

Opal Morgan Recent Bride

Opal Lee Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Morgan, became the bride of Norman Leon Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Richardson Jr., in a double ring ceremony Sept. 3 at Immanuel Baptist Church. The three white bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

Cora Enman was the organist and accompanist for the soloist, Hugh Barnwell.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown featured a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace with long pointed sleeves and scalloped Sabrina neckline embroidered with iridescent sequins. Lace and sequin roses accented the tulle skirt between the scalloped five points of the full Chantilly lace overskirt. An elbow length English silk illusion veil was held by a double crown of strung pearls. White carnations and stephanotis were arranged in a cascade for the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Mike (Jeanne) Wonsor of Eugene was matron of honor for her sister, and Reta Buckner of Yakima and Shirley Forrester, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore full skirted frocks of turquoise chiffon with lace jackets. Their colonial bouquets were white carnations and Merritt roses.

Larry Johanson of Seattle was best man. Ushers were Sirling Steele and Jim Scapple.

Prior to the service, Judy Morgan, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. Lynn Collier was flower girl and Donnie Morgan, brother of the bride, carried the rings.

Mothers of the bride couple both chose beige ensembles with cymidium orchid corsages.

The church parlors were the setting for the reception. Centering the bride's table was a turquoise and white wedding cake encircled with pink roses. It was served by the bridegroom's aunt, Muriel Thurber. Aunt of the bride, Eula Smith, served coffee and Roxie Mathews poured punch.

After a brief California honeymoon the couple returned to make their home at the Ramona Apartments. Mrs. Richardson's going-away outfit was a turquoise and black plaid two-piece suit with white accessories. She is a graduate of KUHS. During her senior year she served as president of Pelicanettes and worthy adviser of Rainbow Girls. She is employed by Laurentine Finance Company.

Guests from out-of-town were Mrs. and Mrs. Ona Bagley, Paradise, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Randolph, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Johanson, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wonsor, Seattle; Mrs. Stan Smith, McKinleyville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Paschal, Reta Buckner, Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paschal, Alderpoint, Calif.

BIRTHDAY NOTED

LANGELL VALLEY—Joan Roberts celebrated her 11th birthday on Sept. 30, by inviting Jerral Monroe, Stacia Peterson, Carol Ann Stieve, Bonanza and Laurie Herring of Klamath Falls to go to a movie in Klamath Falls with her. Later they went to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murdock on Shasta Way, for party refreshments. Her aunt, Kathy Murdock, made a pretty butterfly cake for the occasion.

Summer Lake Pair Honored

SUMMER LAKE—Beautiful fall flowers and autumn leaves brightened the Church of Our Saviour Parish Hall when Mr. and Mrs. J. Guy Foster received congratulations on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, Sept. 30.

More than 100 guests arrived during the afternoon to be greeted by the honor guests and hosts, a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Kimes, Klamath Falls, and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Foster, Summer Lake.

Mrs. Guy (Maybelle) Foster received in a deep rose taffeta afternoon dress with a corsage of pink and white carnations at her shoulder.

Mrs. Ruby Ewing and Mrs. Carmel Hartin, sisters of Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Allen Jones, and Mrs. James Foster, daughter-in-law, assisted at the silver tea and coffee service at the bride's table which was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Lew Harris cut and served the wedding cake.

A granddaughter, Terry Ann Foster, circulated the guest book and a second granddaughter, Janice Foster, was in charge of the punch bowl. Guild women of the Church of Our Saviour assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Foster came to Summer Lake in 1910 from Seattle, where she had been teaching piano at Miss Cornish's Music Studio, to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hoy, who had purchased the Thousand Springs Ranch some four years previously.

Guy Foster's home is just five miles from his birthplace and he has spent his entire life in Lake County with the exception of two years of ranching near Bend. He is the grandson of an early pioneer, James Foster, who settled in Summer Lake Valley in 1871 to establish what is now known as the Schmidt-Minkler Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster were married Sept. 30, 1911, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Lula Schminck, Lakeview, by the Rev. Melvin T. Wire. His grandmother, Elizabeth Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Schminck, his sister, Carmel Hartin, and uncle, Andrew Foster, were present for the ceremony.

The Fosters have four granddaughters, Terry Ann, Janice Elaine, and Elizabeth Foster, and two grandsons, Robert and John Kimes, who were all present for the event.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lew Harris, Mrs. Lula Schminck, Jennie E. Carroll, Mae Leyva, the Rev. and Mrs. Hal Hargreaves, Herb Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. Bernice Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anthony, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes, Olen; Mr. and Mrs. William W. Allen, Clara Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Partin, New Pine Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones and family, Portland; Fred Egli, Anna Gowdy, Ashland.

Charles A. Small, Florence Pitman Stout, Mrs. J. W. Thom, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Harris, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris, Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. McClellan, Neotsu.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Fitzhugh, Bonanza; Mrs. Ivan Boley, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Kimes and sons, Robert and John, Mrs. Carmel Hartin, Klamath Falls.

Charles A. Crump, Adel; Grove; Hattie Clark, Cottage Grove; Ruby F. Ewing, Portland; Nettie Toole Nitschelm, Salem; Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Dawn Victor, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. David Ewing and son, Brian, Boise.

JoAnne Gordon Weds In Baptist Ceremony

On Aug. 19 in Calvary Baptist Church, JoAnne Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon, became the bride of Gaylen Eugene Hamand in a double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Ferris D. Winn. Altar bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and tall yellow tapers set the color scheme for the 7 p.m. rites. Bronze satin bows marked the church center aisle.

Traditional wedding music was played at the organ by Faye Clawson. She accompanied Mrs. Marie Jones who sang three solos. After the candles were lighted by Buddy Lummus and Rodney Rose, the bride's mother was seated by Jack Monahan. She was attired in a dressed green silk organza frock with small white hat and yellow orchid pinned at her shoulder.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her traditional floor length gown of white reemboirered lace was designed with fingertip sleeves and dropped waistline. The full skirt was detailed with back ruffles. Her only ornament was a gold chain with tear drop pearl, a gift of the bridegroom. A tiara of seed pearls and iridescent sequins secured the fingertip veil of French illusion and she carried a white Bible covered with a white orchid and stephanotis with ribbon streamers.

Jancy Meader of San Francisco was maid of honor. Her frock was of gold silk organza, designed to drape into stand-out folds of a tunic. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, caught with bronze ribbon to match the ribbon at her waist. A short veiled crown of white flowers, white gloves and gold slippers completed her outfit.

Bridesmaids were Beverly Clawson of Klamath Falls and Lana Lamb of Ukiah, Calif. Their dresses and headpieces in lovely fall shades of green and rust were fashioned like that of the honor attendant. Bronze chrysanthemums were their bouquets. Pearl earrings and bracelets were gifts of the bride.

Karen Clawson, flowergirl, carried a gold taffeta frock, wearing a white basket of yellow daisies. Patrick O'Hara was the ring bearer.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene V. Hamand of Havelock, Iowa. Reginald Hamand came from Iowa to be best man for his brother. Ushers included another brother, Joel, also Havelock, and Jack Monahan of San Jose. A yellow orchid accented the rose-beige dress worn with black. The gold and bronze decor was carried out for the reception in the church parlors after the ceremony. A three tiered wedding cake, ringed with yellow chrysanthemums and topped with a miniature bride couple was served by Mrs. Ferris Winn. Presiding at the silver coffee service was Mrs. Beth Oliver. Mrs. Virginia Livesay served punch. Roberta Tuttle, Gayla Moore and Vickie Peebler received gifts and Mrs. Carol Kimsey attended the guest book.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents on Friday evening at the Ray Owens home on Carlson Drive. Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Tonne and Rick, Tripoli, Iowa; Mrs. Agnes Jacobson and Mrs. Alberta Lammers of Eugene; Mike and John Dunn of San Jose; Mary Valdez, San Francisco; Claudia Fowler, Medford; Dan Hooper, Gustine, Calif.

For traveling the new Mrs. Hamand changed to a cinnamon color suit with bone accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. The couple are now at home in Mountain View, Calif., where he is employed by Varian Associates.
