MONTAGUE — Mr. and Mrs. James Carrier were recently honored at a wedding reception held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Orlo Davis, in Little Shasta Valley.

The bride wore her wedding suit of white wool complemented with royal blue accessories, and a mumm corsage accented in royal blue.

The bride's mother received the guests in a brown silk suit accented with gold tones, which she wore with brown accessories and a white spider chrysanthemum corsage.

The home, designed by the bride and recently remodeled, was decorated with greens. The mantle was decked with a diversified selection of evergreens, also driftwood and three white tapers. Orange oranges and pincushion berries provided the color accents.

The dining table which held the large white cake was backed by two white wagon wheels, which originally came from the light wagon of the bride's great-grandfather, E. L. Conrod Sr., who pioneered here in 1834. The wheels were enhanced with a spray of sword ferns, green and yellow grapes and golden ribbon. The cake decorated with yellow roses and lily of the valley was encircled with green cedar sprays and white chrysanthemums. It was flanked with white tapers in silver candelabra tied with white lace ribbon and bells.

A cousin of the bride, Mrs. Don Conrod, was in charge of the decorations.

Some 200 guests arrived between 2 and 4 p.m., and included an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Conrod, San Luis Obispo, as well as many visitors from all over Siskiyou County.

Because of a bad detour in the road, there was a delay in the delivery of the cake, and guests first assembled in the pioneer home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Isaac Davis, 35. It was the date of her 64th wedding anniversary with the late Mr. Davis. It was in this home 15 years ago that they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Isaac Davis was born in that home 90 years ago.

Following the initial slice of cake cut by the honorees, it was cut and served by Mrs. Irene Willenbrink, the bride's godmother; Mrs. Ogden Walters, and Mrs. Irene Garner.

Pouring punch and coffee were Mrs. Larry Walters, Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger and Mrs. Ernest Williams. Guests were registered by Mrs. John Jackson and Mrs. Steve Cameron.

The honorees exchanged nuptial vows in Sparks, Nev., on Nov. 3, with the bride's parents attending them. The bridegroom's parents, live in Oil City, Pa., and were unable to be present for either the wedding or the reception. The young people are making their home at Ti Bar Station, Somen Bar. The bridegroom is employed as assistant timber manager in the Ukonom District, U.S. Forest Service. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College.

The bride is the only daughter of the Davises, a graduate of San Jose State College, and until her marriage was employed in the supervisor's office of the Forest Service in Yreka, as purchasing clerk.

Joint installation ceremonies of the Order of Job's Daughters, an d Lost River DeMolays will be held at the Henley High School cafeteria on Jan. 13 at 2 p.m.

Carol Ziegelmeyer will be installed as honored queen of Job's and Kent Gooding will be the new master counselor of Lost River DeMolays.

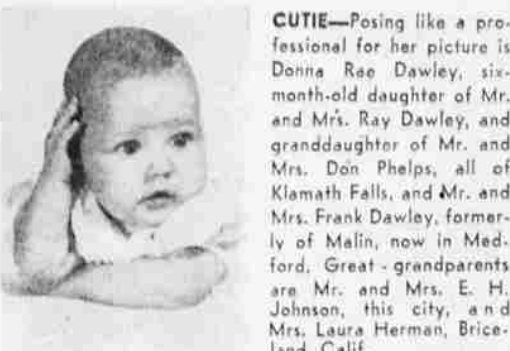

The public is invited to attend the ceremony which will be followed by a reception for the new officers.
