

MUSTANGS ROLL — The Malin Mustangs whipped the Sacred Heart Academy Trojans 27 to 6 Saturday afternoon, winding up the conference season for both teams. At left, Jerry Morris leads the offensive charge as Nick Johnson plunged over from the three for the first Mustang counter. Big question here is, where is the ball? Canter, the Trojans fight for a forward pass as Dan Duncan attempts to break it up. At right, Bob Steyskal lugs the ball for Malin, capping a 55-yard drive by smashing over from the three. At right, Jim Kolkow moves in to give extra blocking while on the ground. Verne Cox (73) has moved out would-be defenders. Both Malin and Sacred Heart have a season conference mark of 3-1. Chiloquin can catch up if they beat Merrill in their game next Friday. A win for the Panthers would throw the conference into a three-way tie.

Sonny Jurgensen, who collected splinters and experience while Norm Van Brocklin was directing the Philadelphia Eagles, has stepped in to guide the defending National Football League champions to the top of the Eastern Conference.

The 27-year-old former Duke standout passed the Eagles into sole possession of first place in the East Sunday with a three-touchdown performance—the last a 41-yard heave to Tommy McDonald with 16 seconds remaining to beat the upstart Washington Redskins 27-24.

The TD toss to McDonald was Jurgensen's 14th of the season—top mark in the league—and gave the defending titlists a 6-1 record and a one-game edge over New York and Cleveland at the halfway mark of the expanded 14-game schedule.

The Giants dropped out of a first-place tie when Dallas' Allen Green kicked a 32-yard field goal with 1:23 remaining for a 17-16 Cowboy victory, and the Browns moved up by beating the St. Louis Cardinals 21-10.

In the Western Conference, Green Bay kept rolling with a 28-10 thumping of Minnesota for its sixth consecutive victory since an opening game loss and maintained a one-game lead over the Chicago Bears, 21-20 conquerors of the Baltimore Colts. San Francisco fell back, losing to Pittsburgh 20-10. Detroit whipped Los Angeles 28-10.

Jurgensen started the Eagles' desperation drive with 50 seconds remaining after the hapless Redskins, who list their seventh in succession and 18th over a two-season span, had taken the lead on a seven-yard flip from rookie Norm Snead to first-year fullback Jim Cunningham.

The Eagles began from their own 20 after the kickoff with Jurgensen firing 19 and 20-yard strikes to Bobby Walston, missing once, then arching the clincher to the speedy McDonald.

Packers Get No Aid From Senator Wiley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Aides of Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., said today Wiley made no request for deferments for two members of the Green Bay Packers who have been called for military duty.

Wiley's office said various Green Bay groups had asked the senator for help to obtain deferments until the end of the season for halfback Paul Hornung and linebacker Ray Nitschke.

A Wiley aide said the requests were forwarded to the Pentagon without comment from Wiley.

Hornung was to report to Ft. Riley, Kan., today but received a temporary stay when he was ordered into a Navy hospital for a thorough physical checkup.

Nitschke is due to report at Ft. Lewis, Wash., Nov. 3 for a tour of active duty with Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard Division which earlier this fall was ordered to active duty.

"As a senator, I am often asked by constituents to forward requests for deferment to the department of defense," Wiley said in a statement.

He said that in forwarding such requests to the defense department his sole purpose has been to obtain prompt and fair consideration.

against the Giants (5-2) came after New York had come from behind to take a 16-14 lead on a five-yard touchdown pass from rookie halfback Bob Gaiters to Kyle Rote and Pat Summerall's three field goals. Eddie LeBaron had fired TD passes of 14 and 14 yards to Frank Clarke and Dick Bielecki as the Cowboys (4-3) built a 14-0 lead.

The Browns (5-2) struck for two touchdowns within 35 seconds in the first quarter, Bobby Franklin racing 19 yards on a fake field goal attempt and Milt Plum hitting Ray Renfro with a 12-yard pass after the Cards (3-4) fumbled the kickoff. Army-bound Bobby Mitchell, playing in his last game, rambled 56 yards for another Cleveland score.

Paul Hornung, who gets a physical today to determine his fitness for the Army, scored on a one-yard plunge, passed 10 yards to Ron Kramer for another touchdown and kicked four conversions as the Packers belted the Vikings (1-6). Hornung, the Coaches Mike Holovak of Boston and Wally Lemm of Houston, busy getting their teams into the American Football League's upper echelons, must thank their lucky stars every night for having such scoring machines as Gino Cappelletti and George Blanda.

Cappelletti, particularly, is a one-man point wave. He scores in every way imaginable and it doesn't matter whether it's in the clutch or not. Gino comes through anyway.

He scored 16 points when Boston, starting back up under new coach Holovak, scuttled Buffalo 32-21. Sunday he ran his season total to 100 points, far ahead of anybody else, when he won for Boston against Dallas. Gino trotted out and kicked a 24-yard field goal as time ran out and Boston had an 18-17 triumph.

Blanda, a 12-year veteran of professional football, has been performing similarly for Houston, the defending league champion, in its resurgence. The only difference is that Blanda doesn't score as many points personally—he makes it possible for others to do it.

He threw three touchdown passes and kicked a 53-yard field goal in Houston's 38-7 conquest of Dallas. Sunday he passed for four touchdowns and set a record of 464 air yards while sending Houston to a 26-16 victory over Buffalo.

Blanda is the fellow who was supposed to be through at Houston. That was when Lou Rymkus was the coach. Lemm took Blanda out of the discard as soon as he became head man of the Oilers.

Today Boston is tied with New York for the lead in the Eastern Division of the AFL while Houston is in third place, just a half-game back. Houston hasn't played as many games as Boston. New York stayed deadlocked for the lead with a 14-6 victory league's scoring leader, now has 102 points. A pass interference moved the Bears (5-2) to the 17 in the fourth quarter against the Colts (3-4) and set up the winning touchdown. Rick Casares got it on a five-yard run and Roger LeClere kicked the all-important extra point. The margin of victory was provided by linebacker Bill George, who broke through to block a conversion attempt by Steve Myhra.

The Steelers (2-5) raced to a 17-0 first period lead against the 49ers (4-3) on a 30-yard TD jaunt by John Henry Johnson, an 11-yard pitch from Rudy Bukich to Tom Tracy and the first of Lou Michael's two field goals.

Jon Arnet of the Rams (1-6) ran a kickoff back 105 yards, one yard shy of the league record, but the Lions' (4-3) well-balanced attack got the job done. All four Detroit touchdowns came on short runs with Dan Lewis scoring twice and quarterback Jim Ninowski and Ken Webb once each.

Hawaii Tabs New Mentor

HONOLULU (AP)—Hub Kittle, general manager of the Yakima Bears of the Northwest Baseball League, was named Saturday to the same post with the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League.

Kittle, 44, will succeed Tommy Heath who was elevated to the front office from field manager near the end of last season. Heath's one-year contract will not be renewed, said Islander owner Nick Morgan Jr.

Kittle, minor league executive of the year in 1960, will have a one-year contract with Hawaii.

Chiloquin After Title Tie

The Saturday 27-6 Malin victory over the Sacred Heart Trojans knocked the County B League football race into a two-way tie and now both clubs have to play no-counting games this weekend while awaiting the outcome of the Chiloquin-Merrill struggle in Merrill Friday night.

A Chiloquin win and the lead will be split three ways. Admittedly disappointed SHA coach Marv Delplanche is trying to get his discouraged Trojans back 'up' for the Tulelake Honkers in Gem Stadium Friday night, while Mustang mentor Bob Graham is making sure his eleven concentrates on Butte Valley in a Saturday afternoon game at Malin, rather than look ahead to a possible playoff berth.

In the event of a three-way tie the ultimate playoff entrant will undoubtedly be picked in a drawing of straws. Should the Chiloquin crew lose to Merrill, a vote probably either Malin or SHA will pick the loser.

Delplanche's disappointment in his loss to the charged-up Huskies was understandable. The Trojans, normally a fiery group of quick-starters turned in a decidedly lack-lustre performance against the Mustangs Saturday.

On the other hand Graham's Mustangs, who opened the season with a humiliating 19-0 loss to Chiloquin, have shown a tremendous improvement as the season progressed. After the game, Graham, fresh from a cold shower, while fully clothed, exclaimed, "The kids played good football. I'm really proud of them. Our defense gave the SHA passers fits and our line got the jump on theirs most of the time."

Graham had special praise for fullback Nick Johnson and tailback Larry Rick. Johnson led the Malin ground-gainers and Rick, who left a sick-bed for the game, connected on eight of 10 passes.

Linfield Marching To Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Powerful Linfield, one of the nation's top-ranked small college football teams, continued its impressive string of victories Saturday with a crushing 45-7 win over College of Idaho.

Again Saturday it was fullback Steve Bequin the star, scoring five touchdowns.

College of Idaho made a game of it in the early stages but could not contain the powerful Linfield offense after the first quarter.

Williamette kept its hopes alive for a crack at the Northwest Conference crown with a 14-7 victory over Lewis and Clark of Portland. It was largely due to the brilliant play of Stu Hall, a linebacker on defense and an offensive end, that the Bearcats were able to come through with the victory.

Hall led both Williamette touchdown drives with pass receptions on key plays and helped stop two Lewis and Clark marches in the second half.

In a battle of cellar dwellers in Walla Walla Saturday night, Whitman led the winless ranks with a 19-13 victory over Pacific University.

The running of Mel Litzenberg and the passing combination of John Hawkins to Mike Reid sparked the Missionary victory.

CAMDEN, N.J. — Carry Back (#8) survived Foul Claim in winning Trenton Handicap at Garden State Park.

INGLEWOOD, Calif. — Adios Butler set world record for mile and a sixteenth, clocking 2:03.3-5 in winning second leg of American pacing classic at Hollywood Park.

Football Giants Prepare For Shakeup In Ratings

Call it the moment of truth, or whatever, but Michigan State, the nation's No. 1 college football team, and bridesmaid Mississippi are each going to meet a team that will put them to the acid test this Saturday.

And so will Ohio State, Colorado and Notre Dame, three others in the select circle that shook from the chain reaction of upsets last Saturday.

Mississippi, whose unbeaten string has reached 21, meets its sternest competition of the year when Louisiana State plays host at Baton Rouge. The last game Ole Miss lost was to the Bayou Bengals, 7-3, in 1959. All-America Billy Cannon broke it up for LSU with a punt return for a touchdown in the second half.

LSU spoiled a perfect season for the Rebels last year with a 6-6 tie that Mississippi had to scramble to get on the field goal kicking of Allan Green.

Now the Rebels are 6-0 this season, 3-0 in the Southeastern Conference and coveting a national championship. LSU has lost only to Rice and is also 3-0 in the SEC. Both warmed up to this week's task over the weekend. Ole Miss clobbered Vanderbilt 47-0 and LSU killed Florida's SEC chances 23-0.

Michigan State, which hasn't allowed a point in Big Ten competition while ringing up a 3-0 mark, takes on powerful Minnesota, last year's national champ and co-Big Ten leader. The Gophers, who beat Michigan 23-20 for the Little Brown Jug last Saturday, have won four in a row after a 6-0 loss to Missouri. The Spartans, 35-0 victors over Indiana, are 6-0 over-all, and have beaten Michigan and Notre Dame in other severe tests.

This Big Ten game, matching teams with identical 3-0 marks, plus Ohio State's encounter with Iowa, will clear some of the haze about the standings. Ohio State is also 3-0 after beating Wisconsin 30-21 while Iowa now is 2-1, after being upset 9-0 by Purdue.

Alabama, which leads the SEC with a 4-0 mark, and is 6-0 over-all, is expected to hang on to its lead against Mississippi State. The Crimson Tide had some difficulty beating Houston 17-0.

Colorado can pretty well nail down the Big Eight title if it beats Missouri. The Buffaloes are 4-0 in the conference after beating winless Oklahoma 22-14 while Missouri, defending champ, is 3-0 after its 10-0 dumping of Nebraska.

Notre Dame, one of many which fell before the upset cyclone, may be in trouble again this week against Navy, another upset victim. The Irish lost their second after three straight victories, 12-10 to Northwestern, while the Middles, who had won four in a row after one loss, were surprised by Pitt 28-14.

Texas (6-0) is expected to get its fourth win in the Southwest Conference against Southern Methodist after easily disposing of title contender Rice 34-7. Georgia Tech continues to pursue the leaders in the SEC, beating Tulane 35-0, and now meets rebounding Florida.

Elsewhere, Princeton is all alone in the Ivy League following its 30-25 victory over Cornell and Dartmouth's upset by Harvard. The Tigers take on winless Brown this week. The Citadel can wrap up the Southern Conference crown against defending champion Virginia Military. VMI is 3-1 after beating William & Mary 14-7 while The Citadel, 4-1, edged non-conference foe Xavier of Ohio 7-6.

Atlantic Coast leader Duke (4-1) is outside against Michigan but moved a half game ahead of North Carolina (3-1) with a 17-6 victory over N.C. State. Utah State can tie Wyoming (4-0-1) for the Skyline Conference lead with a victory over Brigham Young after the Cowboys ended Utah's first-place hopes with a 13-6 win.

UCLA, beating Stanford 20-0 for its first Big Five win takes on California (0-1) this week and co-leader Southern California meets its second conference foe, Washington (1-1).

Rutgers, the nation's other unbeaten (5-0) team plays Lafayette after beating Penn 20-6 while Pitt and Syracuse will try to unjam the Eastern picture when they meet. Syracuse smothered Holy Cross 34-6 while Army, another contender, was losing to West Virginia 7-3.

Ten Squads Drop From Unbeaten

By United Press International

Old man upset took his usual mid-season toll during the week-end, dropping 10 schools from the ranks of unbeaten and untied college football teams and leaving 36 others with perfect records.

Michigan State, Mississippi, Texas, Alabama, Colorado and Rutgers were the only major college survivors as Bowling Green, Iowa and Memphis State were beaten.

Leading the nation with eight victories each were Northern (S.D.) State and Stevens Point (Wis.). Seven teams have won seven straight this season, 16 others have captured six in a row, seven have won five straight and four have four triumphs each.

Want Ad Swaps Profane Parrot For Honey Bear

An asthmatic Yankee who was allergic to his gorgeous parrot ran this ad: FOR PARTER OR SALE, I have gorgeous parrot, 14-month-old, fully developed bird, whose plumage and command of melody are marvelous. Physically I am going to Michigan. Those with sensitive noses would be shocked and appalled. What Am I allowed?

Theiling Yankee received 26 answers and swapped his blasphemous bird for a honey bear. The swapper, was a retired gas captain who yearned for a profane parrot.
