Tough Bid Done Well

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. One test of a good player is his ability to make the best of a bad West's two spade opening was one of those weak two bids that are popular in expert circles. This time it gave North and South a bidding problem. Left to them-selves they would have stopped at a comfortable four hearts. The mpetus of the weak two bid got them to the five level.

South won the opening spade lead and took stock. He had a spade loser and two possible diamond losers, of course, if East held the king of diamonds there would only be one diamond lost, but South saw how to make the hand even if West held that

He cashed dummy's ace of clubs and ruffed a club. He entered dummy with a trump, then ruffed the last club. Another trump lead to dummy pulled the opponents' last trump.

Now he led a spade from dur my and put in the eight spot. West won with the nine and found himself end-played.

A spade lead would set up South's jack for a discard of a diamond from dummy. A club lead, if he had one, would allow a ruff and discard. West led a diamond. South allowed this to run around to his queen and chalked up his dangerous con
