

Records Fall In Masses In Annual Rose Bowl Tilt

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The result was all that mattered today to the shellshocked Southern California football team, and records that spiraled in the Rose Bowl darkness didn't diminish the sour after-taste of defeat for Wisconsin.

"These are just kids, after all—they're just 19 and 20 year olds," a team representative said of the Badgers following their epic 42-37 loss in Tuesday's classic.

The Badgers—despite their tremendous fourth period spurge after trailing 42-14—were "very sorry to have lost," said quarterback Rm VanDerKelen.

"They won the first half, and we won the second," said Wisconsin coach Mill Bruhn, carefully restrained despite some sharp criticism of officiating.

"But they won the ball game," Bruhn added.

Coach John McKay, whose Trojans appeared almost as glum as if they had lost the game as they walked to the dressing room, said the victory showed his team was still the nation's best and Wisconsin was No. 2.

McKay left no doubt he regarded Wisconsin as the best team Southern California faced this year. "Washington didn't get 37 points on us, and nobody else did either until today."

"The Trojans—who warmed up physically and emotionally after realizing they did indeed win the football game despite the Wisconsin drive—were hard pressed for tackles. Co-captain Marv Marinovich was ejected in the first half. Gary Kirner was handicapped by a severe hand injury, and Mike Gale was lost earlier because of a pre-Rose Bowl neck injury.

To McKay, the biggest factor in the game—and one that almost caused the Trojan machine to run down completely—was the four touchdown botch built by the start of the fourth period. To Bruhn, the turning point came in the second period, when he felt the officiating was most open to question.

Bruhn strode across the field at the half to question officials on a "quick whistle" and on a Wisconsin touchdown pass called back because of a penalty. The officials ruled quarterback Bill Nelson retained possession when thrown for a loss, and Nelson subsequently threw a 45-yard pass to Willie Brown to set up a touchdown.

Green Bay Sets Up Fund For Lombardi

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers have set up a $250,000 trust fund for coach Vince Lombardi to keep him from accepting an attractive offer from the Los Angeles Rams. Joe Williams, sports editor of the Scripps Howard newspapers, reported today.

"The Rams had offered to assume his contract, which still has three years to go, and, additionally, to cut him in for 10 per cent of the club ownership," Williams wrote in his column.

"By way of further enticement," Williams said, "Rams representatives had introduced him to the fiscal magic of the capital gains gimmick: at the end of five years he could sell his 10 per cent and pick up a bundle."

Williams reported that the Rams made the offer to Lombardi shortly before Lombardi guided the Packers to their 16-7 victory over the New York Giants in the National Football League championship game here last Sunday.

Lombardi admitted giving the Rams' proposition deep consideration, Williams said.

"It was a proposition I had to consider," Williams quoted Lombardi as saying. "I owed it to my family. These people (Green Bay) pay me good money, but there isn't much left after taxes.

I have a wife, son, and daughter. I am obligated to their future security."

Williams further reported that "the Rams' offer was only one of several he (Lombardi) has received in recent months. It happened to be the best, and the capital gains gimmick was mighty attractive."

As a result of the offer, Lombardi met with directors of the Green Bay club before the game against the Giants.

"Out of the meeting came this arrangement—a quarter-million dollar trust fund which matures in 10 years," Williams reported.

"This was in no sense a show-down or ultimatum," Williams quoted Lombardi. "These people are my friends. They understand my situation. I'll never forget their consideration."

Williams said the fact that Lombardi forced the meeting was indicative of unrest.

Draw Record Entries

NEW YORK (UPI)—Five of the nine United States Golf Association championships in 1962 attracted record entries and the total of 9,788 for the nine represented an increase of approximately 3 1/2 per cent over the 1961 record, according to an announcement by the USGA.

NHL Game On TV

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (UPI)—The National Hockey League game between the New York Rangers and Montreal Canadiens scheduled for the Montreal Forum Jan. 5 will be televised "live" on the Schaefer Circle of Sports WPIX-TV program.

Bowling Tourney Set

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The 22nd renewal of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America's All-Star tournament has been set for Jan. 16-26 at the Missouri Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.
