ICE CREAM AND CAKE

One of the tastiest combinations and one that everybody loves is the old favorite—ice cream and cake. A new and easy twist to this dessert is acquired by simply toasting "store bought" pound cake and topping it with a scoop of your favorite ice cream and sliced bananas. Bananas add that special "something" that make a perfect dessert for an everyday or company meal.

Couple Wed In Tulake

MALIN — Karen Louise Turner of Twin Falls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Turner of Wendell, Ida., became the bride of Marvin W. Macken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macken of Malin, Oct. 8, at the Tulake Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Wayne Wattman officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of a few close friends and the immediate families.

For the 3 o'clock ceremony, the bride chose a waltz length sleeveless gown of white embroidered nylon, full skirt over white taffeta with matching lace trim. Her short pale green veil was held by a band of white rose buds. She wore pale green and white accessories. For something old, she carried a heirloom lace handkerchief belonging to the bridegroom's great-aunt.

She was escorted to the altar by Lawrence Allen of Bend, a close friend.

Mrs. Lawrence Allen, a matron of honor, was the bride's only attendant. She wore an afternoon dress of grey print with dark accessories and white carnation corsage.

Jerry Macken was best man for his brother.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink all-over lace dress, with black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

The wedding reception and dinner was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The young couple left later for Fort Ord, where he is stationed with the Army.

The bride is a graduate of Redmond High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Malin High School and Oregon Tech.

Happy Hour Club

MALIN—Mrs. William Dalton Sr. entertained the Happy Hour Bridge Club Tuesday, Oct. 17, at her home. Two tables were in play with prizes going to Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Lester Schreiner. Dessert was served to Mrs. Con Johnson, Mrs. Tom Laird, Mrs. Lester Schreiner, Mrs. Robert Holl, Mrs. Perry Haley, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. A. E. Street.

Rebekah Lodge

Initiation of new members and nomination of officers were the chief items of interest at the regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge.

Initiated into the Rebekah Degree of Oddfellowship were Katherine Karnes, Hulda Gillette and Paul Hanna.

Nominees for office are Genevieve Pierce, Charlotte Anderson, Naomi Fay, Iretha Kirby and Pansy Jackson. Election will be held at the next regular meeting of the lodge.

Helen Blanas, district deputy president, announced the candy sale was progressing well. Olive Hanna, noble grand, asked for recipes for the cook book which will go on sale in the near future.

Members are reminded to save Betty Crocker coupons as a means of obtaining silver for the lodge.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room.

Merrill Youngsters Inspire Parties

MERRILL—Two Merrill youngsters who recently celebrated birthdays were the inspiration for parties given in their honor. On Sept. 7, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil, Tommy O'Neil observed his fourth birthday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny O'Neil.

Friends who helped him enjoy the day were Drew Millett, Bobby White, Claudette and Ronette Craigen, Susie and Janice Vaughn, Jeannie and Jerry McKoen, Mark Smith, Dale Ray Walker, Nancy Argivia O'Neil, and his twin sisters, Tina and Toni O'Neil.

Also present were Mrs. Richard Vaughn, Mrs. Tommy O'Neil, Mrs. Maxine Craigen, Mrs. Clifford McKoen and Almas Hartley. Tommy's other grandmother, Mrs. Vivian Trotman, was unable to be present.

Another Tommy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeves of Merrill, was the center of attention on Oct. 22, his fifth birthday. His mother, assisted by his sisters, Louann and Diane, arranged a party to celebrate the day.

Guests were Tommy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Reeves, and Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley; Jimmy, Scott and David Ja-
