

TURKEY

FESTIVE CHRISTMAS DINNER
For a festive Christmas dinner the Agricultural Marketing Service recommends golden brown roasted turkey, mushroom-giblet gravy and a tasty cranberry sauce.

Turkeys and cranberries are featured on the United States Department of Agriculture's Plentiful Foods list for December and western consumers will find abundant supplies in their markets.

BUYING TIPS

When buying turkey under 12 pounds, allow 1/2 to 1 pound per serving, ready-to-cook weight. For birds over 12 pounds, allow 1/3 to 1/2 pound per serving. Of course the actual number of servings depends on the person who does the carving, as well as the heartiness of the appetites, but this is a pretty good guide to follow.

ENCORES

Next day "encore" or left-over turkey dishes can be as appetizing and appealing as the first turkey meal. For example, serve hot, open-face turkey sandwiches topped with a quick mushroom sauce.

To prepare the sauce simply combine 1 can cream of mushroom soup and 1 small can sliced mushrooms, juice and all. Stir to blend, heat and serve over the waiting sandwiches. Add a bit of cranberry relish.

If there is some leftover bread dressing following the big meal, transfer it to a loaf pan, refrigerate immediately. This makes an easy to slice loaf which can be broiled to reheat and is a perfect base for turkey sandwiches.

MUSHROOM STUFFING

Nothing teams better with turkey than a mushroom stuffing to be topped with giblet gravy. To prepare 6 cups stuffing: Combine 2 tablespoons instant onion with 2 tablespoons water or use 1/2 cup freshly chopped onion. Melt 1/2 cup butter in sauce pan, add onion. 2 cups (four 4-oz. cans) sliced mushrooms including can liquid and 2 cups sliced celery. Cook slowly about 5 minutes. Add 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon powdered thyme, 1/4 teaspoon powdered marjoram and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Stir to blend and pour over 6 cups dry - old white wheat bread cubes. Toss gently until uniformly blended. Pour into greased casserole, or use for stuffing 14 to 18 pound turkey. Bake casserole 1 hour at 350 degrees F.

Turkey a la Queen

Holiday turkey is good right down to the bones, as everyone knows. However, if the turkey is big and the family is small, there comes a time when both white and dark meat are more welcome combined with other foods. Then it's time for Turkey a la Queen.

This recipe is like Turkey a la King, only better. The rich cream sauce is enhanced with California Sherry, cheese, mushrooms and pimiento. Serve it in party shells on toast or over noodles or rice. To enjoy it at its best, chill California Sauterne or other white dinner wine in the refrigerator for about two hours and pour glasses of it to accompany the meal.

TURKEY A LA QUEEN
(Serves 4 or 5)

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup cream or evaporated milk
1 cup turkey or chicken broth (strained or bouillon cube chicken broth may be used)
1/3 cup California Sherry
1/2 cup grated process Cheddar cheese
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash of Worcestershire
Salt and pepper to taste
2 cups sliced, cooked turkey
1-4oz. can mushroom stems and pieces, drained
1 canned pimiento, chopped
Melt butter and stir in flour; add cream and broth, cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thick and thickens. Add wine and cheese, stir over low heat until cheese melts. Season with Worcestershire sauce, mace, salt and pepper. Add turkey, mushrooms and pimiento. Heat gently but thoroughly before serving. Serve in party shells, on toast or with noodles or rice.
