Baby Shower
MALIN—Pink and blue were the colors used to decorate for the baby shower Friday evening, Sept. 22, at the Malin Community Hall, honoring Mrs. Jim Johnson.
Assisting Mrs. Johnson at the gift table were Mrs. Kenny Steyskal and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jim Havlina.
Mrs. Ben Johnson presided at the coffee service and punch was served by the honoree's mother, Mrs. Chester Havlina.
Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Ron McVay, Mrs. Dale Rick, Mrs. Dick Reeves and Mrs. Jerry Smalley.

OES Honors Star Points
MAIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 160 honored star point officers Thursday, Oct. 12, at a regular meeting with Barbara and Bob Victorin presiding in the East as worthy matron and worthy patron. Introduced and escorted were Frances Kalina, member of Estar Fund Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, and Elmer Vincent, worthy patron of Manzanita No. 172, Klamath Falls.
The worthy matron presented Frances Kalina with a beautiful corsage which was highlighted with several Estar stamps. A report was given on the functions of the Estar Committee by Mrs. Kalina who was making her official visit to Prosperity Chapter. Estar represents Eastern Star Training Awards in religious leadership and last year at the grand chapter session 28 scholarships were awarded.
An addendum was presented in honor of star point officers Marie Hale, Patty Schmidt, Pat Otoman, Dorothy Hile and Jean McFall. Each was presented a booklet depicting the story of her respective station as Worthy Matron Barbara Victorin read appropriate verses of presentation. A report was given on a recent visit of several members to Concordia Chapter, Madras, where Abby and John Herringshaw are worthy matron and worthy patron. It was reported also that a group of members had danced the Beseda at Myrtle Creek to honor Virginia Wright, grand conductress, at her reception.
Thanks were extended by the worthy matron and Pat Graham, mother adviser of Malin Assembly No. 49, to those assisting in the Rainbow hayride. Refreshments were served at the community hall following the hayride.
Refreshments were served by Edna Hunnicutt and Mary Sharp and a birthday contribution toward the Estar fund was made by members having birthdays in July, August, September and October.

JEWELRY FLATTERY
Choose your jewelry to enhance your skin tone. Gold, for instance, is ideal if your complexion has a creamy tone. If there is a good deal of pink in your skin, however, silver will flatter it and even tan down a ruddy complexion.

Newlyweds Are Honored

In honor of their brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gale Bennett, Mrs. A. C. Sparks and Mrs. R. P. Eastman entertained friends and relatives at a reception at the Eastman home on Oct. 9.
A lovely centerpiece of pink and white carnations decorated the table and the bride was presented a pink rosbud corsage. Guests were served wedding cake, punch and coffee.
The wedding of the former Mary Jane Tavares, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Tavares of Kalaboo, Kauai, and Cecil Bennett took place at Holy Cross Church in Kalaboo. A reception was held at Green Gardens, Kauai.
The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Glenn White of this city and the late Cecil L. Bennett.
For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of imported white Chantilly lace with short box pleated skirt and a satin bow accenting the low dipping back waistline. A pearl halo cap held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white cattleya orchids, carnations and ivy. Gift of the bridegroom was a string of pearls and matching earrings.
