

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Entertain Local Women At Annual Tea And Style Show

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News Sunday, October 22, 1961

About 270 Klamath women gathered at the Winema Hotel on Saturday for the annual Beta Sigma Phi card party, tea and style show presented by Bon Bazaar. The handsome new Modoc Room needed only floral arrangements in rich autumn hues to provide a perfect setting for the Harvest Moon theme of the day. Presiding at the tea table at right is Mrs. Frances Ross, sponsor-director of Beta Phi Chapter. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Jack Wolff, Xi Delta; Mrs. Edward Luczynski, Mrs. Lyle Steers and Mrs. Don Gelhardt.

Above, at the door of the Winema Hotel is Mrs. Dale Goode, center, Xi Alpha Theta Chapter, and chairman of the party. Shown with her, at left, Mrs. Paul Flury, Tau Chapter, and Mrs. Richard Young, Xi Beta Eta.

At left, Donna Cummins serves tea to Mrs. Gerald Rainwater, left, and Mrs. Richard Moulton.

Modeling at left is Mrs. Walt Backa of Beta Phi Chapter.

Above, model, Mrs. Claude Rodgers, Xi Beta Eta, shown with Mrs. Arthur Brooks, Xi Alpha Theta.

At right, Mrs. Les Liston of Xi Delta Chapter.

Mrs. Ray Bissell of Beta Phi, seated left, and Mrs. J. O. Svegarden, in background, admire smart suit worn by Mrs. Lundy Clinton of Xi Alpha Theta.

Seated at second tea table is Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, adviser to Kappa Chapter. Standing at left is Mrs. Bob Dirschl, Beta Phi, and Mrs. George Conner, Xi Beta Eta. Mrs. Tom O'Hara served as mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. Charles Larkin as style show commentator.

—Photos by Guderian

