

Sandra Roberts Weds

William E. Turner

Sandra Lynne Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Roberts, became the bride of William E. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs.

William C. Turner on Aug. 26 at Mt. Laki Presbyterian Church. A purple and white color theme was carried out with altar baskets of gladioli and white tapers. White candles were also placed in the window ledges and large white bows marked the aisle pews. The Rev. Andrew Jarvis read the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Organist was Mrs. A. F. Heringshaw. Cora Enman was the soloist. Lighting the candles for the service were Trudy Evans of this city and Mrs. Bruce Durant of Ashland.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white acetate with chapel train. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrists and the Sabrina neckline was outlined with pearl embroidered Alencon lace. Fullness to the long skirt was created by two soft pleats on either side of the V of the bodice. A bell-boy cap of Alencon lace and seed pearls held in place the imported English silk fingertip veil. On a white Bible she carried a purple-throated orchid with streamers of ribbon and stephanotis. A bit of sentiment was the white lace handkerchief sent to the bride's mother from France in 1918 by her father, the late Fred Schmoie.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Tom McAuliffe, was matron of honor. Purple silk organza over taffeta fashioned her frock made with bell skirt and cap sleeves and rose at the waistline. Tiny veiled bow hat and slippers were matching. She carried Vanda orchids arranged in a crescent with purple bow. Identically dressed were the bridesmaids, Virginia Fuller and Sandra Short, this city, and Mrs. Jim Easley of The Dalles. Nieces of the bride, Kelly Roberts of Jacksonville and Janet McAuliffe, flowergirls, wore white pure silk dresses with purple cummerbunds and purple and white carnation headbands.

Greg Wryn, the bridegroom's cousin, carried the rings on a white lace pillow. Bob Petersen was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Francis Roberts of Jacksonville, Dale Turner and Jim Turner, cousin and brother, respectively, of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore with her purple silk dress matching slippers and feather hat. Her corsage was of Vanda orchids and white rosebuds. Mrs. Turner chose a beige lace dress and hat and accessories of red. Orchids and rosebuds were her corsage.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Centering the bride's table was an elaborately decorated cake with Vanda orchids and topped with a bridal couple. It was served by Dorothy Fuller and Yvonne Baile. Serving punch and coffee were Barbara Reed and Cora Enman. At the gift table were Shirley Patterson of Merrill and Merrie Lee. The bridegroom's cake and tiny bags of rice were passed to guests by nieces of the bride, Jody and Sherry McAuliffe.

For a wedding trip along the Oregon Coast, Mrs. Turner changed to a three piece suit of candlelight brocade, lined with light lavender. Shoes and handbag were also lavender. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, gift of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Henley High School and attended Southern Oregon College. Her husband is a KUHS graduate and presently is employed by Weyerhaeuser Company. They are residing at 185 Old Fort Road. Present for the wedding was the Full skirted frocks of pink chiffon with matching cummerbunds and headpieces were worn by bridesmaids, Kathy Luse and Patty Luse of Klamath Falls, cousins of the bride. Their bouquets were the same as that of the honor attendant. Mrs. Charles Shotts was the organist. Accompanied by Mrs. Dale Harris at the piano, Tom Munroe of Dorena sang "I Love You Truly." He also served as best man for the bridegroom.

Marshall Kellem escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown was of Chantilly lace with long sleeve bodice and scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins. The floor length skirt of tulle was enhanced with full back and front peplum effect of the same lace. A jeweled crown held the fingertip veil and she carried a nosegay of white carnations and stephanotis. Jeannette Kellem, maid of honor, also with white accessories. Both
