Couple Note Special Date

BLY—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Berry celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Oct. 6. They were married in 1907 in Modoc County at Davis Creek, Calif. Both were born in Modoc County and have lived their entire lives in Oregon and California.

Mrs. Berry is the daughter of Theodore and Laura Essex Remer and her husband is the son of Modoc pioneers Doc and Lucy Mulkey Berry.

They have one daughter, Alma Vermillion of Brownsville, Calif.; two grandsons, Virgil Berry of Bly, whom they raised from infancy, and Donna Vermillion of Yuba City; great-grandson Randy Berry of Bly and great-granddaughter Glenda Vermillion of Yuba City.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry are semi-retired, but still care for their home in Bly and each year raise a large garden.

Honored guests were Mrs. Lizzie Mae Terrell, past guardian of the state of Kansas, past guardian of Bethel No. 6, Goodland, Kan., and past honored queen of Bethel No. 6; Genevieve Swift, royal matron of Friendship Court, Order of Amaranth, and Kitty Hanvill, past guardian of Bethel No. 61.

Fathers were special guests and refreshments and a cake walk were features of the evening.

The annual fall dance will be Nov. 24.

Fashion Flair
Less shoe. That's the theme of the industry that keeps us shod. For fall, lasts are shorter and softer at the end. Line recedes gracefully from throat to tip, wiping away bulbous character of shoes. The look: lean. It's achieved via gentle crescents and toes. Lean—but fat in one fashion sense.

ALL-AMERICAN FAVORITE — Cardigans are currently men's favorites in an eight-to-one ratio today, and the enormous variety in styling merits this preference. One of the most popular all-season favorites in the male wardrobe is this five-button cardigan of lambswool with accenting side stripes and two useful tailored hip pockets.

Paul Munson, son of Mrs. Sverre Munson of Yakima and the late Sverre Munson, formerly of Klamath Falls, was recently named the recipient of one of the National Osteopathic College scholarships sponsored by the auxiliary to the American Osteopathic Association.

The $1,500 scholarships are awarded on the basis of competitive financial need, scholarship, motivation and personality.

Paul Munson is in the first year class at Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery in Kirksville, Mo. He is a graduate of KUHS and Central Washington State College. He and his wife, Pat, have two daughters, Diane Lynn and Tracey Ann.

The hands-down headwear winner for males: the all "fake-fur" hat. It's a Russian cosack model. Regardless of its head warming qualities — it's a conversation piece.

Orion Club

For their October meeting, members of Orion Club enjoyed a costume party at the home of Hazel Cofer. Prizes were won by Teddy Pernigotti, Dorothy Teater, Joan Ashenback, Mildred McEachern and Marian Nanneman.

Refreshments and decorations followed the Halloween motif.

Plans were discussed for the annual fall dinner party to be staged at the VFW Hall.

Here's a tip for slicing extra thin bread for tea sandwiches: Wrap bread in a moisture proof material and refrigerate until cold. Then slice.
