Saddle Club Observes Yule

The Klamath Saddle Club's annual Christmas was held this year at Reames Country Club on Dec. 16. Maxine Summers was chairman, assisted by Lorraine Emerick, co-chairman.

A ceiling-high beautifully decorated tree predominated the decorations, which were appropriately in the holiday motif.

A buffet dinner was followed by dancing to the music of The Oregon Rangers.

Members and their husbands who attended included Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus McMahon, Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Poole, Dr. and Mrs. Charlie Read, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ruge, Dr. and Mrs. John Negreski, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Matt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Lilly and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mattoon.

FURS BLEND—SOMETIMES

It's true that it's the fashion to mix furs this year. But be sure that the furs you mix get along both in color and texture. Otherwise, the effect is bizarre.

Manzanita OES Meets

The pre-holiday meetings of Manzanita Chapter 172, OES have been as colorful as the festive Christmas spirit that inspired them.

Worthy Matron Verda Scribner and Worthy Patron Andy Anderson presented each of their officers with unusual pins of their offices at the Dec. 12 meeting. The lodge was also honored by a visit of Georgianna Lark, grand representative of Alberta, Canada, in Oregon.

There was a Christmas party after the meeting in the dining room. Secret pals exchanged gifts and at each place was a comic gift. The Sweet Adelines provided the entertainment.

More than 200 attended the annual Christmas party given by Crater Lake Lodge 211 of which Clarence Humble is worshipful master.

Santa Claus arrived in time to distribute gifts to the children and partake of the potluck supper. Bob Embree was in charge of party arrangements.

FURRY ON TOP

Try just one fur hat this winter. It need not be expensive. In fact, those shaggy fur hats are enormously flattering and they cost little.

YOU NAME IT

Now you can have a handmade Italian sweater trimmed either with monkey fur or ostrich feathers! What's next?

Elks To Greet The New Year

Members of the Klamath Falls Elks Lodge will usher the Old Year out and welcome the New Year at a gala ball planned for the lodge hall Monday evening, Dec. 31.

The cocktail hour is set for 9 to 10 p.m., followed by dancing to Baldy's Band from 10 til 2. Noise makers and balloons will help mark the arrival of the New Year after which a ham and egg breakfast will be served.

Making arrangements for the party are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mullis, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Evans, Mr. and Mrs. James Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitman and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lemire.

First Lady To Be Hostess

Mrs. Mark Hatfield will again this year entertain the women of Oregon, those living in Salem as well as visitors, at informal gatherings in her home each week during the legislative session.

Wives of legislators will preside at the tea table at Mrs. Hatfield's "at homes" each Tuesday from 2 until 4 o'clock.

Oregon's charming First Lady will greet her first guests on Tuesday, Jan. 15.

Dance Given By Sorority

Members and guests of Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority enjoyed a pre-holiday Christmas dance at the Yacht Club Saturday, Dec. 8, with dancing music played by Pete Colley and his band.

Decorations of blue and silver lent a festive air to the dance hall and guests entered the ballroom through a large evergreen archway accented with blue lights.

A 1 a.m. buffet supper was held at the close of the dancing.

Committee members responsible for the occasion were Holly O'Neale, Mildred Lewis, Lettie Hicks, Joanne Gestvang, Wanda Pontrelli, Natalie Swanson and June Ruddy.
