

Sitter Complains Of "Moronic" Title

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: I am a member of the "modern institution called Sitters." But I certainly do not consider myself an "irresponsible, hie, moronic, hollow-headed, impudent, vacuum cleaner with teeth."

I know exactly the type of woman who would complain. She is the one who greets the sitter at the door and tells her to "feed the kids something and put them in bed when they look tired." When she is half out the door she remembers that "Susie is next door and Debbie is out in the neighborhood someplace."

When you go to the kitchen you find the sink filled with dirty dishes. You have to wash plates to give the children their supper. Why she worries about a sitter eating her out of house and home, I wouldn't know, because there's nothing much in her refrigerator. She forgets to leave a calling number and if you needed her in an emergency it would be just too bad.

She promises to be home by midnight, but something always happens to detain her until 2:30—or later. When she goes to pay you she discovers she has nothing smaller than a $20 bill so she owes you till next time.

And these are the women who complain the loudest about sitters. —FULL UP

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a working man and we are in modest circumstances. Our daughter is marrying a fine young fellow in January and we want to give her as pretty a wedding as we can afford.

We have planned a church ceremony and a dinner for relatives and close friends only. The groom's mother sent her list yesterday and we almost fainted. She had 220. We kept our list down to 45.

When I phoned to express surprise at the size of her family she explained that her family is rather small and that most of the people on the list are her husband's customers.

We hate to have trouble at the outset, but we can't afford dinner for a crowd like this. What shall we do?—DISTRESSED

Dear Distressed: You are paying for the dinner and it is your prerogative to decide how far you want to go.

Since these people wish to use the wedding as a business booster suggest they give a reception after the honeymoon. They can then invite the whole town if they wish.

For now, explain that their list must be pared to 35—which gives them 10 more than you have.

Dear Ann Landers: Will you please print your opinion of a woman who is past 40 years of age and is still wearing her high school class ring? She wears her wedding band and diamond ring on one hand the class ring on the other.

I say this is just plain corny. What do you say? — ONE OF THE GANG

Dear One: It doesn't bother me a bit. Why are you so excited? Apparently this woman attaches a great deal of sentiment to her class ring, which strikes me as a pretty good reason for wearing it.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you write for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cuban Note Blames U.S. For Guantanamo Killing

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba officially accused the United States today of killing a Cuban worker at Guantanamo Naval Base and demanded that American officers be delivered to Cuban authorities for trial for the crime.

In a note delivered to the Czechoslovak Embassy in Washington for transmission to the State Department, Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa declared the American base in Cuba "is a constant source of provocations" threatening international peace and the independence of Cuba.

The note repeated past assertions that Cuba is not planning to seize the base by force but "will reconquer full sovereignty over it through international right when the moment is ripe."

The Cuban press and some officials reported last week that Ruben Lopez Sabaniego was arrested and tortured to death at Guantanamo because of his leanings toward Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Protest meetings have been held in several Cuban cities. Castro announced last week he was giving Lopez' widow a pension. Workers were asked to contribute one penny each to build her and her nine children a house.

U.S. officials have reported that Lopez' body was found inside the base a few days ago and that an investigation was being made.

'Insanity' Plea Pushed

A defense of insanity was being presented Tuesday morning on behalf of E. Gail Osborn, on trial in circuit court for the crime of obtaining money and property by false pretenses.

Osborn, 40-year-old former Klamath Falls civic leader, is accused of passing a worthless $20 check on July 15 to Jack Bachman of the Sunrise Service Station at the corner of Main and East Main streets. Osborn first pleaded guilty but was allowed to withdraw his plea for one of not guilty by reason of insanity. Two psychiatrists have been subpoenaed by the defense.

District Attorney Dale T. Crabtree finished the state's case in short order Monday. He called Arthur Page, Mrs. Clea Wachter and Bachman as witnesses to testify that Osborn passed the check and that he had no valid bank account.

Although Osborn can be charged with passing only one check, Crabtree has said Osborn passed 26 checks totaling more than $2,000 between the summer of 1960 and the summer of 1961.

Osborn, a former insurance salesman, won the Klamath Jaycees' distinguished service award in 1954.

Colored slides from foreign lands, taken in Italy by Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, Mrs. Loren Palmerton and Mrs. Olive Corne, delighted members of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club at the Oct. 19 luncheon meeting at the Winema Hotel. The slides were shown with commentary by Mrs. Juckeland who visited recently in Europe. Ellen Clark was program chairman.

Vera Powell who has been ill in a San Francisco hospital was welcomed back. The attendance prize was won by Frances Anderson.

The son and daughter of the commanding officer of the U.S. radar base at nearby Lowther, Maj. Arthur Fox of Chicago, were killed. Melvyn Fox, 11, and his sister Karen, 12, were sitting in the front passenger seat. Their brother Gregory was among the injured.

John Morgan, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morgan, who come from Wisconsin, died in a hospital here during the night.

Five of the injured children were flown to the hospital at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Akron, Ohio. They are Lagry Brown, 10; Debbie Stuland, 8; Jean and Joe Swain, both 7; and Michael Newcomb, 11.

City police arrested Peter McSwain, 18, and said he admitted drinking beer with a companion but would not say where they got the beer. Police could not locate the companion.

McSwain forfeited $25 bail Monday morning by failing to appear for scheduled municipal court.

Former Air Policeman Gets 18-Month Sentence

Frankie Joe Berry, 26-year-old former Air Force policeman, was sentenced to 18 months in the Oregon State Penitentiary Monday by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg.

Berry was convicted of larceny in a building last Wednesday by a circuit court jury following a three-day trial. He was found guilty of stealing part of a coin changing machine containing about $40 on July 27 from the Econ-O-Wash Laundromat, 3622 South Sixth Street.

The defense attorney asked Judge Vandenberg to consider probation but the judge assessed the same penalty that was given on Sept. 5 to an accomplice, Charles R. Hoxie, 24. Hoxie pleaded guilty and was returned from the penitentiary to testify against Berry.

Notice of appeal was given by the defense attorney. No grounds were given but the attorney had moved for a directed verdict of acquittal during the trial on the grounds that Berry could not legally be convicted on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice. Judge Vandenberg had denied the motion.

Both Berry and Hoxie were formerly stationed at Kingsley Field.

Adenauer Outlines Berlin Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy received a message from Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany today outlining the German position on the Berlin problem.

Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe delivered it in a one-hour conference at the White House. He said afterward the letter was an answer to the message Kennedy sent to the chancellor earlier this month.

Grewe declined to reveal the contents of the message brought back over the weekend after a 10-day trip to Bonn and a visit to West Berlin.

He said he would spell out the German position at a meeting of the Western ambassadorial steering group later at the State Department.

Grewe was asked about reports Adenauer wants to visit Kennedy as soon as possible.

"It is a little too early to talk about that," he replied. "We can talk about it when he (Adenauer) is elected, which is very likely."

In that comment he was referring to the negotiations going on in West Germany for creation of a coalition government in the wake of elections which cost Adenauer his full command of Parliament.

Grewe said he is more hopeful now that the Western allies can hammer out a common position on Berlin.

But, he added, there is no basis for optimism "because we do not yet see any change in the position of the Soviets."

ICC Hears Boxcar Lack

SALEM (AP)—There is a critical shortage of railroad boxcars in Western lumber areas, Gov. Mark O. Hatfield said in a telegram Monday to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

He blamed Eastern railroads for the shortage.

The governor's message to Everett Hutchinson, ICC chairman, said the shortage is causing hardships.

He said the major need is for wide and double door boxcars. Those cars owned by Western railroads, the governor said he had been advised, are being held in the East in violation of ICC rules.

One of the reasons, he said, is that this enables Eastern roads to put off repairing their own cars.

He said the ICC ought to investigate misuse of Western equipment and order return of cars needed in the West.

Ambassador Fights With Landlady Over Renovating Plush Apartment

NEW YORK (AP)—C. S. Jha, Indian ambassador to the United Nations, and his wife have moved out of their $1,000-a-month 10-room apartment—at least for the moment.

"For three years in that house," Madama Jha said Monday, "I have not known any peace."

"I'm being victimized," said the landlady, Betty Roberts, adding that she is writing to President Kennedy about it.

CD Office Move Noted

Erwin M. (Joe) Searles, county-city Civil Defense director, announced Monday that his office will be in the Red Cross Office in the county library during construction of the Klamath County Courthouse addition.

Searles formerly shared a basement office with the courthouse custodian but excavation noise last week became so intense that the CD director arranged for new headquarters.

Phone number of the CD office remains TU 2-2501, Ext. 260.

Odd Fellows Stage Feed

Klamath Falls Odd Fellows will stage their annual pancake and ham dinner from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, at the IOOF Hall, Fifth and Main, to benefit the lodge's United Nations Youth Pilgrimage benefit.

The public is invited to the feed which is the local IOOF's only fund raising project for the Pilgrimage which annually sends outstanding young people to visit America's historical shrines and view the United Nations in action.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCormack, Pilgrimage chairman, are handling the arrangements. McCormack annually serves as chef for the occasion. Both Rebekahs and Odd Fellows will serve.
