Reds Open Propaganda Offensive

press stepped up Saturday its pressure for a Berlin settlement in a propaganda offensive linked to the forthcoming East German Communist Party congress.

Communist Party newspaper Prayda and the govern-ment news agency Tass both reiterated demands that West Berlin become a "free city" free of Allied "occupation" forces. Neither, however, set any time limits or leveled any threats of a unilateral treaty of peace with East Germany if the West would not come to terms.

Western diplomats here regarded the renewed focus in the cress on the German and Berlin problems as a planned campaign to keep the issue in the spotlight from now until next month's
