

Couple Note Special Date

Approximately 45 friends and relatives planned a surprise party on Nov. 30 for Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Webb on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. The surprise evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ewing, 4210 Highland Way, opened with the honored couple being greeted at the door of the Ewing home by their son, Don, whom they supposed to be in Portland attending Judson Baptist College.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ewing and Mrs. Don Chase, mother of Mrs. Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith of this city, who were wedding attendants for the Webbs, were special guests.

The refreshment table was prettily decorated with a pink centerpiece and candles in silver holders. A three tiered cake, iced in pink and white, was made and decorated by Mrs. Lyle Cook. Punch, coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Charles Webb and Carol Webb.

Florence Smith and Mrs. J. D. O'Neal gave readings appropriate to the occasion and the Rev. Freeman Schmitt also spoke to the couple. Mrs. Clifford Sanders made the presentation of a money tree and other gifts.

Frank Lester Webb and Edith Marguerite Chase were married in Klamath Falls on Nov. 24, 1937, by the Rev. Theodore Smith of the First Presbyterian Church and have lived in this city continuously since 1944. They have four children, Don, a freshman at college; Carol, sophomore at KUHS; Billy in the eighth grade at Altamont, and Jeanette in the fifth grade at Ferguson School.

Reception Honors Pair

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thoreson Jr. were entertained at a wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hollinshead of Dunsmuir following their recent nuptials in Reno.

The bride was formerly Linda Lee Rue. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thoreson, all of Dunsmuir.

The Reno wedding was attended by the parents of the bride and bridegroom and members of their immediate families.

CARPET COMFORT

If you are faced with the choice of refinishing or replacing worn, uneven floors in your home, consider putting down new carpeting instead. New, durable, decorative carpets are available today that cost less than a new floor, and they're easier to keep looking like new than hard floors.

VISIT HERE — Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. S. R. Sexton, left, were her brother, Fred Gerdes of St. Paul, Minn., whom she had not seen for nearly 20 years, and her sister, Mrs. L. E. McCubbin of Waterloo, Iowa, at right. Several informal affairs were held in honor of the visitors.

To clean a bottle that has had sour milk in it, add baking soda and hot water. Shake vigorously and rinse with cold water.

Don't use scouring powder or steel wool on your best china. It will scratch the colors or the soft glaze.

Lodge Has Yule Party

YREKA — A Christmas party assisted by past royal patron, Charles Orr, who presided in the Court No. 100, Order of the Amaranth. The dinner preceded the business session, after which the Christmas entertainment was presented.

During the business session, conducted by Royal Matron Ethel Gavin, plans for future meetings were made. Mrs. Gavin was assisted by past royal patron, Charles Orr, who presided in the absence of the royal patron, Floyd Madding.

Obligation night will be held during the Jan. 11 meeting, and on Jan. 25, a fun session will follow the stated meeting. Associate Matron Laverne Hopkins announced that advance night for 1963 officers will be held on Feb. 8, with initiation of candidates.

Approximately 50 persons attended the party dinner, which included members, their families and friends. For the dinner a Yule decor was featured by decorating chairman, Mrs. Helen Shelley. A large Christmas tree was trimmed by Mrs. Emma Ahlgren and Jim Dow.

The Christmas program consisted of several Christmas poems and readings and games.

In lieu of a Christmas gift exchange, money was donated which will be sent to the Amaranth girls home in Santa Monica. Mrs. Ahlgren had created a tiny house with old Christmas cards, which served as the "bank."
