

St. Pius X Church Scene Of Bickett-Brizzo Vows

St. Pius X Catholic Church was the setting for the Sept. 16 nuptial mass which united in marriage Sondra Cecile Brizzo and Walter Leroy Bickett. The ceremony was read by Father George Murphy. Background for the single ring service were altar bouquets of cushion chrysanthemums in autumn hues.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brizzo, was escorted along the white carpeted aisle to the altar by her father. The wedding gown bodice was Chantilly lace over taffeta with long pointed sleeves and square neckline embroidered with iridescent sequins. Over tiers of net ruffles was the floor length tulle skirt trimmed in wide bands of matching lace. Her waist length veil of English silk illusion was held by a crown of sequins and seed pearls. Lucy Wilson lilies and roses made up the bridal bouquet.

Traditional pieces were a penny of the bride's birth year and a blue garter. Bridal attendants were the bride's sisters. Maid of honor, Judith Brizzo, wore a frock of green nylon organza with scoop neckline and self-material rose trim. A float veil was attached to a matching organza clip, pearl trimmed. She carried a bouquet of lilies and cushion chrysanthemums.

Dressed identically, but in blue, was the bridesmaid, Karen Brizzo.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bickett Sr. of Beresford, S. Dak. He was attended by his brother, Ronald Harold Bickett of Sioux Lookout, Ontario, Canada. Another brother Donald Gerald Bickett of Kingsley Field and Wayne Brizzo, the bride's cousin were ushers.

Mrs. Ronald Ormsby was the organist and the accompanist for Mrs. John Rose.

Mrs. Brizzo's ensemble for her daughter's wedding was a turquoise wool sheath with black leather accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The reception following the marriage was held in the parish hall of the Sacred Heart Church. The bride's table, covered with white linen, was centered with the three tiered wedding cake, trimmed with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. On either side were crystal holders with tall pink tapers.

Mrs. O. W. Pippin cut and served the cake and Mrs. Jake Ongaro and Mrs. Albert Brizzo poured coffee and punch.

The bride's sister, Linda Brizzo, presided at the guest book and another sister, Cynthia Brizzo, received gifts.

The new Mrs. Bickett is a graduate of Henley High School. Her husband has just completed a tour of duty with the Air Force. He was stationed at Beale AFB. Presently he is employed at Klamath Poultry Company. They make their home at 2129 Vine Street.

BETA SIGMA PHI

XI BETA ETA CHAPTER

Helen Galloway was installed as president of the newly formed exemplar chapter, Xi Beta Eta, of Beta Sigma Phi, held Sept. 12 at her home.

Other officers are Pat Lukes, vice president; Pauline Conner, recording secretary; Donna Young, treasurer.

Bylaws and traditions were discussed for the new chapter.

Janet Ring gave an interesting program on conversation taken from the book, "In Word and Deed and Thought."

At the next meeting at the home of Donna Young, members were entertained by Lillian Hayden's guest speaker, Jackie Hibbert, president of Mt. Mazama Toastmistress Club. Her subject was "How to say it." A question and answer period followed.

On Sept. 23 members and their husbands enjoyed a potluck social on the patio at the home of Pat Lukes.

Refreshments were served by Marion Ackerman.

Scenes were of the southern states to Florida, Washington D.C., and of Kansas City, Mo., the home of Beta Sigma Phi.

DUNSMUIR — Speech was the program topic for the second meeting of the fall season of Kappa Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Shirley Neckels and Vi Febrero were program chairmen directing a skit and group participation. A 10th anniversary celebration is planned soon and fall rushing was also discussed at the meeting.

The meeting was at the home of Mary Marsh with Joyce Richards as co-hostess. Refreshments were served to the 14 members attending.

Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday, Oct. 7, at the home of Betty Dirschl. This was a model meeting for rushes.

Guests were June Roody, Barbara Wagner, Dorothy Strickler, Lola Bryant, Natalie Swanson, Smokie Shaw and Elda Salvage.

After a short business meeting, Francis Ross, sponsor-director of the group, gave a talk on aims, purposes and scope of Beta Sigma Phi.

Betty Dirschl gave a brief history of the club and Rita Backa told of the outstanding activities of the local chapter. The scrapbook was shown by Holly O'Neale.

Jean Bingham was in charge of the program, "Speech." Guest speaker on this topic was Mrs. Isabelle Brixner.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostess, Holly O'Neale.

Also in honor of new rushers was a coffee on Sept. 28 at the home of Rita Backa. Lois Egger, vice president, greeted Grace Bradbury, Lola Bryant, Barbara Hafar, June Roody, Dorothy Strickler, Natalie Swanson and Elda Salvage.

Beta Phi Chapter met for a regular meeting Sept. 26 at the home of Dorothy Anderson.

Pat Lukes, a former member now associated with the new Xi Beta Eta Chapter, showed slides taken on a summer trip with her family. Scenes were of the southern states to Florida, Washington D.C., and of Kansas City, Mo., the home of Beta Sigma Phi.
