Lakeview Pair Wed In Autumn Setting

LAKEVIEW — A beautiful autumn setting was effected in the use of giant chrysanthemums in bronze and yellow for the candle-light ceremony which united in marriage Elaine Marie Robin and Byrum Lynn Hale at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Sept. 16, at the First Presbyterian Church in Lakeview.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lester Boulden. Mrs. Herbert Sanderson at the organ provided the wedding music and was also accompanist for the soloist, Robert Shottwell.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robin, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hale, all of Lakeview.

The petite brunette was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of tulle and Swiss-type lace over taffeta was floor length. The scalloped sweetheart neckline was accented with iridescent mother of pearl sequins and tiny seed pearls. The floral pattern of the lace was revealed in the long fitted sleeves which tapered at the wristline. Wide panels of scalloped lace cascaded down the front and back of the very full tulle skirt to form an apron effect. Her fingertip tulle veil was held in place by a double crown covered with tiny seed pearls accentuated by rhinestone teardrops. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Word of honor was Julie Robin of Klamath Falls, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Gail Robin, another sister, and Sandra Watts. Their frocks were of gold satin and they carried bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums tied with brown satin ribbon. Matching flower hats with yellow veils formed the head-dresses.

Jerry Bob Hale was best man and Mike Hale and Jimmy Hale were ushers. All are brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Robin, the bride's mother, chose a brown suit with bone accessories and Mrs. Hale wore a magenta suit with black accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow chrysanthemums.

The shades of bronze, yellow and gold carried out the decorative theme at the reception which followed in the Christian Education Building. The three-tiered all-white bride's cake was cut by Mrs.

We The Women

Gals, Hail The Advent Of The 'Ladylike Look'

Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Could it possibly be that the fashion and beauty industries have decided to let women grow old gracefully instead of continuing to kid them into believing that if they fight the battle of the bulge, keep up a constant skirmish against wrinkles and dye to keep the silver threads from appearing among the gold, they can be forever young?

A few signs in the wind indicate maybe that is happening. The New Look right now isn't anything called "the little boy look" or "the flapper look," but, of all things, "the ladylike look." That in itself is a boon, woman-kind, for a woman can achieve the ladylike look at any age and without trying desperately to look younger than she is.

Then, too, the people who manufacture hair dyes and have been trying for years to make every woman with gray hair ashamed of it are doing an about-face.

Now, instead of trying to convince every gray-haired woman on the land that she owes it to herself to make up her mind whether she wants to be a blonde, brunette, or redhead, they are telling her how to make her gray hair "shine like silver."

If American women who no longer are young are smart they will latch onto these props and make the most of them. It is a whole lot easier for a woman of 50 to achieve a ladylike look than to try desperately to look like a girl.

Femininity Is Fashion Despite Style, Fabric

NEW YORK (AP)—Tailor the figure of the female in men's wear fabrics, or hide it altogether in yards of rippling ruffles and she looks all-woman in either case.

Bill Blass, designer for Maurice Rentner, went to both extremes with his "little boy" and "little girl" looks and won buyers' applause for each. He previewed them today during the spring market shows now in progress.

What is the "little boy look" made of?

High-waisted, wide-shouldered, lapped skirts and coats combined with sleeveless blouses or dresses, all made of men's wear serges and checks. That's what Blass' unboylike models wore under their straw bowler hats.

What is the "little girl look" made of?

Minutes later the previously crisply tailored mannequins were back again ruffled from chin to shin, stem to stem, horizontally or vertically and sometimes diagonally.
