

Experts Dizzied By Upsets In Christmas Holiday Tournaments

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

College basketball's annual merry-go-round of Christmas tournaments has only begun but it already has the experts dizzy.

The opening rounds of both the Los Angeles Classic and the Quaker City Tournament produced spectacular upsets and play in three other tournaments suggested that the upset lightning has only begun to strike.

The most surprising results on Wednesday night were Northwestern's 62-41 last-gasp triumph over fourth-ranked Stanford and St. Joseph of Philadelphia's 58-57 last-second victory over seventh-ranked Bowling Green. Both losers started the tournaments unbeaten and with designs on displacing Cincinnati as the nation's No. 1 team.

Fifth-ranked Illinois made an impressive debut with a 96-66 rout of Pennsylvania in the Holiday Festival Tournament in New York, meanwhile, but 12th-ranked West Virginia staggered to a 45-84 decision over Boston College in a game that nearly produced the biggest upset of all.

Ken Lutgen, a substitute who didn't see any action in the first half, tipped in a desperation shot with four seconds left to give Northwestern its victory at Los Angeles, Stanford, which started the game with a seven-game winning streak, had gone ahead, 61-66, with 13 seconds remaining. The victory sent Northwestern into tonight's second round against Colorado State, which lopped previously unbeaten Southern California, 72-64.

St. Louis defeated Washington

84-30, and UCLA downed Utah State, 89-75, in other first-round games of the L. A. Classic.

Bowling Green led St. Joseph's by a point with four seconds left and also had possession of the ball out of bounds. But a wild pass gave St. Joseph's the ball and Jimmy Boyle that shot through the cords as the final buzzer sounded. It was the 18th time the lead changed hands in the thriller at Philadelphia.

Ruce Burton's 34 points led Brigham Young to an 84-73 win over favored LaSalle, Providence beat Delaware, 70-57, with the help of 20 points by Ray Flynn, and Wally Jones' 18 points paced Villanova to a 72-54 victory over Manhattan in the Quaker City's other first-round action.

Center Bill Burwell connected on 16 of 13 field goal tries as fast-breaking Illinois blitzed Pennsylvania, Illinois led by as much as 25 points in scoring its sixth straight victory.

Mike Wolfe tied the score for West Virginia with five seconds left in regulation time and scored the winning basket with 13 seconds left in the overtime period at New York St. Bonaventure walloped Holy Cross, 82-68, and New York University beat Duquesne, 71-66, in other first-round games.

Mary Straw scored 27 points as Iowa State whipped Nebraska, 82-68, and George Unsel tallied 25 points as Kansas defeated Colorado, 70-64, in first-round games of the Big Eight Tournament at Kansas City, Mo. Kansas State plays Missouri and Oklahoma in State open-round games.

Iowa rallied after Coach Sharm Schuerzman was ejected to top Arizona, 87-56, and Oregon clobered Washington State, 67-57, in the Far West Classic at Portland, Ore., while San Jose State upset defending champion Pepperdine, 65-54, and Santa Clara downed University of Pacific, 80-63, in the WCAC tournament at San Francisco.

Tittle Selected 'Player'

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—A. J. Tittle of the New York Giants, only two years ago on the scrap heap of pro football, today was voted United Press International Player-of-the-Year for the 1962 National Football League season.

The Giants in a man agree that they could not have won the Eastern Division title in the NFL this season were it not for their bald 26-year-old quarterback.

Tittle set a league record by throwing 23 touchdown passes, in addition to providing the brainy play-calling and inspired leadership requisite of a championship quarterback.

Carries Ball

And despite his advanced age, he risked his limbs by carrying the ball 17 times, averaging 6.4 yards per rush and scoring a pair of important touchdowns.

Tittle won the honor by a close margin over fullback Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers. Tittle received 19 votes and Taylor 17 in a poll of 42 writers who covered the NFL campaign. Defensive tackle Roger Brown of the Detroit Lions attracted two votes and four players had one vote each.

Tittle and Taylor will be in opposing sides in the NFL championship game next Sunday for the second year in a row. Taylor had much the better of it in last year's 17-9 Green Bay rout as Tittle had a last-minute game.

Seeks First Title

"If we can win next Sunday, it will be the greatest thrill of my lifetime," says Tittle.

Although he has played pro football for 13 seasons, he never had played on a championship team before coming to the Giants from the San Francisco Forty Niners at the start of the 1961 season.

This was the second time in his career, however, that he was a named UPI Player-of-the-Year in the NFL. He previously was named in 1957 during his heyday with the Forty Niners.

WHAT'S THE SCORE BUD? — Bob Patton of NYU is held up by a reporter after he leaped over the school's cheerleaders and jumped up on a table while chasing a loose ball during the game with Duquesne in the ECAC Holiday Skisette Festival at Madison Square Garden. NYU won, 71-65.

MOORE GRABS REBOUND — Washington State's Ted Warner (14-C) grimes as Oregon center Glenn Moore looks for another pass to after out-rebounding Werner. Moore scored eight points as the Ducks won their opening game in the Far West Classic, 67-57.

Westminster Stays Top Ranked Quint

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unbeaten Westminster (Pa.), the defending national champion, today was named the No. 1 small college basketball team for the fourth straight week by the United Press International Board of Coaches.

The Titans, who have won all six of their games this season following a 20-2 record a year ago, were named the nation's top team this week by 21 of the 25 coaches who comprise the UPI rating board. That represented a slight decline in popularity from a week ago when Westminster was picked No. 1 by 23 coaches, but nevertheless, the Titans held a firm grip on the top spot.

With points computed on a basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 for votes from first through 10th places, the Titans had a total of 306 — 57 more than runnerup Southern Illinois, the top choice of five coaches.

Prairie View A&M, unbeaten in seven games, switched places with Tennessee State (4-1) in this week's ratings, taking over the third spot, while Glimming (6-1) remained fifth.

Wittenberg (6-0) held on to sixth, Evansville (4-3) remained seventh and Hofstra (7-2) held eighth. Southeast Oklahoma (8-2) swapped places with Mt. St. Mary's (Mt.) (5-2) for the sixth spot in the game at Roseburg.

There are several games scheduled around the state tonight. The only one involving class A-I teams is the Dallas, unbeaten in 10th games this season, to WY's.

Roseburg Upsets Cavemen Quint

By United Press International

Defending state champion Grants Pass was rocked by its second consecutive loss last night in the only game on the state high school basketball schedule.

The Cavemen led 61-46 to Roseburg, which had not won a game this season. Paul Brothers scored 21 points and the Roseburg team defense held Grants Pass to 11 field goals in 38 shots from the field in the game at Roseburg.

There are several games scheduled around the state tonight. The only one involving class A-I teams is the Dallas, unbeaten in 10th games this season, to WY's.

Trojans Drill For Wisconsin

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Southern California returned to the serious work of practicing defense patterns against Wisconsin football plays today after joining the Badger team for a Disneyland junkie Wednesday afternoon.

John McKay's crew had all three USC quarterbacks, Pete Bealhart, Bill Nelson and Craig Fertig, playing the role of Badger ace Ron Vanderkum to give the Trojan secondary a preview of things to come New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl.

Receivers Jay Clark and Fred Hall practiced in the USC offensive drill with Nelson throwing.

Badgers Work On Timing Edge

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The Wisconsin Badgers practiced afternoon practice sessions today as previously announced and Coach Bill Bruhn was hopeful of gaining the needed edge in timing for their Rose Bowl contest with University of Southern California.

After a morning workout on the track Wednesday, Bruhn said "we boys are still not sharp. We definitely are not ready yet."

Bruhn said that all the players were in good physical shape.

Although the program is called the American antelope, it is not a true antelope.

Oregon Drops Cougars; Beavers Favored

PORTLAND (UPI)—Defending champion Oregon State starts its quest for a seventh consecutive Far West Classic basketball title tonight and once again arch-rival Oregon is bidding to meet the Beavers in the finals.

Oregon defeated Washington State 67-57 and Iowa edged Arizona 57-56 in opening games Wednesday night.

Oregon State takes on unbeaten

Baker Wins Warner Title

PALO ALTO, Calif. (UPI)—Terry Baker of Oregon State Wednesday was named winner of the 14th annual Glenn S. 'Pop' Warner award for the most valuable senior football player on the Pacific Coast.

Baker, chosen by vote of more than 400 sports writers, broadcasters and coaches, will receive his trophy Jan. 22 from the Palo Alto Sports Club.

The versatile quarterback, who rushed and passed for 2,276 yards and threw 13 touchdown passes, also won the Heisman and Maxwell trophies as the nation's top collegiate player. He was the first westerner to receive all three awards.

Previous winners of the Warner award starting in 1949 were Eddie LeBaron, College of the Pacific; Russ Pomeroy, Stanford; Ollie Matson, USC; Jim Sears, USC; Bob Garrett, Stanford; George Shaw, Oregon; Bob Davenport, UCLA; Jon Arnett, USC; Joe Francis, Oregon State; Joe Kap, California; Chris Burford, Stanford; Bill Kimer, UCLA; and Cliff Gallup, San Jose State.
