

TROJAN UPENDS BADGER — Wisconsin's Ralph Kurek (34) is upended by University of Southern California's Gary Hill (31) and Loran Hunt (35) after receiving a pass from quarterback Ron Vanderkelen in the first quarter of action in the Rose Bowl Tuesday. Kurek picked up 20 yards on the play before his violent stop by the Trojans. USC went on to take a thrilling 42-37 victory from the rallying Badgers. — UPI Telephoto

Trojans Cop Rose Thriller

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—Wisconsin rewrote most of the Rose Bowl records but Southern California pointed to the 42-37 score today as proof it deserved the National football championship. Badger quarterback Ron Vanderkelen put on the greatest exhibition of passing in the history of the New Year's Day classic as Wisconsin scored 21 points in the final quarter but fell short before 38,698 fans.

And after it was over coach John McKay said the final score proved Southern California deserved to be rated No. 1 and Wisconsin still was second in the nation. Share Player Award The drama of the game centered around the passing of Vanderkelen and Trojan quarterback Pete Beathard, who were chosen co-players of the game, and the pass-catching duel between All-America ends Pat Richter of Wisconsin and Hal Bedsole of Southern California. Vanderkelen in his amazing demonstration of passing completed 33 of 48 throws for 401 yards and two touchdowns. Beathard, however, threw a record four touchdown passes while completing eight of twelve aerial strikes. Great as Vanderkelen's passing proved to be, he was stung by his aerial game also, throwing three interceptions. And two of them were turned into touchdowns by the Trojans. Richter Sets Mark Before the final second rolled around, he posted a record 401 yards passing and a new mark of 408 total yards. Richter's 11 catches also was a new Rose Bowl mark. Other records were 32 first downs for one team by Wisconsin, the most total points in a Rose Bowl game, the most points for a losing team and the most net yards passing, 419 by Wisconsin, in addition to Vanderkelen's personal marks. The loss was the third straight for the Badgers in the Rose Bowl. For Southern California, it was the 10th victory in the classic against three losses.

Louisiana State Blanks Longhorns, 13-0

DALLAS (UPI) — Louisiana State, which came to Dallas to "have a good time" and did just that in defeating Texas 13-0 in the Cotton Bowl, turned the trick by surprising the Longhorns with their passing. "We didn't expect LSU to throw and catch like they did," losing Texas coach Darrell Royal said of the Tigers' prolific use of passes to keep the Texas defense off balance.

The Tigers, who were winning only their fourth of 10 post-season bowl efforts, stunned the 75,504 spectators as well as Texas by electing to double their normal 10-pass-per-game and throw 21 against the Longhorns. But, it also was a surprise to Royal to learn that LSU received ers could catch as well as they did. The Tigers, who had averaged only four completions out of every 10 efforts during the regular season, hit 13 of their 21 tries Tuesday for 132 yards. Lynn Amedee, the 175-pound quarterback of LSU's No. 2, or "go," team, was the hero of the Tiger victory, kicking 23-and 37-yard field goals, hitting nine of 13 aerial efforts for 94 yards, running twice for 10 yards and recovering one of three lost Texas fumbles.

Of the six votes which escaped him, four went to teammate All-America halfback Jerry Stovall, who signed a pro contract after the game with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League, and two went to Jimmy Fields, the No. 1 LSU quarterback whose 22-yard scoring run accounted for the game's other points. Texas fumbles, both of them by tailback Jerry Cook—the game's top rusher with 39 yards, set up Field's touchdown and Amedee's final field goal. LSU also picked off another Texas fumble and intercepted a pair of Texas passes.

Rebels Sneak By Arkansas, 17-13

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Pro football talent scouts swooped down on the Sugar Bowl Tuesday following Mississippi's thrilling 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 29th annual renewal of the New Year's Day classic. One of the first players plucked was Lynn Griffing, Mississippi's everything quarterback who was the overwhelming choice as the game's most valuable player. The 6-foot-1, 200-pound senior signed with the New York Giants. Griffing closed out a brilliant college career with his greatest performance, running for one touchdown, passing for another, and setting a Sugar Bowl record with 242 yards in pass completions.

Namath Leads Alabama Tide Past Outmanned Oklahoma

MIAMI (UPI) — Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant hung most of the praise for Alabama's 17-0 Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma squarely on quarterback Joe Namath today, but Souther coach Bud Wilkinson said the Alabama line play was the big thing. "That's Namath, son — N-A-

M-A-T-H. But don't worry about it, you'll learn how to spell it in the next couple of years," jibbed the happy Bryant at a photographer trying to get Namath's name straight in the dressing room after the game. The crowd of 73,389, including President Kennedy, that watched the game Tuesday should be little disposed to quarrel with Bryant. The game Tuesday should be little disposed to quarrel with Bryant. The game Tuesday should be little disposed to quarrel with Bryant.

Arkansas coach Frank Broyles praised Griffing, calling him the greatest college passer he had ever seen. He said the Ole Miss quarterback was the difference between the two teams—particularly on the big third-down plays. "It was Griffing and Mississippi's big third-down plays that beat us. He would complete the big third-down pass and break your back," Broyles said.

Miles Leads Seattle Past Outclassed Montana St.

West Coast Basketball Roundup By United Press International Seattle University's All-America candidate, Eddie Miles, scored 30 points Tuesday night to lead the Chieftains to a 103-79 win over outclassed Montana State at Seattle. Seattle was never troubled as the Chiefs built up a 50-35 half-time lead on the way to their eighth win against two losses. Top Montana scorer was Bill Phillips with 21 points. Trailing Miles among Seattle point-makers was Ernie Dunston with 25. The game was the only major West Coast Basketball action of the night. The agenda is blank tonight. This weekend the teams head into the opening of the conference seasons in the major circuits, with USC at California for two games and UCLA at Washington for a pair. In the West Coast Athletic Conference, San Jose State is at Pacific, Santa Clara at Pepperdine and USF at Loyola for single tilts Saturday night. Four of the big six—UCLA, USC, Stanford and California—have lost only two games each. Stanford's two losses came in the Los Angeles Invitational classic last week. UCLA has a 10-2 mark, Cal and Stanford have 8-2, while USC has 7-2. The other two Big Six entrants, Washington and Washington State, have 2-5 and 2-6 respectively.

Throws Touchdown Pass Namath threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Dick Williamson in the first quarter to put the Tide out front, then set up the second score with his running and passing. He was the game's leading passer with 88 yards on nine of 17 tries.

Cotton Clark scored the second Alabama touchdown on a 15-yard bolt in the second quarter and Tim Davis booted both extra points and a 19-yard field goal in the third period.

Senior Bowl's Stars Come Late

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Rebel coach Weeb Ewbank, handicapped by so many late arrivals, takes a full squall out to the practice field today for the first time and tries to figure out who will be some of his starters. One of Ewbank's biggest headaches for the annual Senior Bowl game against the North Saturday is so many of his players come from top-ranked college teams. "We've been hurt by so many of the boys having to show up late because of other bowl games," said Ewbank, whose regular job is coaching the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League. "But," he added, "we'll be out there. We'll show up for the game." North coach Tom Landry of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys has had almost all his boys for two practice sessions. Both coaches spent the day Tuesday watching the college bowl games on television. They were more important to Ewbank than Landry because seven Senior Bowl southerners were playing.

Pro-Am Starts Open Thursday LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The pro amateur prelude to the $55,000 Los Angeles open golf tournament will hold the stage at Rancho Golf Course Thursday with top names from the golfing and entertainment world competing. Headed by Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, the leading pros will tee off with such entertainers as Dean Martin, Mickey Rooney and Lawrence Welk. Martin is paired with Ken Venturi, Rooney with Lionel Hebert and Welk with Stan Leonard. This is an 18-hole affair, with the 72-hole open grand slated to start on Friday. Among the other big pro names playing in the pro-am are Gene Littler, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Doug Sanders, Tommy Bolt, Jack Fleck

Grisham Fumbles Twice But there the speedy Alabama defensive line smashed into Grisham and he fumbled. Mike Hopper recovered for Alabama on the six. It was Grisham who fumbled again not long after when the Sooners had driven to the Tide's 11. Dan Kearley recovered this one for Alabama on the eight.

While most eyes were on Griffing during the post-game signings, other Sugar Bowl players also were in demand. Mississippi's Jim Dunaway was being courted by the Minnesota Vikings. Calgary was after Arkansas' Billy Moore, Razorback halfback Jesse Branch was signed by Calgary, and Houston's Oilers got Arkansas fullback Danny Brabham's name on the dotted line.
