NCAA Proceeds With Sport Plan

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National College Athletic Association (NCAA) today boldly went ahead with its plan for reorganization of amateur sports in the United States despite opposition from the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).

The NCAA's policy - directing council Monday approved and endorsed special and executive committee reports that call for a drastic change in the control of

L'Jacks Next Foe For Owls

There are only three games left on the Oregon Tech football schedule this season and not one of them promises to be easy, coach Rex Hunsaker told members of the Owl Hoots Monday night.

The Owls, 3-3 for the season, open the final third of their '61 campaign this Saturday night at Arcata, Calif., where they tangle with the powerful Humboldt State Lumberjacks. They follow up at home the next week when they host Oregon College in a Saturday afternoon homecoming game at Modoc, then close at home against Klamath Union on Oct. 29.

Their first target, the Lumberjacks, are running second to big Sacramento State in the Far West Conference with a 2-1 win-loss record. Their league defeat was handed them by Sacto two weeks ago.

Hunsaker commented, however, and his sentiments were echoed by defensive halfback Wayne Dennis and tackle Jim Madden, outstanding Owls in the loss to SOC. "If we can get the same effort we had against Southern Oregon last Saturday, and get our offense to 'go,' we might pull a surprise."

The players attended the meeting as guests of the Owl Hoots and the Broiler for their work at SOC.

Dennis is a freshman KUHHS graduate, "who is rapidly developing into a fine football player," according to defensive coach George Miller. Miller also praised Madden as the "best tackle, on both offense and defense, we've had in a long time."

In commenting on the loss to SOC, Hunsaker said, "We figured that the game would be decided by the extra point... and it would have been had we been able to score. We never really believed we would hold the Raiders to one touchdown. I'm proud of the team for the effort they put forth. Our mistake was an 'overcharging' type—and you don't chew a boy for making those."

Rodriguez, of San Anselmo, Calif., took the edge in the September bout by jabbing and running. He didn't have enough room to run Monday night, as Olson took charge aggressively in the early rounds.

Bobo, cheered lustily by a crowd of 3,000, had his opponent reeling in the fifth and seventh rounds but there were no knockdowns. Olson came into the bout at 178 pounds, while Rodriguez weighed 177.

All three officials scored the battle in favor of Olson. Referee Tony Bosnich carded it 4-1, judge Vern Bybee had it 6-2, and judge Frankie Carter voted 4-2.

GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE

By Bing

Is spaghetti a type of spaghetti, or is macaroni a type of spaghetti? The confusion of Italian food will have no difficulty with this matter. Both macaroni and spaghetti are members of the "pasta" family. The term "pasta" applies to all types of food made from wheat flour, water and—far superior—eggs. The reason for the many varieties of pasta (there are over 150 different types) is that pasta is always served with a sauce, and the sauce you use generally determines the kind of pasta. Generally speaking, there are four types of pasta: rope or string pasta, tubular pasta, envelope pasta, ribbon pasta and fancy novelty pasta (for example, alphabet soup).

New League To Discuss Scheduling

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Officials from the six schools that will comprise the new Western Athletic Conference were expected to discuss scheduling problems for the league today.

Paul Brechler, at present commissioner of the Skyline Conference and future Western Conference commissioner, said Monday representatives will plan complete schedules for all sports with conference championships except football next year.

Representatives met in private Monday to talk over rules and regulations for the league. Details of the session were secret, and members explained that the athletic code would be released after it was approved by the presidents of the six institutions.

The presidents are expected to meet in December to consider what faculty representatives and athletic directors come up with at this building.

Possible expansion in the league probably was discussed today, but representatives also kept silent on this.

Brechler said representatives wanted a conference "with high academic standards making certain that athletes maintain certain grade averages and also take—and pass—a minimum number of hours."

It has been the policy of the club during the 1961 sports season thus far to stage special programs at each of its sessions.

While the exact nature of the program slated this week has not been revealed, it is expected that Williams and his aides will present a rundown of weekend Pelican prospects at Central Point where they meet the Crater Comets in the final regular season game.

Ancient Presents Apology

BALTIMORE (AP) — After knocking down Pete Rademacher eight times en route to a six-round technical knockout Monday night, ancient Archie Moore apologized for not putting on "a more classic performance."

"I tried, but this man is a very awkward fighter," Moore said. "It's hard to hit him with one of those clean, classic punches that people like to see. I couldn't get a clean shot at him."

But Moore landed lots of more common punches as he floored Rademacher once in the fourth round, five times in the fifth, and twice more in the sixth before referee Benny Goldstein mercifully ended the one-sided bout at 2:10.

Moore, the recognized light heavyweight champion in New York, Massachusetts and Europe, fought at 198, well over the 175-pound limit in the scheduled 10-round non-title bout.

The first three rounds were dull and drew boos from the Coliseum crowd of 3,860 which contributed to a net gate of $10,418.

Midway through the fourth, Rademacher bounced off the ropes and took Moore to the floor amid flailing arms and legs. Archie looked up in disgust, mumbled something as he arose, and before the round was over Rademacher was well on the way to defeat.

Rademacher, at 33, is some 11 to 14 years younger than Moore. Moore said he would fight another heavyweight bout before deciding "once and for all" whether to continue as a light heavy. He will meet with Montreal promoters Thursday to discuss a possible bout with Bob Cleroux, the heavyweight champion of Canada.

Harold Johnson now holds the National Boxing Association version of the light heavyweight title, and Moore has whipped him four times in five bouts.

Would he like to take on Johnson again? "When Johnson gets down to business and puts up his certified check, he'll have the chance of getting a good fight," Moore said. "So far, he's just been talking."

Brave, Solon ERA Leaders

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn of Milwaukee and Dick Donovan of Washington are the major league's earned run leaders for 1961.

Spahn gave up 88 earned runs in 263 innings for a 3.01 mark, the highest ever for a National League leader.

The veteran left-hander also won the title in 1947 and 1953.
