

Kay Shoop-Daniel Nork Wed In Nuptial Mass

Kay Shoop and Daniel A. Nork, chrysanthemums and pompons, provided a pretty setting for the double ring rites. Bows of the same shades marked the pews along the aisle along which the bride was escorted by her father.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shoop. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. June Nork and the late Ben Nork. Fall colors, bronze and yellow chose a white satin brocade gown styled along princess lines, bejeweled with pearl drops scattered on the bodice and outlining the bateau neckline and pointed sleeves. A bustle effect gave interest to the back of the full skirt which ended in a chapel train. Pearls outlined the satin leaves of the lace caplet with fans of pleated tulle which held the elbow length veil of English silk illusion. She carried a white orchid with streamers of stephanotis and ribbon.

The bridegroom's niece, Pauline Herlihy, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Selma Matson and Mary Herlihy, also a niece of the bridegroom. They were dressed alike in mint green satin brocade sheaths with matching slippers and pill box hats with brief stand-out veils. The honor attendant's flowers were bronze chrysanthemums, accented with yellow. Those of the bridesmaids were yellow with bronze contrast.

Valerie Utley, flower girl, wore a short white dotted Swiss frock and headband of bronze and yellow flowers. She carried a basket of bronze petals. Kevin Taylor was the ringbearer. The young attendants are niece and nephew of the bride.

James Nork of Bonanza was best man for his brother. Guests were seated by Kermit Taylor, brother-in-law of the bride, and Gary Attwood.

Mrs. Shoop was dressed for the occasion in a beige satin sheath with brown accessories. Mrs. Nork chose a pink lace over gray taffeta with pink accessories. Pink rosebuds corsages complimented both ensembles.

The reception was held in the parish hall following the ceremony. On the lace covered bride's table was the three tiered cake decorated with yellow flowers and topped with yellow bells. Serving the cake were the bride's sister, Mrs. Ralph Utley, and her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Heim. Another sister, Mrs. Kermit Taylor, poured punch. Presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. Bruce Quinn. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Joseph Reidt.

The newlyweds chose a trip along the California coast for their honeymoon. For traveling, the new Mrs. Nork changed to a blue wool suit with blue feather hat and black accessories. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and her husband of Bonanza High School. They are residing at 323 East Main Street.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Heim and Mrs. Ronald Bingenheimer, all of Portland; Mrs. Eugene Hutchison and Sherry, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Westhouse, Laura and James, Dorris; Mrs. Keith Hoffman, Cottage Grove; Lori and Rauni Parrish, McKenzie River.

Ehrmantrout-Rotrock Vows Are Solemnized

The marriage of Charlene Rae Rotrock and Gary Ehrmantrout was solemnized in a single ring ceremony Oct. 7 in the First Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Robert C. Groves.

The 3 o'clock candlelight service was read before a background of salmon pink gladioli and bronze rubicon pompons.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Rotrock of Ore Tech, was given in marriage by her father. She chose for her wedding a ballerina length gown of white peau de soie with scoop neckline trimmed with Alencon lace and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. From the basque bodice fell a flared semi-circular bouffant skirt that featured a bustle bow in back. A short veil was held in place by a clip-on headpiece of Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a Bible arrangement centered with a white cattleya orchid surrounded by white feathered chrysanthemum petals. The Bible was a gift of the bride's parents.

The bride's sole attendant was her twin sister, Kay Rotrock, maid of honor. Her short princess style frock was of gold satin fashioned with rolled collar and bell sleeves. Matching headpiece, slippers and a nosegay of bronze pompons completed her ensemble.

Marlene and Rory Boyle, twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boyle, were candlelighters. She was dressed in a short champagne colored organza dress with headband and wristlet of rubicon chrysanthemums in fall hues.

Mrs. Rotrock selected for her daughter's wedding a beige lace sheath with matching accessories and gold-tone orchid corsage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ehrmantrout of Brownsville, who were present for their son's wedding. Mrs. Ehrmantrout chose a two-piece gold wool dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was made of chartreuse orchids.

Phil Rychard of Lakeview was best man and ushers were Richard Rossi of McCloud and Phil

Students Wed In Reno Rites

DUNSMUIR—Of special interest in college circles is the wedding of Patricia Ann McEnerney of Dunsmuir and James W. Cunningham of Weed in Reno recently. Both are students at Chico State.

The bride wore a magenta colored suit with pink accessories and a corsage of white orchids for the late afternoon rites before Justice of the Peace Beeman. Her sole attendant, Susan Thom of Dunsmuir, also a student at Chico State, wore a green sheath frock with matching accessories and a natural orchid corsage.

Joey Belcastro of Weed served as best man.

Dunsmuir wedding guest included Mr. and Mrs. Duke Hamilton, Katherine Nelson and Mrs. Ella Vaughn, grandmother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McEnerney of Dunsmuir. For the wedding, Mrs. McEnerney wore a tweed suit with pink accessories and a corsage of roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gliesse G. Cunningham are the parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. Cunningham donned a beige costume suit with tangerine accessories and a corsage of roses for the Reno ceremony.

The wedding reception was held at the Holiday Inn in Reno where Bill diCristina, formerly of Dunsmuir and a family friend, served as host. A decorated wedding cake and appropriate refreshments were served.

TO SPEAK — Ralph J. Miles, assistant special agent of the Portland FBI office, will be featured speaker at the Monday meeting of Eulalona Chapter, DAR, in the city library auditorium at 8 p.m.

DAR Slates FBI Speaker

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, extends an invitation to the public to attend the Monday evening, Oct. 30, meeting to hear Ralph J. Miles, assistant special agent in charge of the Portland FBI office. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the city library auditorium.

The speaker's topic, "Little Known Functions of the FBI," promises an interesting evening.
