday evening, Sept. 29, to welcome Mary Chapman, state madam president. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting conducted by Dr. Margaret Gregory, madam president. Mrs. Chapman was escorted by the auxiliary drill team. She gave a report of the national convention at Minneapolis. An auxiliary gift was presented to her by Betty Ketsdever, official mother. For entertainment, Bill Ryan sang several selections. Introduction of past presidents and auxiliary officers and Brother "Red" Chapman was made by Stella Persell, state trustee. Banquet tables were decorated in a fall motif by Ellen Shunn.
