Sheep Men Bill Speech

The Klamath Basin Sheep Producers Association has arranged for a special speaker at its annual meeting which will be held Friday, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p.m. at the Klamath County Fairgrounds, according to Harold Williams, president of the organization. Jerry Sotola, Armour and Company, Chicago, will be the featured speaker. He will discuss the problems facing the sheep producers in the United States with special emphasis on the effect of imports of chilled and frozen lamb, and he will also give his views of the future of the sheep industry. All Basin sheep producers are urged to attend this annual meeting. Officers and directors for the organization will be elected for the coming year. Following the meeting, doughnuts and coffee will be served to those in attendance.

Fighters Vie For Audience

The Saturday night fights are familiar attractions on television and in downtown Klamath Falls. While Von Clay was knocking out Billy Hunter on television, city police said two transients, Willie L. Benton, 22, and Walter W. Allen, 48, were fighting to a draw near the corner of Seventh Street and Klamath Avenue. Allen told police the fight broke out after Benton made a remark to a passing couple. Police charged both men with disorderly conduct. Both pleaded guilty Monday morning in municipal court. Acting Judge Robert Kerr suspended a $25 fine against Benton and sentenced Allen to pay a $50 fine or spend 10 days in jail.
