

Many Friends Honor Suey Wong's Birthday

Friends from Oregon, California and Hawaii and throughout the Klamath Basin assembled in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel on Sunday, Sept. 3, to celebrate the 61st birthday of Mrs. Sam (Suey) Wong.

In China, much attention is given to decade birthday anniversaries, particularly the 60th year. Due to circumstances, Sam Wong's honor was given on his 61st birthday in 1956, followed this year by a similar affair for his wife.

About 150 guests were invited for cocktails and buffet supper at the hotel. On the tables were beautiful chrysanthemums grown and brought for the occasion by Charlie Chan of Mountain View, Calif.

They were arranged by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor.

Red is, to the Chinese, the traditional color of happiness, and was appropriately chosen for the decor of Chinese rice bowls and chopsticks, which were given to each guest.

Mrs. Wong was born Sept. 21, 1900, in Canton, China. Following their marriage, the Wongs lived in San Francisco and Sacramento, coming to Klamath County in 1931.

The Wongs have six children surviving—George and Joe Chin, both living near Merrill; Mrs. Fee (Betty) Louie of Sacramento; Jeanne Chin, Berkeley; Tom Chin, first year dental student at University of California, and Ming Chin, sophomore in pre-law at University of San Francisco.

In keeping with a custom of the Canton region, Mrs. Wong received a peach-shaped pin fashioned of Chinese gold, engraved with the names of her children and inscriptions such as good fortune and long life, all in Chinese characters.

The beautiful pin was presented to Mrs. Wong by her eldest son, George. He pinned it to the heavily-gold-embroidered black brocade aqua jacket which covered Mrs. Wong's beige brocade Cheong Som sheath.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chin, Kim Yee, San Francisco; Charlie Chan, Mountain View; Sharrine Ann Loo, Sharon Chin and Mrs. H. C. Pang, Honolulu, and Carol Wong, Bakerville.

OES Meet Held In KF

An OES district meeting was held Tuesday, Sept. 26, at the Masonic Temple with Aloha No. 61 serving as host chapter. Prosperity Chapter of Malin, Cascade Crest Chapter of Chiloquin and Manzanita Chapter of Klamath Falls participated. Mrs. Elsie Oliotti, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, was present from Portland for her official visit. A no-host, dinner was held at the Pelican Cafe prior to the meeting in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Oliotti.

The Holy Bible, a large white cross and a bouquet of pink roses were attractively arranged upon the piano. Baskets of fall flowers and roses were used about the chapter room.

Guests seated in the east were Morris Boughner, past grand patron from Medford; Frances Kalina, Malin, and Bill Randolph, Medford, members of Estarl Fund Committee; Mary Jones, Bend, and Lorene McCollum, members of Endowment Fund Committee; Georgianna Clark and Martha Powell, grand representatives, and Mrs. Helen DeGraw, worthy matron of Tulelake.

The presiding worthy matrons, Leona Angel, Barbara Victorin, Lois Murphy and Margaret Wood, assisted by Frances Kalina and Bob Victorin, presented an addendum entitled "Around the Clock" honoring Mrs. Oliotti. Gifts were presented from each chapter.

A reception was held in the banquet room with members from all chapters serving. Host and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oldham, Mrs. Jennie Hurn and Mrs. Kate Peyton.

Nice to begin with: grapefruit sections (fresh, canned or frozen) plus a garnish of fresh or frozen berries.

We The Women

Could Be The Low-Down Or A Case Of Pique

Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A woman learns a lot about women by working with them in clubs and organizations. At least one of my readers says she learned this much in a year of club work. Says she:

"You can't get women to work unless you give them lots of credit for any little thing they do. That is why meetings are so filled with 'Special thanks to...' announcements, the reading of names of committee members, and so on.

"If you want to get a good turnout for a meeting you have to serve refreshments. Even if half reason for so many cake sales, bazaars, white elephant sales, and so on.

"No woman can sell a club's membership an idea, however sensible it might be unless she hides her brain behind an air of false modesty. Every other woman is set to take the woman down a peg who is sure of herself.

"One thing you can be sure that women will all remember from any meeting—and that is what the other women were wearing.

"When there is a choice between spending a lot of time or a little money on a project the vote will always be to do the job the hard way."

Is she right? Or did her club president just neglect to mention in meeting that she was responsible for making the chicken sandwiches?

Bethel 61

Honored Queen Susan Runge presided at the first meeting of the fall for Bethel 61, Order of Job's Daughters, at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Virginia McClure and Gus Vlahos, newly installed guardian and associate guardian, were escorted to the East. They and other council members were installed at a special meeting Sunday, Sept. 17. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian, installing officer was assisted by Nancy McClure, Sally Hanville, Susan Paddock and Jeanette Vlahos.

Other council members include Helen McCormack, secretary; Natalia Guderian, treasurer; Kitty Hanville, director of music; Mary Vlahos, guardian of merits; Opal Parisotto, promoter of sociability; Eleanor Hoagland, guardian of finance; Bertha Neece, promoter of hospitality; Gertrude Paddock, custodian of paraphernalia, and Aura Mitchell, publicity.

Tentative plans for a "Fall Fantasy" dance were discussed.

Sue Ann Owens, librarian, read the poem "Gathering Leaves" by Robert Frost.

Special guests were Leona Angel, worthy matron of Aloha Chapter, OES; Aura Mitchell, worthy high priestess of Naomi Shrine, and Kitty Hanville, past guardian of Bethel 61.

the women are dieting, it gives them a nice, superior, feeling to say, 'No, thank you.'

"If a group is large the guest speaker isn't important. The women are going to whisper or mentally plan grocery lists anyway.

"The same few women do 90 per cent of the work in any woman's club, and the same few do 90 per cent of the talking, and the same few do 90 per cent of the grumbling.

"Women will donate anything but money to a cause. That's the
