

U.S. Tests West Berlin Readiness

BERLIN (AP) — Nearly half West Berlin's 6,500-man U.S. garrison rolled out today for a three-day test of combat readiness.

Tanks rumbled through the streets at daybreak, followed by armored personnel carriers packed with steel-helmeted troops.

There was a cold fall wind under blue skies as the columns wheeled out of their barracks and headed for the Grunewald Forest, in the American sector southwest of the city proper, where the mock battles will be staged.

Berliners on their way to work waved to the Americans, who grinned and waved back, especially at the girls. An Army spokesman emphasized that the war games—dubbed Ever Ready II—were planned in July, well ahead of the Communist closure of the East Berlin border Aug. 13.

Approximately 3,000 men are taking part under the overall leadership of Brig. Gen. Frederick O. Hartel, the U.S. commander in Berlin.

The purpose of the major fall exercise is to practice attack and delay against an aggressor, to test the troops ability to hold off an invading force until help can come from West Germany.

Taking part in the maneuvers are the 2nd and 3rd Battle Groups of the 6th U.S. Infantry division, Col. John R. Deane Jr. commands the 2nd, Col. Wayne M. Winder the 3rd Battle Group. Since the Berlin wall went up Aug. 13 the U.S. garrison has been augmented by an additional battle group from West Germany, but it is not involved in the maneuvers.

Gen. Hartel said Ever Ready II will emphasize squad and platoon tactics in offense and defense. It will be a two-sided free maneuver, apparently with the red and blue sides alternating in attack and repulse.

Almost the entire range of Army armor and weapons in Berlin will be brought into action. There will also be an amphibious exercise. Air operations by helicopters are also planned.

Today was set aside for the units to take up positions. The simulated fighting starts Thursday.

PREFERS NATIONAL ANTHEM
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Former Florida Gov. Leroy Collins said Friday that he would prefer the National Anthem to Dixie for signoff music by radio and television stations. Many Southern stations sign off with Dixie.

Pacific International Features Fat Stock Sale

PORTLAND (AP) — A fat stock sale, featuring some of the top grade animals at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, was scheduled for Wednesday.

The sale was expected to bring close to $50,000, officials said. The stock will include 75 steers, 100 hogs and 110 lambs, all of choice grade or better.

A Hereford steer exhibited by Gary Bokland, a 4-H club member, will be brought into action. There will also be an amphibious exercise. Air operations by helicopters are also planned.

Today was set aside for the units to take up positions. The simulated fighting starts Thursday.

KU Seniors Win Honors

Three Klamath Union High School seniors were honored this week for their performances on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying examinations given last March in 10,000 high schools across the nation.

They will receive formal letters of commendation from the examination committee. The three placed in the high two per cent of all secondary school seniors in the country.

Principal Willard McKinny of KUHHS said that Jane Black, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nell Black; Jon Shulmire, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shulmire, and Stephen Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams, will receive the special awards.

Sharon Russell, another KUHHS senior, was last month named a semifinalist in the competition.

Ike Would Die If Kin 'Exposed'

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said Tuesday that he'd leave a fallout shelter if the rest of his family was exposed during an attack because "I wouldn't want to be left in that kind of world."

"I would just walk out," Eisenhower said during a news conference.

The former president was asked if he thought present Civil Defense measures were adequate.

"I have never known really the proper answer all these years," he said he had been urged to build a fallout shelter on his Gettysburg farm as an example for the rest of the nation. But he said he thought this would alarm people.

Eisenhower said he hoped Americans can disabuse themselves of the uneasiness and worry he said he had sensed in them.

"We are a free nation," he said. "We're never going to be anything else. We're the last people to adopt the Russell slogan from Britain."

Some followers of Bertrand Russell of England have adopted the slogan: "Better Red than dead."
