North Bid Traps South

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

All trappers don't operate in the forests. Some may be found in bridge games.

Some trappers catch opponents and are admirable partners. Others trap their partners and should be shunned as the plague.

South's jump to four spades was a slight overbid but he was willing to take a chance in order to win the game and rubber. Furthermore, he would have attained his admirable objective if it had not been for his partner.

North looked over his cards carefully and decided that he had a very strong spade raise and there might well be a slam in sight. So North who had already limited his hand with a two spade bid suddenly called "five diamonds."

South wanted no part of a slam and merely returned to five spades. The trap would not have worked had West not been on his toes, but West decided to open his ace of clubs and see what the dummy looked like. Not only did he look at the dummy, but he saw his partner drop the king of clubs on the ace. West led a second club. Two club tricks, plus one trump trick were enough to beat the hand.

PAIR SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
1 ▲ Pass 4 ▲ 4 N.T.
Pass 6 ▲ Pass 6 ▲
Pass
You South hold:
▲ 42 W A 6 5 4 K ▲ Q J 7 5 4
What do you do?
A—Bid six hearts. Your partner obviously is showing a strong two-suited hand. His second suit must be hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION
East opens the bidding with three spades. What do you, South, do, holding:
▲ 1 W A K J 7 6 4 K Q J 5 4 K 4 3

Pioneer Oregon Attorney Dies

PORTLAND (UPI)—George Clark Durham, veteran Portland attorney, died Sunday. He was 82.

Durham had lived at Cannon Beach since his retirement 12 years ago.

He spent most of his life in Portland. He was the grandson of Rev. Harvey Clark, Forest Grove, a missionary to the Indians and one of the founders of Pacific University. His other grandfather was Albert Austin Durham, founder of the community of Oregon.

Henley High Notes

By MARTHA BAGLAND
Eight Henley seniors will participate in the annual Elks panels to be held in the next few weeks. Out of these students, one will be chosen by the faculty to be a candidate for a scholarship award.

Janet Lynn and Ben Strohler journeyed to Bonanza on Dec. 20 to represent Henley in the Henley-Tulelake debate, "Can Khrushchev Kill the United Nations?"

Jan. 18 Klamath Union will visit Henley to present the affirmative side of the question, "Should the Government Be Able to Outlaw a Strike Which Cripples the National Economy?" Mike Reymor will moderate for the panel.

"Should Mercy-Killings Be Permissible?" will be the question during the Henley-Merrill debate. Sue Williams and Martha Bagland will represent Henley during this panel at Chiloquin on Jan. 24.

Jo Ann Duffy and Lyle Hubbard will debate on the final question, "Are Government Controls Necessary in a Democratic System of Government?" on Jan. 31 at Tulelake.

PORTLAND (UPI)—Two young Oregon women were scheduled to leave for Peace Corps assignments in Nigeria.

Barbara A. Baer, 23, Portland, and Grace A. Hamilton, Ashland, will be among a group of volunteers who are to depart Jan. 3 to work as school teachers.

Pope Urges Prayer For Solid Peace

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII praised God today for the first Christmas in many years without wars or threats of war and asked Catholics to pray for an ever more solid peace.

The pontiff, 81, in high spirits despite stomach trouble believed to be a bleeding ulcer, addressed an overflow crowd of 1,300 Romans and pilgrims in a weekly general audience in the Vatican's Clementine Hall.

"Tuesday was the first Christmas in many years—perhaps 20—on which there were no wars or imminent dangers of war anywhere in the world," he said in his impromptu speech.

"This is a great grace of God, especially considering that only two months ago there was a most grave danger, which was dispelled also through the far-sightedness of statesmen."

The Pope's words were his third public tribute in five days to President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for their restraint in handling the Cuban crisis, although he never mentioned them by name.

In his Christmas broadcast to the world Saturday, the Pope said "clear signs of deep understand-
