

Couple Note Golden Date

YREKA—Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Reynolds of Fort Jones, recently celebrated their golden anniversary at an open house held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott in Yreka.

The well-known Scott Valley couple were joined in the receiving line by their son, Robert Reynolds, Yreka elementary school superintendent, and their daughter, Mrs. Scott, who were host and hostess. Both the honorees are native Siskiyouans, and have lived their entire married life in Fort Jones.

The large patio and yard of the Scott home was transformed into a garden party setting for the outdoor event with many arrangements of summer blooms, umbrellas and lawn chairs.

A large beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bells centered the refreshment table which was covered with a gold cloth. Completing the decor were large bouquets of gold chrysanthemums and candelabra placed at either side of the cake.

DON'T EMPHASIZE IT

If your hips are just a wee bit wide, never let your suit jacket end at the widest point. It only emphasizes what you wish to conceal.

COLORFUL HINT

If the hair is beginning to silver, a warmer tint in face powder can help to supply the color that is lost. Also helpful: rouge and lipstick with more blue-red in the color.

families were married Sept. 27, 1911, in Yreka, traveling over the mountain from Fort Jones in the only car then in Scott Valley.

Mrs. Reynolds, the former Fannie Luttrell, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Luttrell of Scott Valley, while her husband's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reynolds, also of Scott Valley.

In addition to their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds have six grandchildren, Donald and Judy Reynolds, David and Charles Walker, and Jim and Bill Scott. All, with the exception of David Walker, were present for the reception.

Also present as a special guest was Mrs. Myrtle Edmonds of Fresno, who attended the wedding 50 years ago.

Included among the close relatives attending the open house were three sisters of Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Kate Avery of Fort Jones, Mrs. Sadie Messner of Montague, and Mrs. Mildred Ives of Sacramento, and a brother, Lloyd Luttrell of Sacramento.

Other relatives present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bower of Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bower of San Mateo. Guests were registered by the honorees' only granddaughter, Judy Reynolds of San Francisco.
