Nile Club Meeting Set

Klamath Falls Zulema Nile Club will meet at a regular 1 o'clock luncheon on Wednesday, Nov. 1, at the Winema Hotel. This will be a Thanksgiving meeting. The Thanksgiving Box will be packed and sent to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Portland this month. Frances Kalina, chairman, reminds members to bring donations which this year will be jams and jellies. The box is a traditional annual gift to the hospital from this club.

The sewing group, headed by Delight Hicks and assisted by Helen Hales, will also send a box of useful garments to the hospital.

Besides these projects a Christmas box of toys and gifts will be forwarded to the children in December. Billie Balsiger is in charge of these donations.

As in the past, booths, bargains and food will be found to please all ages. Doors will open at 7 p.m. Part of the funds derived from the carnival are used each year for scholarships. —Photo by Kettler

We The Women Let The Poor Fellow Read This Paper In Peace

Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

This "togetherness" kick the women's magazines are on doesn't show any sign of letting up.

In a recent issue of one such magazine there is this bit of advice to young husbands: "Please don't bury your nose in a newspaper. News is something that can be shared."

Just how is the young husband supposed to go about sharing the news? Is he supposed to hold his wife on his lap while he reads aloud to her, so she won't feel left out while he concentrates on the daily paper?

Or is he supposed to ignore the paper and learn only as much of the day's happenings as he can get from a TV newscast sandwiched in between commercials. "I'll be back in a moment, but first a word from our sponsor..."

Or would it be better if he ignored the news altogether, being content just to sit and listen while his wife gives him an account of her day?

Or would it be allowable for him to say to his wife, "Honey, when you're ready to read the paper, let me know and we'll divide it. You know I wouldn't want to sit down and read until you can..."

Of course, not many husbands

the idea that George or Bill or Jim is being downright selfish to come home at night, grab the newspaper and act for all the world as though world news was more important than news of the neighborhood as reported by their wives.
