

God Not Always On West's Side; Says Dean In Anti-Commie Speech

WASHINGTON (AP)—A prominent Protestant said today that while "we are opposed to communism as a faith and as an ideology and as a political system," it is a "covert idolatry" to assume that God is always on the West's side in the cold war.

The Rev. John C. Bennett, dean of the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary, New York City, made his comments in a speech for the 34th annual conference of the Catholic Association for International Peace.

Speaking of possible success against communism, the seminary dean said: "The fact that the United States is a status quo nation, fearful of radical change and influenced by a large body of opinion that is still committed to an uncritical capitalistic ideology is one of the greatest obstacles to the success of the Free World in upholding its own against communism."

"The utterly self-defeating character of the intransigent forms of conservative anticommunism in this country is amazing to contemplate."

In stating that it should not be assumed that God is always on the West's side, Dr. Bennett said: "It is our temptation to assume that, because our opponents are atheists, God must be on our side, and to overlook the extent to which communism itself is a judgment upon the sins and failures of the middle class world, upon the Christian world."

"The very atheism of communism is a judgment upon the churches which for so long were unconcerned about the victims of the industrial revolution and early capitalism and which have usually been ornaments of the status quo, no matter how unjust it has been."

Dr. Bennett added: "The temptation to turn the cold war into a holy crusade is ever with us and in so far as we yield to it and make impossible the tolerable and humaneness which must yet come into international relations if there is to be a future for mankind."

Dr. Bennett differed with those who would rule out coexistence with communism. "Their view of the cold war," he said, "will almost certainly lead to hot war and to the nuclear catastrophe which will add to the victims of tyranny scores and perhaps hundreds of millions of new victims."

"We will do what we can to keep any Communist nation from imposing communism upon any other nations," Dr. Bennett said, adding: "What hope we have for the people in the Soviet Union or in China must be hope for developments within their societies, not hope that we may be able to displace communism in either country by an external attack or by encouraging counterrevolution."

Welfare Chief Defends Nursing Group Speech

SALEM (AP) — Dr. Ennis Keizer, chairman of the State Welfare Commission, said today that remarks he made in Redmond that were called intemperate and prejudiced by Sen. Robert Straub, D-Eugene, had been misconstrued when they were reported.

Dr. Keizer, North Bend physician, said he only used a hypothetical explanation to explain the law under which the State Welfare Commission works in a speech to the State Nursing Home Association in Redmond.

Straub quoted Keizer as saying that an 83-year-old welfare recipient was operated on for a hernia when he would have been as well off with a less expensive truss.

Straub said Dr. Keizer called this a flagrant abuse and asked: "How does Dr. Keizer know that this is an abuse?"

Keizer said he wrote Sen. Straub asking if they could meet so he could obtain Straub's help on the problems faced in providing medical care for welfare recipients.

Keizer explained that under the law the commission is allowed to provide only the minimum adequate medical care.

"I was only trying to point up the law that if the commission is to provide full care then the law must be changed," Keizer said.

In his letter to Gov. Mark Hatfield in which Straub registered the criticism of Keizer he said: "It would seem to me that Dr. Keizer, rather than criticizing the

Ivie Funeral Held Friday

Services were held Friday, Oct. 27 from the First Baptist Church for Mrs. Sarah Anne Ivie who died Oct. 25 at the family home in Wocus. She had been ill for several months.

She was born Sarah Anne Baldock, June 23, 1908, at Burden, Kans., and was married in 1927 to Joe Ivie. The family has lived in Klamath County since 1937. She was an active member of First Baptist Church.

Survivors include the widower, Joe, Route 3, sons, Willard, Wesley, Jim, Victor and Don, all of Klamath Falls; daughters, Ledema Hartley, Denver, and Martha Bishop, McKenzie Bridge, Ore.; brothers, James Baldock, Lorella, Harry Baldock, Mulvane, Kans.; father, Harry V. Baldock, Lorella; also six grandchildren.

Ward's Klamath Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Those wishing to do so may give contributions to the local cancer society.

Ex-Resident Buried Here

Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, in Linkville Cemetery for Mrs. Libby J. Blackman, a former resident of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Blackman died in an Alameda hospital Oct. 25. She had lived in that city for about 15 years.

During her long residence here she was employed in the hospitals as a practical nurse. She was a member of Neighbors of Woodcraft.

Survivors include a daughter, Alice L. Parks, this city and a son, Robert D. Blackman, Alameda; also one grandchild.

SHASTA DRIVE-IN OPEN 6:45 SHOW 7:00
THURSDAY - FRIDAY - SATURDAY
The funniest discovery since laughter!
ALL ABOUT A SCRAMBLED EGGHEAD, FLUBBER (the GOO that Flew) and FLYING FLIVVERS!
The Absent-minded Professor
FRED McMURRAY - NANCY OLSON - KEENAN WYNN - TOMMY KIRK
HANDLED BY SCOTT MAYO
FURY...on the Stagecoach Run
WESTBOUND
WARNER-COLOR • STEELE • DANIE

TOWER Doors Open Tonight 6:45 Continuous Shows Sat. & Sun. From 12:45
LAST 2 DAYS!
PATRICK O'BRIEN
BATTLE OF BLOOD BEACH
MURPHY CROSBY
CINEMASCOPE MICHAEL'S

SUNDAY
The happy, true, and wonderfully uplifting story of the beautiful girl who left her convent to give her love to a man—and her songs to the world...
THE TRAPP FAMILY
COLOR BY DE LUXE

OLE REX in Eastman COLOR Starring REX and introducing BILLY HUGHES

Cookie Jar Bank Robbed By Husband

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: Do I have the right to walk out on my husband? Here's the story:
Scotty and I have been married for six years. We have two children. I've worked part-time as a waitress and have made good money.
Down at the plant where Scotty works there is always a floating crap game. When we got married he promised he'd stay out of the games, and he's been pretty good about it.
I've been saving my tips for almost two years so we could buy a new car. Last week when I counted the money there was over $1,000 in the cookie tin. Tonight I went to add another $15 and the tin was empty. Scotty admitted that he felt awfully lucky yesterday and took the money. Of course he lost it.
Am I justified in leaving him?
—FAYE
Dear Faye: A woman who is so stupid she would leave $1,000 in a cookie tin deserves what you got.
Of course your husband did a rotten thing, but what would he have gained by leaving him? You would succeed only in depriving your children of a father. Have you ever heard of a bank?

Halloween Dance Set

The Klamath Falls Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, and Women of the Moose with funds granted by the American Recording Industry, the Klamath Sheriff's Office, Herald and News, Jerry's Drive Inn, Schulze Tire Service, Ralph's Gun Shop, Nyback's Flower Fair, Marguerite, C. P. and W. W. Ward, Specialized Service, Motor Machine Service and Balsiger Motors will again sponsor the annual Youth Honor Day Halloween Dance.
Dancing will be Tuesday, Oct. 31, at the Klamath Falls Auditorium (former armory) from 8 p.m. to midnight. Music will be by the Starlighters.
Melvin J. Robinson and Raymond Jump are co-chairmen.
Admittance to the dance will be by pledge cards, to be distributed in the high schools of the city and county.
Pledge cards read: "I Pledge on my honor as a citizen of my community, not to deface, mutilate or destroy property or perform any act, harmful to others during the Halloween season."
Dear Ann Landers: During the month of July I went to visit my cousin. She is exactly my age, 15, and I had not seen her for six years.
I planned to stay there two weeks but seven days was all I could take. Karen smokes and drinks. Her friends are rough-necks who drive wild and use bad language. She never cleaned her room once in the week I was there. When her mother mentioned it she told her to "Shut up."
Yesterday I received a letter from Karen saying she wants to spend Christmas vacation with me. I don't want her here. What shall I do?—NO KISSIN' KIN
Dear Kin: Say No. Since it's apparent you have little in common with this girl why try to entertain her? She wouldn't fit in with your friends any better than you fit in with hers.
Dear Ann Landers: What do you think should be done in a case like this? I've never heard of a similar incident so we have nothing to go by.
Our daughter was asked to be a bridesmaid by a very close friend. All the plans for the wedding were set and the five bridesmaids ordered their dresses and headpieces and had their slippers dyed to match their gowns. The bride, of course, selected everything and as is the custom, each bridesmaid paid for her own outfit.
Yesterday (ten days before the wedding) the bride's fiance got his army orders and the couple decided to call off the marriage. The bridesmaids are stuck with their outfits. Do you feel they should ask the bride to reimburse them?—P. H. E.
Dear P.H.E.: It would be generous indeed if the bride offered, but since no offer was made, it should not be suggested.
A seamstress can remake a bridesmaid's dress so that it can be used as a party gown. The investment is not totally lost.
Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Death Toll Climbs High

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oregon's highway death toll, climbing alarmingly toward a record pace, reached 402 Thursday when a truck driver was killed in an accident about five miles south of Ashland.
The victim was Jack Arthur Kennedy, 36, Cottage Grove, whose truck-trailer overturned as it descended from Siskiyou Summit on Highway 99.
The brakes on the vehicle apparently failed, state police said, and an attempt to stop the truck by running it into a roadbank was unsuccessful. Kennedy was crushed to death, police said.
Earlier Thursday, John L. Crawford, 40, was killed when struck by an auto as he crossed a rain-swept street in Tillamook.
The death toll in 1960, Oregon's all-time worst year, reached 402 at the end of October. The total at the end of that year was 497.

Esquire NOW SHOWING!
IT PROBES THE STRANGER... THE PICK-UP... THE SAVAGE REALITIES OF LIFE AND LOVE!
Herald and News
Klamath Falls, Oregon
Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California
Published daily (except Sat.) and Sunday by Klamath Publishing Company
Main at Esplanade Phone TU 4-4111
W. B. SWEETLAND, Publisher
Entered as second class matter at the post office at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on August 20, 1906, under act of Congress, March 3, 1879. Second-class postage paid at Klamath Falls, Oregon, and at additional mailing offices.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Carrier: 1 Month $1.75, 4 Months $10.50, 1 Year $21.00
Mail in Advance: 1 Month $1.75, 4 Months $10.50, 1 Year $21.00
Carrier and Dealers: Wednesday & Sunday, COPY 10c
UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS
AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION
Subscribers not receiving delivery of their Herald and News, please phone News Center, Circulation Manager, TU 4-4111 before 7 P.M.

MEDO-BEL All-Jersey DAIRY PRODUCTS
Now In Our New Home
1114 EAST MAIN STREET
MEDO-BEL All-Jersey Dairy Products
NOW at 1114 E. Main

Jury Finds Low Guilty Of Attack On Schuss

Cecil A. Low Jr., 29-year-old Klamath Falls railroad worker, was found guilty of assault and battery Thursday afternoon by a district court jury in connection with an alleged Sept. 26 attack on Charlie Schuss, owner of the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, 630 Main Street.
The jury, three men and three women, deliberated only 20 minutes before returning a unanimous guilty verdict. Low will be sentenced next Thursday morning by District Judge Hal F. Coe.
Low, 4329 Greensprings Drive, was accused of punching Schuss in the mouth in a criminal complaint signed by Schuss. Police said eight stitches were taken to close a cut on Schuss' mouth after the incident.
Deputy District Attorney J. R. (Bob) Thomas called Schuss; Mrs. Ruth Tadlock, cocktail waitress, and Austin Willey, bartender, as state witnesses. Their story was that Low was "whooping and hollering" and while he danced in the Bronco Room, the bar and dance floor part of the Chuck Wagon. Schuss said he asked Low to leave.
Low; his wife, JoAnne, and Mrs. Anita Book testified for the defense. Low said he was dancing with Mrs. Book. Other people were "hollering and stomping." Low said, so he gave forth with a couple of "yahos." He said Schuss grabbed him and told him to leave. As he was walking out, Low said he had a conversation with Schuss during which time Schuss called him a dirty name. Low said he retaliated by hitting Schuss.
Another charge, disorderly conduct, is pending in municipal court against Low. City police allege that he resisted arrest the same night.

BOGATAY'S 3rd ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL
MENS Roblee & Pedwin DRESS SHOES
Reg. to 16.99 10⁸⁸
Anniversary Special!
Buy Now --- Save At BOGATAY'S 617 MAIN

NOW PLAYING
"THE MANDRAKES"
This exceptional group features Jim Mandrake at the "stand-up" piano, Ed Seymour alternating bass and amplified guitar and Bob Couture on drums... wonderful entertainment, vocals and instrumentals! They come to Klamath Falls from a successful 15-weeks at the Portland Club, Portland.
PONDEROSA ROOM
NOTICE: Our Paul Bunyan Coffee Shop is Now Open at 4 A.M. for Hunter's Breakfast!
WILLARD HOTEL

Cadillac
You could buy it for safety alone!
It's the dark of the night—and an unfamiliar turn lies in wait.
Suddenly, at the gesture of the turn signal, the whole area is bathed in a brilliant flood of light—and the driver negotiates the corner smoothly, surely and safely.
This is Cadillac's new cornering light in action. And it is yet another reason why owners tell us the car is worth its whole price in safety.
Consider, for a moment, the safeguards that attend you in this latest "car of cars" ... design and construction so sound that you travel the highway in a veritable fortress of steel ... craftsmanship of such care that the car approaches the absolute in dependability ... performance that is so rewarding and so effortless that the driver remains fresh and alert at the wheel over even the longest day's drive ... a dual braking system that gives both front and rear wheels their own power to stop ... safety power steering ... padded instrument panel ... three phase rear lighting system ... and a myriad of other features.
If you haven't driven a 1962 Cadillac, you've been missing something very special.
You can buy the car just for safety, if you wish. But you'll also discover a dozen other wonderful reasons for wanting to make it yours.
VISIT YOUR LOCAL AUTHORIZED CADILLAC DEALER
DICK B. MILLER COMPANY
710 KLAMATH AVE. PHONE TU 4-4154
FOR SIXTY YEARS THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD