

Employees Have Party

Employees of Miller's and Town Shop and their wives and husbands gathered Saturday night, Dec. 15 for a Christmas party at the Willard Hotel.

Marian Cronin served as mistress of ceremonies and introduced guests and new employees of the past year.

During dinner, guests were entertained with piano selections by Sandra Ruconich.

As additional entertainment there were selections by the Melody Mothers.

Couple Note Anniversary

Mrs. Doris M. Smith was hostess at a dinner on Dec. 10 honoring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl K. Fogle of this city, who were observing their 34th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fogle were married in Rockford, Ill., and came to Klamath Falls in 1948. He is associated with the KID.

Guests included the couple's seven children, their wives and husbands and 22 grandchildren. Also present were Norman Smith and Dennis Hastings, both of this city.

The Fogle children include Mrs. Larry (Rosetta) Nelson, Richard Fogle, Darwin Fogle, Leatha Fogle, and Mrs. Doris Smith, all of Klamath Falls, and Kenneth Fogle of Alturas.

Church Rites Unite Couple

MOUNT SHASTA—A double ring ceremony at 10 a.m. on Dec. 1 in St. Anthony's Church united in marriage Rosine Bottega of Mount Shasta and Frank Mazzei of Weed. The Rev. Father Dermody officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bottega, was given in marriage by her father. She is a graduate of Mount Shasta schools and attended College of the Sisters.

Her gown was of white lace fashioned with long sleeves, fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and full skirt of tiered lace. A crown of pearls held the net veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis with ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Jeanette Mazzei of Weed. She wore a red frock with fur trim and red hat and carried white chrysanthemums with red streamers.

Bridesmaids were the bride's cousins, Felice Moore of Los Angeles, Sharon Skinner of Oakland and Pamela Moore of Mount Shasta.

Flower girl was Kelly Roberts of Redding and Bobbie Aiello of San Leandro was ring bearer.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Mazzei of Weed. He chose for his best man Robert Paolinetti of McCloud. Ushers were Richard Colombo of Mount Shasta and Patrick Lobis and Robert Pastega, both of Weed.

Approximately 150 guests gathered in the parish hall after the ceremony where a banquet was served.

The new Mrs. Mazzei wore a black ensemble for the wedding trip to the Bay Area. The couple will make their home in Weed.

If water is beginning to soak through cork coasters, coat the bottom with colorless nail polish.

BRIDE-TO-BE — The engagement of their daughter, Yvonne Baillie, to Richard Reiling is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baillie of this city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Reiling of Henley District. The young people have chosen June 22 as the date for their wedding. Both are presently attending Southern Oregon College as junior students. The future bride, a KUHS graduate, is registered in business education. Her fiancé was graduated from Henley High School and is studying secondary education with a science major. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

TO WED — Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Sanders of Klamath Falls announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Lee, to Donald K. Crabtree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale T. Crabtree, also of this city. Both young people attended Judson Baptist College in Portland last year. The future bride is presently employed in Klamath Falls. Her fiancé attends Southern Oregon College in Ashland. A June wedding is planned.

Reno Rites Unite Couple

SUMMER LAKE—Rolene Duly and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Penington of Twin Falls, Idaho, Nov. 30, and Summer Lake.

The young couple attended Paisley High School and were graduated with the class of 1961.

NUPTIAL PAIR — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mazzei are pictured after their Dec. 1 marriage in St. Anthony's Church in Mount Shasta. Mrs. Mazzei is the former Rosina Bottega.
